PATRICIA KRAUSE MEMORIAL HIGH IN TRIAL OBEDIENCE AWARD

This year at K-9 Obedience Training Club, we will once again award the Patricia Krause Memorial Award. Pat Krause was a long-time member of our club as well as a Past President. Her dedication to the sport of Obedience and her continuing support of our club over many years is legendary among our membership.

This award is presented annually at the August K-9 Obedience Trials to the dog and handler team who has achieved the highest High in Trial score from the Regular Obedience classes over the two weekend days. In the event of a tie, a runoff will determine the winner. A dog must be owner handled and must compete both days.

The recipient of this award will receive an individual plaque with an engraved plate inscribed with their name, the dog's name and score, an 8 X 10 photograph, and a cash award. The name of each award recipient will also be inscribed on the coordinating Memorial Plaque, on permanent display in our clubhouse.
