“Parent and Me Painting” is a unique educational bonding experience for students ages 5-15 with their parent. One child and one adult will share a single 16x20 canvas together! Students will develop painting skills in this step-by-step class! Stencils will be provided! Students will have options to add artistic voice/ personalize their paintings. If you have multiple children who would like to participate, please purchase an additional ticket for each canvas needed. One parent may work with several children on their canvases, but each child will need their own canvas. Sibling discount available! All supplies included. Teacher is Michelle Stylianou, who is a certified art teacher with 17 years experience. She is also the owner of Anclote Pottery in Tarpon Springs.
