Change

Change. It's inevitable. Life is change. Like Bob Dylan wrote,

*...he not busy being born is busy dying!"
(It's Alright, Ma [I'm only Bleeding])*

We're faced with unwanted change all the time, and alas, we must deal with it. I'd like to take this opportunity to wish Ana Moura, our Administrative Assistant all the best as she moves further down the road on her journey. I will miss her and her lovely children; the parish will miss her. May God bless her and keep her. Change. Just gotta deal with it.

Obviously, change can be good. So here's some good news – we're going to change the empty shell of a basement underneath the church into a vibrant place of lively community.

Of course, change for the good doesn't come easy. It takes hard work and resources. We will be doing a lot of fundraising for the next year or so and will be looking for parishioners to offer their time and talent, as well as their treasure.

If you have a talent in the arts, come talk to me. If you are a lawyer, come talk to me. You're good at marketing, fundraising, or can think of some way you would like to help move the project along? Please, come and talk to me. There is much to discuss. Help make a positive change for Our Lady of Lourdes.

Peace, Father Larry
