it's warm
light
glow
under her feet.

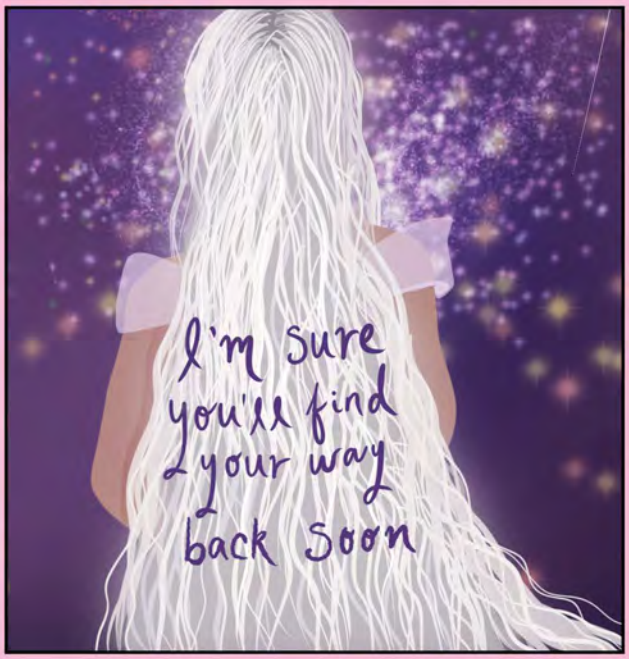
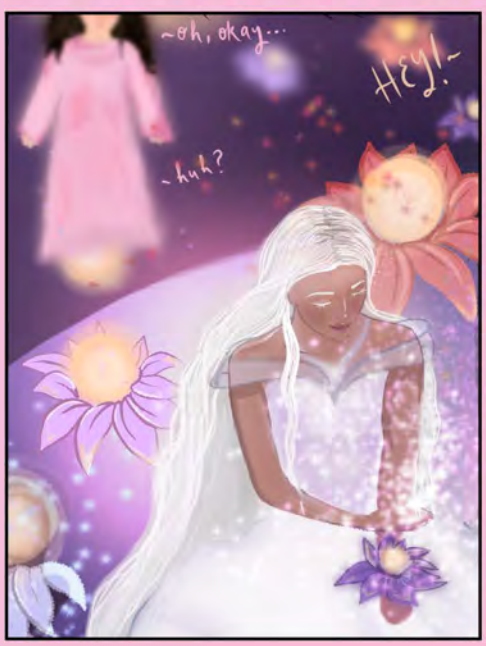
But, I-

~do not worry...



I'm sure you'll find your way back soon



~oh, okay...
Hey!~

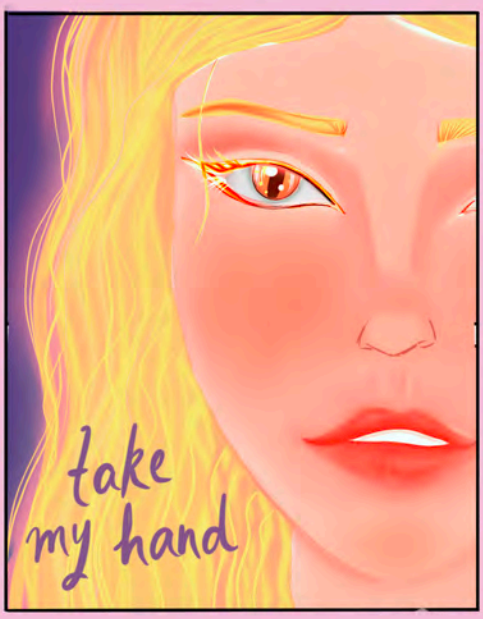
you're going to be late!

You two run along and prepare
okay
Come with me



take my hand

watch your step!

have fun, little one.

~meow
oh, hello!

