From Our Pastor

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Matthew 5:4

Dear Trinity Family,

These are days of mourning and grief. Some of us are mourning the death of someone we know and love. In the past week, three people I know very well have died of COVID-19. On the day I am writing this article, I learned that another friend lost her two brothers in two weeks from the virus. Two other friends of mine have lost family members and were not able to attend the funeral nor to give and receive the hugs and tears that comfort us in times of loss.

Many of us are grieving the loss of our way of living and relating to friends, neighbors, family members and colleagues. Many of us are fearful of becoming ill or of losing our jobs or of losing our financial security.

Many of us are grieving the loss of our physical church community which gives us strength and hope and friendship and purpose. Online worship services are better than doing nothing, but still not the same as being together in person. God has created us as relational beings and our basic way of relating has been disrupted.

Yet Jesus says, "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." Where is the blessing? When, where and how will we be comforted?

The blessing is that mourning helps us to feel and know the depth of our love for someone or some aspect of life. Someone (not Jesus) once said, "Grief is love with nowhere to go." When we feel the depth of grief, we feel the depth of the love, and we are led to appreciate that person or people more than ever before. A further blessing is that grieving helps us to understand the pain of others and to be an affirming and healing presence in their lives.

When we are grieving the loss of a way of life that is not possible at the moment, it gives us a greater appreciation for the sweetness of life as we have known it and a deeper appreciation of "normal" if and when something like "normal" returns. When I was a child, whenever I would complain about being bored, my mother would tell me that there are a lot worse things in life than boring. She had lived through pretty extreme poverty during the Great Depression and boring was a big improvement on that. Boring was fine with her.

When, where and how will we be comforted? Those things are in God's plan and we can be expectant in prayer and trusting in God as we await them. One thing this season of grief has taught me is to trust more in God and less in my own plans and aspirations.

Saint Paul wrote the following words while he was sitting in prison waiting to die:

*"Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice.
Let all people know your forbearance. The Lord is at hand.
Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication make your requests be made known to God.
And the peace of God, which passes all understanding will keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus."* Philippians 4: 4-7

During this season of mourning and grief, I invite you to offer your deepest sorrows and worries and anxieties to God in prayer every day. Ask God for the strength and the consolation and the trust to live each day to its fullest potential while we await better days ahead. And then do it again tomorrow and then the next day and the next and the next. When you do that, you will experience a peace that passes human understanding.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Father Tom

MEDITATION/CENTERING PRAYER

Be still and know that I am God. Psalm 46:10

Wednesday afternoons, 4 - 4:45 pm

Sessions will include a brief teaching orientation, practicing silence together, and a brief reflection on our experience of meditation. The facilitator is Gordon Scruton.

To register and receive the ZOOM code and initial resource notes, email Rebecca Scruton at rscruton@gmail.com

If you wish to see and talk with those who join the group, please sign in 10 or 15 minutes before the meeting.

We plan to begin prayer at 4 pm.

Faithfully Living Out Our Faith

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

Jesus asked his first disciples to leave their families and their occupations as fishermen by telling them, “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.” (Matthew 4:19) It was in this way that Jesus cast his net and caught those who would become his followers, and it was His expectation that they too would cast their nets and capture additional followers. This was not a capture by force, but it was one which is accomplished through their teaching and living out the beliefs and faith that Jesus had taught. It is through the casting of their nets that they would attract a new community of the faithful, which would hold a special place in the eyes of the Lord.

It was unlike the Covenant that had been established with the Israelites by God, which brought the expectation of a higher degree of holiness, by God’s “Chosen People”. The covenant that would be established with the followers of Jesus, as a consequence of His death and resurrection, is one which was and is offered to all who choose to believe in Jesus the Christ, and it comes as a consequence of our faithfully living out our faith!

In these uncertain days, we are reminded of our commitment to God’s expectation that we faithfully live out our faith. We’ve heard a wide range of explanations for the current state of world affairs. Some say it is the earth cleansing itself, while others claim that it is God’s punishment for our failures to live as He has called us to live. Still others have identified this as retribution from God for humankind’s sinfulness. As Christians we know that the God whom we know, love and worship would not and does not reap such misfortune on us, for our sins have been cleansed and our salvation assured through the death and resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! These are not the actions of the God we worship; thus, we must not seek to find reasons for the pandemic in the hands of God.

Sometimes, as trite as it may sound, bad things do happen to good people for no particular reason. We cannot let misfortune or adversity weaken our faith; thus, we cannot allow this pandemic to weaken our faith in our loving God. Instead, we must allow our faith to serve as the means for getting through the current time of fear and trials. In the midst of these days we must continue to cast the nets of our faith in our efforts to draw others into the community of Christ’s faithful. Christ walks with us in these days of uncertainty, and we must continue to ask our God to sustain and strengthen us as we seek to live out our faith, confident that by faithfully living as Jesus has taught us to live, all will fare well, and we will live into the reward that has been promised to each of us.

Peace,
Father Darryl

Outreach to Local, Regional and Worldwide Communities

Lenten Project: Sewing Machines for Nana

Thanks to everyone who contributed to our Lenten project. So far, $575 has been donated. Checks in any amount can still be sent to the church office payable to 'Trinity Parish' with 'sewing machines' on the memo line. The money will be sent after the pandemic is over.

South Park Inn

In line with social distancing guidelines, we are not able to deliver donations. We can, however, donate money. You can go online at southparkinn.org/donate or you can send a check to South Park Inn, Office of Development, 75 Main Street, Hartford, CT 06106.

