Mary Smith returns to Fairfield Public Library for her 15th year, offering her information-packed presentation on the college planning and admission process.

With over 30 years of admissions experience, first as the Director of Admission at Fairfield University and then as an Independent Educational Consultant, Mary has helped countless students and their parents confidently navigate the complexities of college admissions.

This program offers a clear overview of steps and strategies to help your family chart your voyage to college with confidence.

This is for high school students, grades 9–11, and their parents, mentors, or guardians.
