Stewardship Reflection

John the Baptist, like all prophets, convicts us of sin, whether it's our sins against hospitality and immigrants or sins against our own unborn children, whether it's sins against global financial and environmental responsibility or sins against sexual morality; whether it's sins against the poor or sins against the rich; and whether it's sins against the body or sins against the soul.

We all have a John the Baptist inside us. It's called conscience. It speaks like John.

It's hard as nails. It's light. It's truth. It destroys our comfortable illusions about ourselves, especially the deadly lie that...we are all good people. Don't evade or ignore the bad news. All the prophets, culminating with John the Baptist, tell us about sin. We need to know it.

PREPARE THE WAY FOR THE LORD

Advent

OUR PARISH IS ON FORMED

Did you know?

Every Monday and Wednesday we welcome programs offered by the

Société Place Maillardville Society, who were formerly at the community center.

For parents and young children from 9:30 until 12:00 PM.

Then from noon until 2:00 PM, they are offering programs for seniors.

Sharpen up your cribbage game. The programs are free of charge. Come by and check it out.

St. Nicholas

The true story of Santa Claus begins with Nicholas, who was born during the third century in the village of Patara in Asia Minor. At the time the area was Greek and is now on the southern coast of Turkey. His wealthy parents, who raised him to be a devout Christian, died in an epidemic while Nicholas was still young. Obeying Jesus' words to "sell what you own and give the money to the poor, Nicholas used his whole inheritance to assist the needy, the sick, and the suffering. He dedicated his life to serving God and was made Bishop of Myra while still a young man. Bishop Nicholas became known throughout the land for his generosity to those in need, his love for children, and his concern for sailors and ships.