Shhhhhhh
~meow!
~thank you for your help

She's dreaming now

Who are ~ you?

I am the one who
shares
the light
of the
SUN
with
the Earth
in the day
and with the moon
at night

and with the Power of dreams
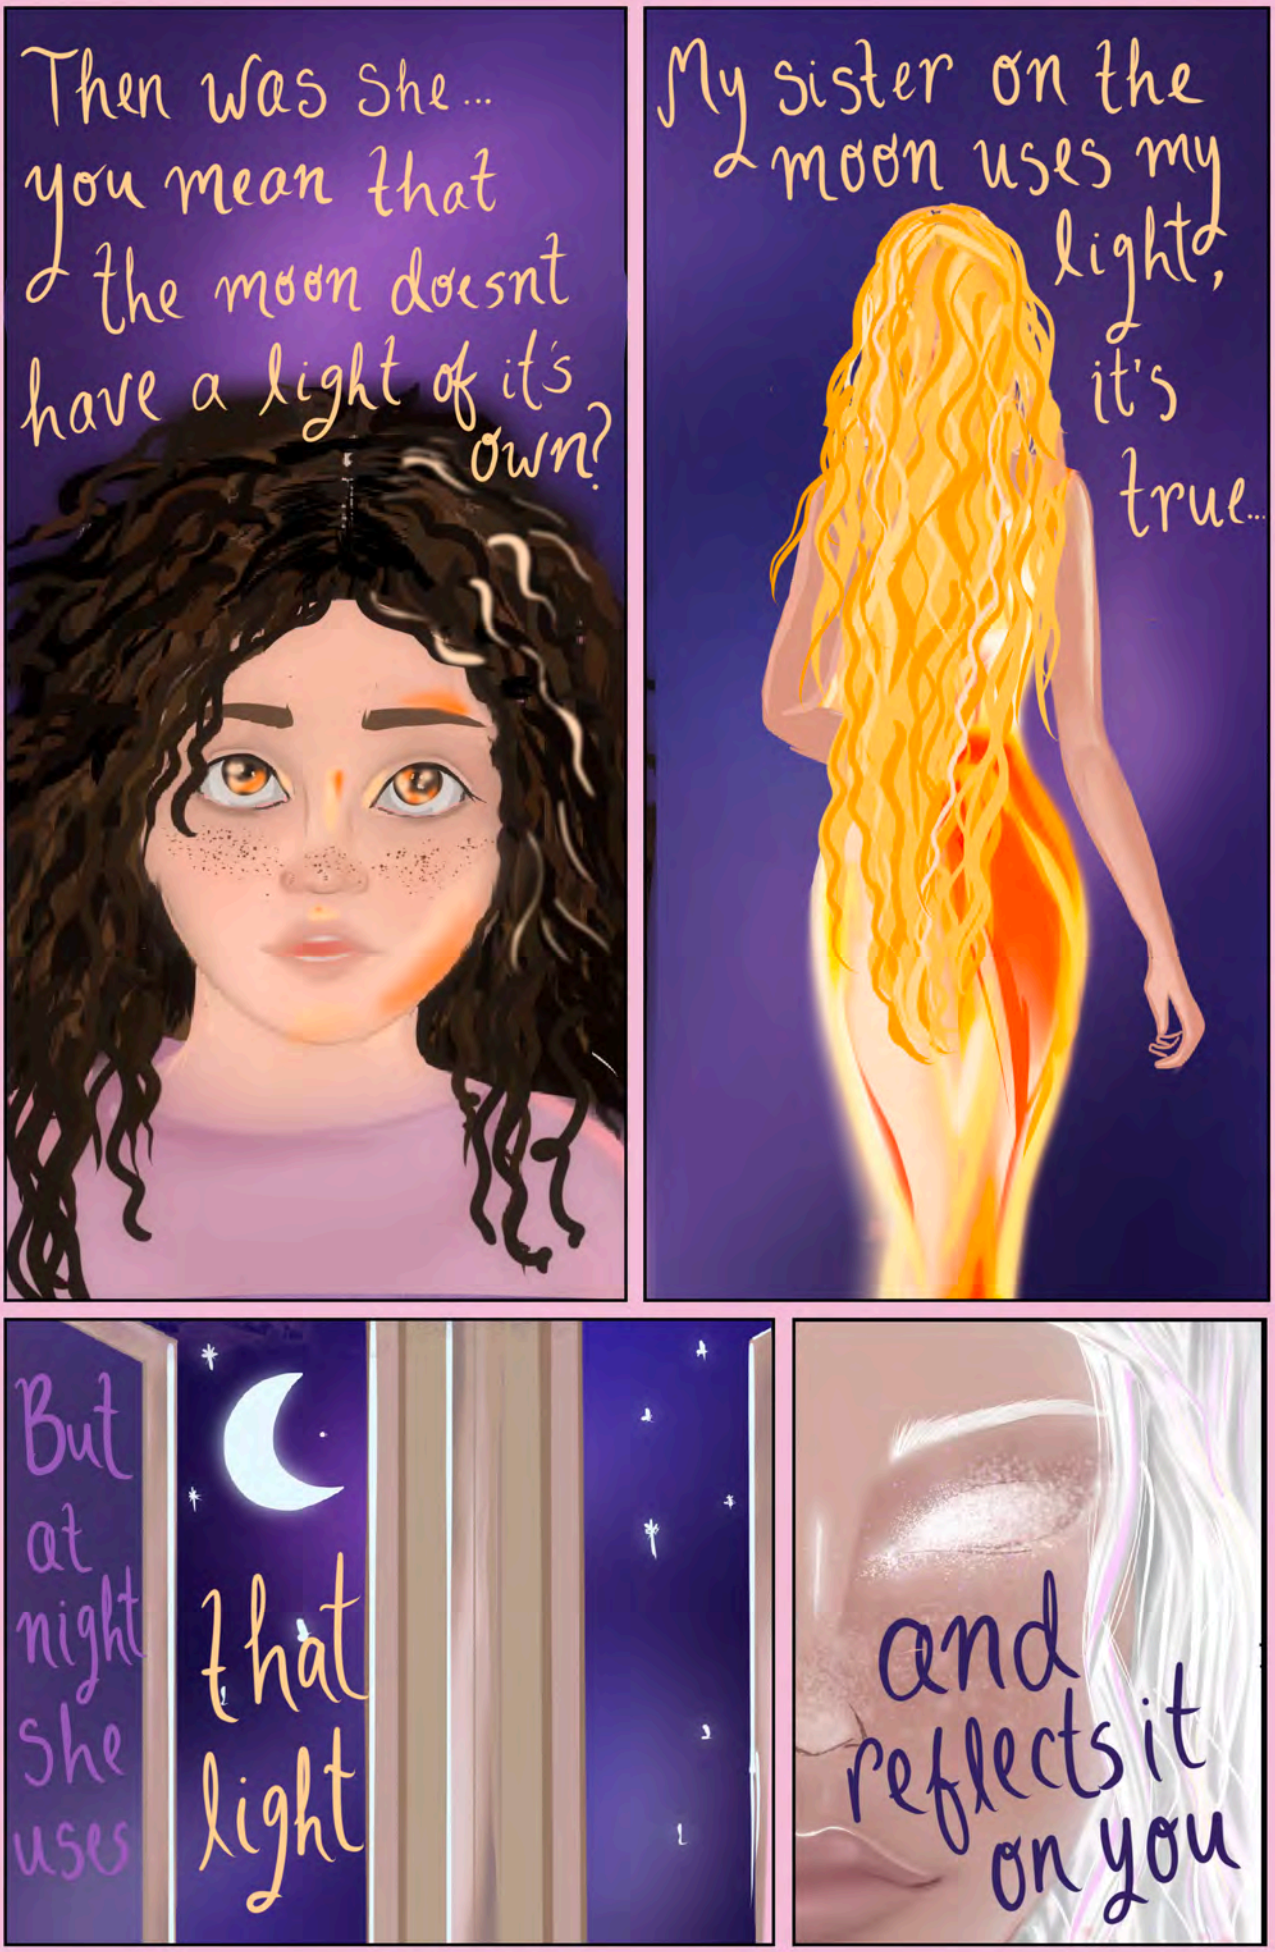
I Keep
the Stars

