Dear Brides and Grooms-to-be,

As we prepare for your special day, we want to ensure that every detail reflects your unique preferences and tastes. To streamline the dining experience, we kindly request that you select one starter, one main course, and one dessert option that will be served. Please understand that, unlike a restaurant where various options are available on the day, our catering team will prepare the meal based on your chosen three-course selection. This allows us to deliver the highest quality dishes tailored to your specific desires. We appreciate your cooperation in making your wedding day truly unforgettable.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

At Casa Da Baleia

We do not limit suppliers however, Casa Da Baleia will not take any responsibility for the actions of suppliers who are not on our preferred supplier list.

On the Day Wedding Coordination is compulsory. Should you wish to make use of our coordinator a fee of R2000 will be applied.

The Role of a Wedding Coordinator

A wedding coordinator plays a pivotal role in ensuring that a couple's special day goes smoothly. Their duties include:

- 1. Planning Assistance: Collaborating with the couple to understand their vision, preferences, and budget. Assisting in selecting vendors, venues, and creating timelines.*
- 2. Vendor Coordination: Liaising with and managing various vendors such as caterers, florists, photographers, and musicians to ensure everyone is aligned with the schedule and requirements.*
- 3. Logistics Management: Overseeing the logistics, including setting up and dismantling the venue, arranging seating, managing timelines, and ensuring everything runs according to plan.*
- 4. Problem Solving: Resolving any unforeseen issues or emergencies that may arise during the event, thinking quickly on their feet to maintain the smooth flow of the wedding.*
- 5. Communication: Acting as a point of contact for the couple, guests, and vendors, ensuring everyone is informed about schedules, changes, and any necessary information.*
- 6. Day-of Coordination: Directing and overseeing the wedding day activities, ensuring that ceremonies, receptions, and other events occur as planned.*
- 7. Emotional Support: Providing emotional support to the couple, helping them stay calm and focused on enjoying their day without worrying about the details.*

Overall, a wedding coordinator shoulders the responsibility of orchestrating various elements to create a seamless and memorable wedding experience for the couple and their guests.
