Our Wonderful And Gracious Father

From the Pastor...

Luke 15:11-13

What was (or is) your father (or your father figure) like? What were (are) his strengths and/or weakness? I've got news for you. He was (is) not perfect. As good and kind as we say he was or is... or lack of... he had an impact on you, and your relationship to others.

In Luke 15 is the story or parable of the prodigal son. But really the story is more about the unbelievably loving Father. Let's look at it.:

1. A Father In Love With An "Lost Son"

This son loved to party, he loved enjoying life with friends. He takes his inheritance and goes spending it with his friends. At the end, he is living a humiliating life.

Luke 15:17-21 Coming "to himself", he returns, embarrassed, and confesses to his waiting Father. "I have sinned".

What a beautiful response from the Father. He showers him with affection and declares a celebration.

The older brother gets bitter. He feels he deserves more because of has been there for his Father all the time, while his younger brother has been out there partying.

The wonderful and gracious Father's response affirms patiently to his older son that he will still inherit everything, but that he is missing some important truths in his brothers return.

2. Responding to the Wonderful And Gracious Love of The Father

We are all born spiritual orphans. We are born in need of a Father who can help. In need of a Father? Are you playing with pigs? Have you wasted your blessings and find yourself thinking about the goodness and kindness of your Father? Wake up! Come Home! He is waiting. He is totally in love with you.

The Father in Luke 15 waited patiently everyday for his son to return. He is waiting for you today. The minute you return home, He will receive you with open arms. Today is the day for you to be greeted by the love of our wonderful and gracious Father.
