Evaluation

---

How Applications are Evaluated

North
Carolina
Arts
Council
*Fifty years
of leadership*

Subgrant Panels

---

- Panel of community members review each grant
- Panelists must base funding decisions on the quality of the grant application, not on their relationship with, or knowledge of, the organization
- Panelists review overall completeness of the grant and score applications on specific criteria

Criteria

---

- Artistic quality of the proposed project
- Community impact of project or program
- Ability to plan and implement project
- Stability and fiscal responsibility of the organization

North
Arts
*Fifty years

Priorities for Funding

---

- First Priority: Arts organizations like symphonies, galleries, theaters, art guilds, choral societies, dance companies and music presenters that are not receiving any other funding through the N.C. Arts Council.
- Second Priority: Arts learning and arts in education programs conducted by qualified artists.
- Third Priority: Civic, municipal or community-based organizations providing quality art experiences for the greater community.

If you get funded...

- Your organization will enter into a contractual agreement with the Robeson County Arts Council
- Submittal of No Overdue Tax Debts Form
- Your organization will complete a final report by June 15 with:
  - Audience numbers
  - Audience demographics
- Demonstrate use of N.C. Arts Council logo and credit line on promotional materials
- Grant payments may be distributed in installments
- Keep local arts council updated on the progress of your program. If something changes and you can't use all the funds, your local arts council must know by April. They will need to roll the funds into one of their programs.
- NOTE: Late final reports=no funding next grant cycle.
