BULLETIN

*"God created humankind in his image,
in the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.
God blessed them and God said to them,
'Be fruitful and multiply...'"*

Gen.1: 27-28

And that, my friends, is what makes the world go 'round. The basic functioning unit of human life is the mother, father, child union. The Trinity. The image of God. There's never been a human person who didn't have a biological mother and father, notwithstanding our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The amazing beauty of Jesus is that he had a human biological mother, but his father is, of course, God the father, the first person of the Trinity. Jesus Christ is the Son of God, True God, and born of a woman, making him True Man. True God, True Man.

The rest of us are not quite like that. We have biological parents who are descended from some common ancestors whose identities are lost down through eons of time in the primordial poetry of Genesis. We call our first parents Adam and Eve. We are all connected somehow by way of them; we are family.

We must never lose sight of that, especially when we are dealing with strangers. We are quite naturally drawn to the people close to us: our immediate family, our extended family, our tribe, our culture, our ethnicity, our sports team, our country, those who seem to be on our side. All of this is our human nature, which is good, but this God/Man Jesus teaches us that we are to reach out to those whom we don't even know or like. We're to go beyond our human nature and reach out to those who are our enemies or have even hurt us in some way. That is how the cycle of war and vengeance is broken.

Because, whether we know the person we hate or not we need to remember, "We are family." Whether they are in our immediate family or if they are on the other side of the world, "We are family."

The parish is only slightly removed from the basic unit of the biological family. It brings unique and separate families together to create something resembling a larger, extended family. We know each other, we share with each other, and today we celebrate with each other. We celebrate our common dignity and our friendship and our common Catholic Christian values and belief in Christ. Let us gather today in joy and peace, sharing our love with each other.
