

TWELFTH NIGHT

Act 2 Scene 3 Worksheet

Word Bank

Drinking

Maria

Rowdy

Feste

Respect

Threatens

Malvolio

Foolish

Above

Revenge

Letter

Olivia

Task 1: Watch the Viewtorial and complete the following text using the Word Bank.

Sir Toby and Sir Andrew have been _____ late into the night. They are joined by _____, who deliberately mocks the _____ Sir Andrew with clever-sounding nonsense.

The loud singing prompts _____ to warn them that their partying has woken the whole house and sure enough _____ storms in demanding an end to the _____ behaviour. He accuses them of low conduct and _____ their very future in the household. Sir Toby is incensed at being spoken to with such a lack of _____ by a steward.

Maria hates that Malvolio thinks he's _____ everyone else. She promises to put on a wicked show for Sir Toby and Sir Andrew as she hatches a plan to take _____ on Malvolio. She will fake a _____ in Olivia's handwriting. It will describe Malvolio and trick him into believing _____ is in love with him!

Glossary

in sooth in truth

Pigrogromitus... foolish nonsense

lemen
sweetheart

whipstock
whip handle

impeticos thy gratillity
pocket the tip

tinkers
sellers of cheap pots & pans

coziers shoemakers

catches humorous songs

mitigation softening

sneck up
get lost

St Anne
saint rejected by puritans

ginger
spice for ale

epistles
letters

gait walk

feelingly personated accurately described

device trick

physic
drug, treatment

Task 2: Which of the following physical features is Maria going to describe in the fake letter that will make Malvolio find himself 'most feelingly personated'?

Hands Leg Hair Eye Forehead Nose Complexion Feet

Extension Task: Imagine you are Malvolio.

Write a letter to Olivia summarising the events of the previous night. Describe the scene and those present. Include recommendations for punishment.