The Luangwa Valley stands as one of Africa's most iconic wildlife sanctuaries. Stretching across the eastern part of Zambia, it protects nearly the entire 350km length of the Luangwa River, a lifeline in this rugged, untamed environment.

The valley transforms dramatically with the seasons, from lush and green early in the year to dry and intense in the later months. This dynamic landscape provides a spectacular backdrop for an authentic safari adventure.

Nyaminga GMA features a rich mosaic of habitats, vast mopane woodlands, dense riverine thickets, and rolling hills, offering ideal conditions for some of Africa's most thrilling big game hunting.

Although a few scattered communities reside within its borders, the majority of the area remains pristine wilderness, where your days are spent fully immersed in Africa's raw beauty.

HUNTING AT NYAMINGA

Nyaminga GMA is a true haven for dangerous game hunters. Here, the pursuit of legendary free-roaming Cape buffalo, known locally as “dagga boys” or “kakulis,” often leads to heart-pounding encounters on foot at close range.

The area also boasts an exceptional leopard population, frequently hunted during daylight hours, along with healthy numbers of lions and elephants.

A highlight of the Luangwa Valley is the striking Cookson’s wildebeest, endemic to this region and available in Nyaminga alongside abundant hippo and crocodile.

These areas are not only critical wildlife strongholds but also vital sources of income and development for surrounding communities, especially in regions where agriculture struggles to sustain livelihoods.

Your contribution helps drive:

- Anti-poaching initiatives
- Community-based agricultural projects creating alternative employment
- Development of infrastructure such as schools and clean water systems
- Wildlife relocation and restocking programs
