Red Barn Event Center

TERMS OF RENTAL AGREEMENT

To whom it may concern,

Thank you for choosing our venue for your special event. We hope you understand this is a barn, not a Hilton Ballroom or Ritz Banquet Hall. There are cracks and crevices which means water and bugs could come in. We will clean before your event to remove such things. When you finish your event, you are expected to:

- Clean food/prep area
- Remove all trash and place in dumpster to the left behind the venue, (there is an additional charge for excessive trash)
- Remove items from fridge that you are wanting to keep
- If washrags or towels of ours are used, leave in the sink
- Sweep the venue and mop where any spills occurred
- If you rented our tablecloths LEAVE them on the tables so we can inspect them and treat stains before washing

Check Rec Room area and clean any area used by you or your guests (the doors are always open, so people have been known to enjoy that area as well).

If tables and chairs need to be switched out, there is a labor charge.

If you hire a caterer, bartenders, band, or DJ, they are expected to clean up after themselves and remove their equipment that evening. You are allowed to move things around to design your own space, except for the truck counter and bar back. If other items need to be moved or removed, please set that up with us by your final payment date so we can take care of that.

We are not responsible for any of your lost or left behind items.

All guests must vacate the property no later than one hour after your event ends unless they have planned to stay in one of our on-site Airbnb's. If this does not happen there will be an additional service, cleaning and "occupancy fee" to be determined after assessment of situation.

Please do not:

- Allow our landscape rocks to be thrown onto the event lawn
- Serve loose berries inside or outside of the venue
- No birdseed, confetti, or rice thrown on the lawn area
- Any flowers real or artificial will need to be picked up immediately in both lawn area and inside the barn
- No open flames or oil lamps

When purchasing any of our packages we offer, there is a no cancellation policy. If payments are more than five days late, a 5% late fee will be added on to the cost of your event. We also ask that you get proof of Red Barn as additionally insured for your event. Most homeowner policies provide these at no additional fee. Check with your company for the easiest way to do so.
