Stewardship Reflections:

"So the last will be first and the first last." (Matthew 20:16)

You've heard the saying "It's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

September 2020

Respect for the Planet's Resources

We pray that planet's resources will not be plundered, but shared in a just and respectful manner.

Welcome back! We missed you.

Due to the on-going pandemic, however, the masses will be offered in a carefully controlled manner. Parishioners will not be able to drop into mass whenever they wish but only when they are scheduled. All mass attenders must register at the office 604-936-1311

Archbishop Miller recently issued guidelines for the re-opening of parish liturgies. Here are the key points:

- * Parishioners do not have an obligation to attend Sunday mass as the archbishop has exempted the faithful from this.
- * Those who are sick must not attend mass and those who are elderly or infirm may also decide it is wisest to stay home.
- * A maximum of 50 parishioners
- * Social distancing of two meters must be maintained at all times except between members of the same household.
- * The church must be thoroughly disinfected after each liturgy.

ARCHDIOCESAN EVENTS

* Free Estate & Memorial Planning Webinar

Plan for the future now so your kids don't have to worry later. This free webinar provides general information for preparing or updating your will, learning about the beauty of the funeral rite and formulating pre-need arrangements. You'll be pointed to complementary guides, tools and practical resources followed by a Q&A. Takes place on Thursday, Sept. 17 from 10:00 am until 11:00 am. Register online for free at rccav.org/events Presented by Gardens of Gethsemani, a ministry of the Archdiocese of Vancouver

* Into the Deep: Catholic Teaching on Marriage & Annulments

There can be much confusion and misunderstanding about the process of annulment, the differences between annulment and divorce, the work of the Marriage Tribunal, and the sacramental life of our brothers and sisters who are divorced. Join us on Friday, Sept. 25 at 7:00 - 8:30 pm on Zoom as Dr. Robitaille will review the Catholic teaching on marriage and the basic ideas behind church law, that is, to promote the spiritual well-being of the faithful. She will explain the process of annulment - underlining the importance of a legal process that is also a healing process - and answer some commonly asked questions such as, "What happens when a marriage breaks down?" and, "Is an annulment just a 'Catholic Divorce'?" Register online at beholdvancouver.org/events
