She mentored hundreds of youths and their families. This is the inspiring true story & documentary of Eva D. Jones-Young. This is "Sweet Magic."

Why should we even care about Eva's story?

"If I can do it, anyone can do it."

- Eva D. Jones-Young

With all of the technological advancements and confusion over one's identity, our youth are becoming lost without a purpose-driven-life. Good role models & healthy leadership are in high demand for today's society. Eva displays what it is to persevere in the face of adversity. It was "Woman VS. Nature," the bout she would continue to fight to this very day. Her motto was to "just keep moving." This documentary will show what it is to discover a purpose and go after it.

Throughout this film we will also learn the hard stories of Eva's students and how they persevered in the face of adversity. However, these hard stories come with hard truths to be told, so not everyone is saved. This documentary will explore the harsh reality of what it's like for our youth to be negotiating life-changing choices in this highly technological world. Is there a solution? Is there hope? Let's ask Eva.
