The Spirit of the Lord is Upon Me

...Because the Lord has anointed Me
To preach good tidings to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives,
And the opening of the prison to those who are bound.
Isaiah 61:1 NKJV

Thank you so much for your prayers thus far! We are so excited for this trip's wonderful beginning. The team is great, and your prayers are felt! God bless you for partnering with Jesus for the people of Brazil!

About Campinas

“Campinas” means “meadows,” the city's original landscape. Campinas' population is 1.2 million, about half the size of the Minneapolis/Saint Paul metro.

Campinas has crime in its slums yet offers the state of São Paulo rich resources in agriculture and industry. Revival has touched this area, as with many other places in Brazil. As a result, people are hungry for Jesus and the things of God. They are ready to see Him move! Culturally rich, Campinas is a resilient city with a strong history. Its sister city in the USA is San Diego.

Each day, Randy prays, “Lord, teach me Your ways and show me Your power.” We fully believe we will experience the God's love like never before, sharing that love with the people of Brazil.