Bright



Then was She...
you mean that
the moon doesnt
have a light of it's own?
My sister on the moon uses my
light,
it's
true...
But
at night
She
uses
that
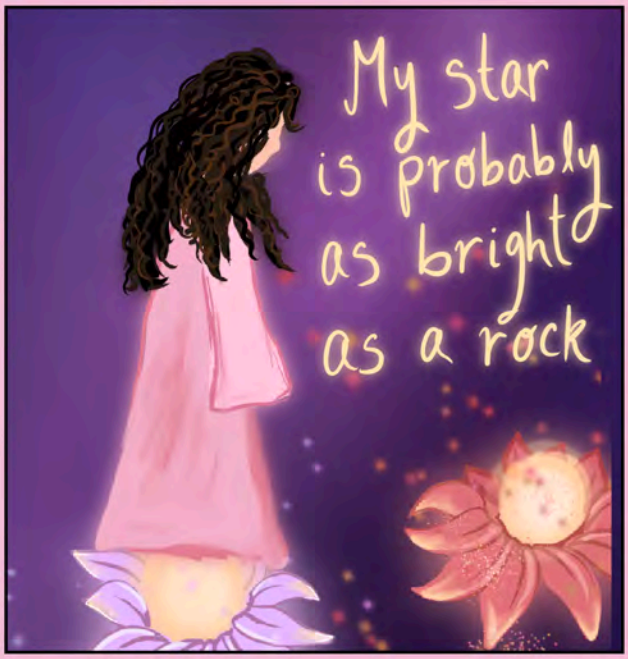
and
reflects it
on you

how do these stars have flowers?

Well... everyone has a star! They shine from each persons good dreams



It is not about how many good dreams you've had, but how much you keep your beautiful dreams alive in your heart

But my sister has another SPECIAL job she does all on her own...

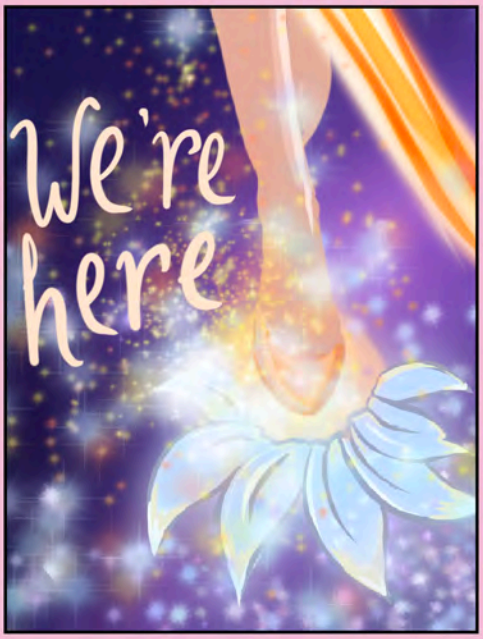
When someone's STAR needs extra LIGHT

Once a month When the full moon is bright, She watches over one LUCKY Person's dream for the night

These are the stars that shine so much that they BLOWER

These are the stars that my sister keeps bright

We are almost there...
...just a few more stars



We're here

Stand in front of the mirror and think of your most Beautiful dream

close your eyes and think hard

Step through the mirror

and when you come through the other side

You will BE...

Tonight's
Brightest
Star
