

LESLIE DESMOND

Demonstration and Q&A

Learn How to Read & Help Horses

September 21, 2024 • Montgomery, NY • 1- 5:30 PM

For the last 5 decades, Leslie supports beginner-advanced riders & horse trainers from all disciplines, bodyworkers, vets & farriers in their commitment to serving horses and their human in the best possible ways.

She shares her knowledge freely with participants & auditors so horses they encounter can start to benefit immediately.

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

For the layman & professionals alike, Leslie connects the dots between bodywork, hoofcare & dental care using understandable vocabulary & straightforward explanations that children & professionals can appreciate. You will learn how to "read" the horse's posture, sharpen up your eye & gain confidence evaluating common problems associated with poor saddle fit, equine dental neglect, the hyoid-to-hoof-connection & scores of behavioral issues that clearly indicate how to design a successful rehab protocol & which professionals in the horse health care community are most likely to provide meaningful input at the right time.

Under 16? All young horses lovers are welcome at no charge.
$45 for over 16 / $175 per horse (limit 3)

Walks-ins welcome, or pre-register using Venmo/ PayPal for 50% discount eligibility for optional continuing education online with Leslie for 10 weeks.
