Legislative Update-Teresa Rosenberger, Lobbyist, Bernstein Shur

The House and Senate are both meeting in full sessions this week to vote on bills coming from the Committees and to hear the Governors State of the State.

We have quite a few bills that will be voted on. That we truly hope will pass such as SB 385, financial exploitation of vulnerable adults; SB 394, modifying the definition of a child with a disability to include 21 years old; SB 422 creates dental benefits for adults on Medicaid; and SB 430, an omnibus bill containing many disability issues. We are hoping it will be a good week and all will pass.

Many bills were care about have not been voted on yet by the Committees. They should happened before the end of the month.

Have a good week-end. Teresa
