Stewardship Reflections:

"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." - Matthew 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

October 2020

The Laity's Mission in the Church

We pray that by the virtue of baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church.

Welcome back! We missed you.

Due to the on-going pandemic, however, the masses will be offered in a carefully controlled manner. Parishioners will not be able to drop into mass whenever they wish but only when they are scheduled. All mass attenders must register at the office 604-936-1311

Archbishop Miller recently issued guidelines for the re-opening of parish liturgies. Here are the key points:

- * Parishioners do not have an obligation to attend Sunday mass as the archbishop has exempted the faithful from this.
- * Those who are sick must not attend mass and those who are elderly or infirm may also decide it is wisest to stay home.
- * A maximum of 50 parishioners
- * Social distancing of two meters must be maintained at all times except between members of the same household.
- * The church must be thoroughly disinfected after each liturgy.

ARCHDIOCESAN EVENTS

* Into the Deep: New Saints, New Witnesses

Join us on Friday, Oct. 23 from 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm on Zoom to learn more about the Saints of October 2020: Blessed Olinto Marella, Blessed Carlo Acutis, and Blessed Michael McGivney. How did a misunderstood priest, a fifteen-year-old gamer and internet geek, and the Founder of the Knights of Columbus get to be Saints?

In this online presentation, Father John Horgan will present the lives of three very unusual saintly men recognized as "Blesseds" in the month of October by the Catholic Church. Who were they and what did they do? What was the witness to Christ that they have left behind? Can they speak to me in the midst of a global pandemic? What is their meaning for my life?

Father Horgan will also give some insight on the process of canonization, including explanations on how the Church recognizes new saints, how many kinds of saints there are, the marks of holiness, and the role of miracles. He will also discuss relics and incorrupt saints.

Register online at beholdvancouver.org/events

Hallowtide Prayer Vigil at Gardens of Gethsemani

Join us at Gardens of Gethsemani on Saturday, Oct. 31 for a Hallowtide candlelight procession on the vigil of All Saints' Day. Bring your kids dressed up as saints as we honor the saints and our departed loved ones. There will be singing, candles and candy for the children!

This year due to the gathering restrictions we will have two different processions starting at 6:00 pm. One at the Evangelist Chapel and one at the Holy Angels buildings. Please register in advance to attend in-person at rccav.org/events