Our Syrian American Family

Following the guidelines of the Episcopal Church in Connecticut for COVID-19, we cannot drop off groceries and personal care items. Parishioners have brought cash and items like toilet paper to Marilyn's house and she has been able to safely deliver the items to the family.

Community Dinners at the Cathedral

Hands on Hartford has been updating us about changes to their Community Meals program due to the pandemic. Instead of sit-down dinners, they are offering takeout meals in accordance with CDC and City of Hartford guidelines. They are also continuing to offer unsheltered guests a warm place to stay during inclement weather.

Wethersfield Food Bank

Although we can't donate and deliver groceries to the Wethersfield Food Bank during this difficult time, many of us still want to help feed people who are hungry. The good news is that you can donate online at rec.wethersfieldct.gov/wbwsc/webtrac.wsc/donation. If you prefer, you can mail a check to Town Hall, Attn: Wethersfield Food Bank, 505 Silas Deane Highway, Wethersfield, CT 06109.

Lunch in the Park and Church by the Pond

Christ Church Cathedral has temporarily discontinued Church by the Pond worship services in accordance with suggested protocols and the City of Hartford's orders. Trinity was scheduled to provide Lunch in the Park on May 23. Instead, the Cathedral will make and distribute lunches that day and, hopefully, we'll be jumping back into the program in the summer.

Holy Week Haiku for Reflection

By Rebecca Scruton

Haiku by Gordon Scruton

We are now in the Easter Season according to our Liturgical Calendar. However, this time of our quarantine journey seems to mirror many parts of Holy Week, moving toward Easter. Reading and reflecting on this Haiku has provided important reflection time for me, expressing real feelings and real hope. I offer this for your reflections during this unfolding time.

Palm Sunday

Surprise! Crowd gathers.
Who's this? Palms waved, Hosanna
Shouts! What's all this mean?

Monday in Holy Week

Feast at Bethany:
Mary anointed Jesus
For death with great love.

Judas was right/wrong.
Right: care for poor is care for Jesus. Wrong: greed kills.

Tuesday in Holy Week

Father, save me from
This? No. I was born for this:
Bring glory to God.

Wednesday in Holy Week

Jesus troubled, feels
Knows disciple will betray
Him, Passover Lamb.

Maundy Thursday

Body, Blood — life food
Takes, blesses, breaks, gives Kneels, cleans dirty feet

Good Friday

Whipped, bloody victim
Paraded, mocked, nailed,
hangs on
Loves, forgives till end

Holy Saturday

Grief, remorse, fear haunts,
Disoriented, lost way,
What can future be?

Easter

Risen Christ, Raised me
From earth's way to your love's way
Mid earth's violent greed

May I live in Christ
Christ live in me, extending
Risen life to all.

May whole creation
Rejoice, welcoming Risen
Christ! Love conquers all.

Sunday Holy Communion

For the Sunday service, we celebrate Holy Communion at 9 am. If you have a conflict at that time, you can tune in at any time. We encourage everyone to enter this service as fully as possible. When the Holy Communion is shared, we encourage everyone to pray this prayer.

Prayer for Receiving Spiritual Communion

*Lord Jesus Christ, I believe that you are present in this Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, please enter my heart spiritually.
I embrace you as if you are already here and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.*

Paint Day - May 16 (May 23 rain date)

By Warren Blessing

Our annual "Work Day" has been changed to "Paint Day". That way, we can stay outside and easily be separated by 6 to 10 feet. If we have 8 to 10 people willing to participate, we will be able to finish our painting in about four hours.

We've had exterior painting going on over the last few weeks to help preserve the exterior of the church building. The wood around windows and trim was in poor condition. We've had it repaired and repainted. The painter is coming back to finish the higher areas.

What we have left are the metal windows around the north and east side where the lower classrooms are. We have three doors, two railings and nine windows that need painting. If you're available to assist in painting, please me at ctvalleywc@yahoo.com.

Beware of Scammers

The Diocese advises that scammers are targeting churches and church members with fraudulent requests for donations.

Scammers have hacked into church office computers and gotten names and e-mail addresses of parish members. They send emails pretending to be the pastor asking for a donation. If you get an appeal like this from one of the clergy, wardens or vestry members, please let us know. And most importantly, do not send money! We will never ask you for money in this way!

If you ever have any doubts about requests for funds coming from the church or from the Diocese, please call clergy or a warden to verify it before you send funds.

Calling All Friends to Action

By Our Wardens and Clergy

Is there anyone in our church community that you haven't seen for a while? Do you keep wondering how so and so is doing? Maybe you could reach out and give them a friendly call on the telephone.

Parishioners ask all the time, "Is there anything I can do to help during this time?" The answer is to stay in contact with folks you know and see how they are doing. Loneliness is a large issue during this period of isolation and not everyone can get out for neighborhood walks or do their own grocery shopping. We do have a good number of parishioners who live alone and have had their network of social contacts disrupted. Let's make sure that they hear from us.

No one needs permission to call and ask how someone is doing. So, it's time to get your directory out and make a couple of calls. If you find someone who is in need, please pass the information to one your wardens or clergy.

A Prayer for Parish Mission

---

Dear and Gracious God,

Please send us the people we need in order to become the church You want us to be, and please send us the people who need us in order to become the people You want them to be. Help us to respond with love to those You send, making room for them at our table and in our hearts so that together we can share Your love with our neighbors in need both locally and around the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus, who met people where they were, loved and cared for them, and invited them into a deeper relationship with You.

Amen
