1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

AJMHA art program provides young students with foundational skills and knowledge in visual arts. It emphasizes creativity, self-expression, and basic artistic techniques. Students explore various mediums such as drawing, painting, sculpture, and collage. Our curriculum often includes art history, introducing students to famous artists and diverse cultural art forms. We provide hands-on activities and projects, students develop fine motor skills, learn to appreciate different perspectives, and gain confidence in their artistic abilities. We foster a lifelong appreciation for the arts and encourage creative problem-solving.
