

Charting Your Voyage to College with Confidence

A community workshop for students and parents.

Getting ready for college visits over spring break?

Unsure how to start the college process?

This is a “can’t miss” event for high school students and parents.

Wednesday April 1, 2026 at 6:30 PM
Fairfield Public Library

Mary Smith, CEP and owner of Seaside College Planning, returns to Fairfield Public Library for her 17th year, offering her information-packed presentation on the college planning and admission process.

Since 2001, Mary has helped hundreds of students and parents navigate college admissions. This program offers a clear overview of steps and strategies to help your family chart the voyage to college with confidence.

The event is free, and registration is required.
