

Compassion for Brazil

Prayer Journal for September 19, 2021: Onward Home!

The Spirit of the Lord is Upon Me

...Because the Lord has anointed Me
To preach good tidings to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives,
And the opening of the prison
to those who are bound.

Isaiah 61:1 NKJV

Amy is Heading Home!

After a long and successful trip, Amy has completed her tour through Southeastern Brazil and is heading home.

Thank you for your faithful prayers for Amy and her team. The move of God seen in this trip has been unlike anything many of the pastors on the trip had ever seen. Blind eyes saw, deaf ears were opened, people who were lame for many years were completely healed, and many demonized people were set free. The people of Brazil are so grateful to God, and they are giving Him all the glory!

At certain times, the Spirit of God ministered to people so heavily that entire areas of people in attendance fell out in His presence. So much freedom was experienced over these days, and the people's reactions to God made it plainly evident that true revival has begun. So many people's lives will never, ever be the same, again. God is so amazing—so kind!

I can't wait to share details with you in person. Thank you—thank you so much—for joining me in this very special ministry opportunity. May God bless you richly.

Praises!

- Jury duty and traveling graces!
- Unity, love & ministry in the team is great!
- A great move of God in São Paulo! REVIVAL!!
- Ministerial hearts among all the team members.
- Ability to push through and remain focused upon what God is doing and saying.
- A very successful trip: softened hearts and renewed lives in Southeast Brazil.
- Each day, Randy prays, “Lord, teach me Your ways and show me Your power.” We did experience the God's love like never before, and the people of Brazil were blessed by His power on display!

Thank you! God bless you!
