Bandera Junior Show Jan. 10-12

Bandera County's 44th Annual Junior Show will be held at the Bandera County Recreation Center at Mansfield Park, two miles West of Bandera on Highway 16 on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Jan. 10, 11, and 12. Featured in the show will be livestock, farm mechanics projects, and baked goods, exhibited by Bandera County 4-H, FFA, FHA, and home economics class members.

Animals entered in the show, including fat lambs, and breeding sheep, cattle, swine, turkeys, broilers, and rabbits, will start arriving by 1 p.m. and will be in place by 5 p.m. on Thursday. All will be judged on Friday. Trophies and awards will be presented to the winning livestock exhibitors at 1 p.m. Saturday, just prior to the livestock auction which begins at 1:30 p.m.

There are divisions for breads, cakes, pies, and cookies in the Bake Show, of which Mrs. Thomas H. Keese serves as superintendent. Judging of baked goods will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday, and awards will be presented to the winners prior to the auction of baked goods at 10:30 a.m.

The Farm Mechanics Project Show will consist of classes for livestock equipment, farm machinery, farm, home and yard conveniences, electrical projects, and trailers. Exhibits will be on display throughout the show.

Thomas H. (Bub) Keese, Show Superintendent, and Harvey Faris, Assistant Superintendent, invite the public to attend the show and sales. Food and drinks will be sold on the grounds by the Bandera County 4-H and Home Demonstration Clubs each day of the show.

Shell Awards Scholarship

UTSA freshman Michael De Los Santos had been named recipient of the Shell Incentive Fund Scholarship Award by the Shell Foundation.

De Los Santos, an accounting major, will receive a $2,500 award for personal expenses and a $375 stipend for tuition and fees.

This summer he will work at Shell in Houston. A native of Corpus Christi, the UTSA student is planning a career in corporate accounting.

THEY'LL BE THERE

PLAYING THIS SATURDAY, Jan. 6, at Floore Country Store are the popular CIRCLE C BAND, five members of whom are pictured here. They are gaining a name for their awesomely authentic Country & Western sound. Dancing begins at 9 p.m. to add a continuing welcome to the New Year and the 1980 New Season of Entertainment.

Study Slated On Settlers

The heritage, folklore, architecture and crafts brought to Texas by German settlers will be examined in a course to be offered during the spring semester at UTSA.

Among the many German settlements established in South Texas during the 1920's and 1830's were Boerne, Comfort, Fredericksburg, New Braunfels, Sisterdale and several small towns along the Guadalupe River.

Students will have the opportunity to organize field trips to the German communities.

"It will be a celebration of cultures as we study the skill and craftsmanship of the German people, their architecture and the leading place they earned in the economic make-up of Texas as they established breweries and banks," said Dr. Yolanda Broyles, instructor.

Knowledge of the German language is not necessary to participate in the course, and it is open to all students.

Registration for the spring semester at UTSA will be held Jan. 9 and 10 in the Convocation Center. Classes will begin Jan. 14.

Pease Shows American Revolution

Pease Middle School, 201 Hunt Lane, will host a traveling exhibit titled "Texas and the American Revolution" throughout January. The public is invited to view the show during regular school hours.

The Institute of Texas Cultures has produced a major show to answer how Texans can feel personally involved in celebrating this historical event.

On July 4, 1776, 13 British colonies on the Atlantic coast of North America declared their independence from England. It would be 69 years before Texas became a state of the Union.

Within 50 years after 1776, most of the Western hemisphere was free of European rule. Texas had a stake in three Revolutions of the Americas.

With pictures and story, the exhibit shows how Texas was affected by the American Revolution.

For more information call the school, 673-8771.

The News Was Solemn

Looking over a newspaper published 180 years ago today, on January 4, 1800 at Kingston (Ulster County) New York, are Doug Kazen, center, and his brother, Jeffrey Kazen, right, while their youngest brother, Julien stands by.

This copy of the four-page old-style newspaper, the ULSTER COUNTY GAZETTE, published by Samuel Freer and Son, is owned by Mrs. L. K. Stemen.

It was cherished and preserved under glass because, in addition to general news, it has the complete report on the death and funeral of General George Washington, the father of his Country.

It tells of the reaction of the American Congress and carries a eulogy to his friend delivered by John Adams, then the second president. Washington died on December 14, 1799, and this paper, published in January expresses the great loss felt by the Nation as he was entombed in George Town at his beloved Mount Vernon on Dec. 20.

Mrs. Stemen and her husband are interested in printing, and can appreciate the excellent typography and writing in this early-day journal. The newspaper was on display at the ECHO office briefly, but is usually kept wrapped to prevent fading of the type, set partially with old-style lettering.

Mrs. Sanchez Dies At Age 90

Mrs. Elena H. Sanchez, a native of Helotes, died Sunday morning, Dec. 30, 1979 at Santa Rosa Hospital in San Antonio, following a brief illness, at the age of 90 years. She was born at her parent's ranch near San Geronimo, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Manuel Hernandez, on April 26, 1889.

She was the widow of Celestino Sanchez, a rancher, who preceded her in death almost three years ago. They celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary about five years ago with a formal blessing and nuptial mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church where friends and relatives gathered to help them celebrate.

Mrs. Sanchez had nine children, seven of whom survive her. Preceding her in death were a son, Louis, and a daughter, Annie. Among the seven children is her daughter, Mrs. E. J. (Ella) Dunford, of Helotes. Her other daughters are Mrs. Aurelio (Stella) Hernandez of San Antonio, Mrs. Alice Cisneros of Lindsey, Ohio, Mrs. Fred (Celia) Mendoza and Mrs. Albert (Beatrice) Cardiel, both of San Antonio. Mrs. Sanchez is survived by two sons, Arnold Sanchez of Lindsey, Ohio, and Arthur Sanchez of San Antonio.

Mrs. Sanchez had a total of 100 grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren, many of whom live in this area and cherish happy memories of their association with her.

Funeral services were held at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, where she lay in state and a rosary service was attended by many on Tuesday evening, Jan. 1, 1980, with Rev. Bernard Rochon, S. M., leading the prayer. Funeral Mass was celebrated by Rev. Edward Jach, S. M., pastor, at Our Lady of Guadalupe on Wednesday morning, Jan. 2. Interment followed alongside her husband at Helotes Catholic Cemetery. Pallbearers were her grandsons, Don Dunford, Robert Hernandez, Richard Sanchez, Leroy Sanchez, Rudy Terrazos, and Jesse Colvin.

Those who had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Sanchez will remember her, and appreciate her pioneering spirit which contributed much to her family and Helotes neighbors. To all who will miss her we extend our sincere sympathy at their time of loss.

Moonlight and sunshine marked the entrance of 1980 in this part of the Hill Country, and for miles around, in contrast to the first week of January last year.

A 1979 thunderstorm rumbled for six full hours from 2 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 28, and brought the final rainfall of two inches to this area, according to Henry Brauchle, local weather observer.

Other parts of South Texas chalked up 10 inches of rain; and the San Antonio traffic was hampered Friday by many stalled cars at low water crossings. Give or take a few days, it could be noted that 1979 came in like a lion and almost succeeded in going out like one. However, both New Year's Eve and New Year's Day had sparkling weather, a bit crisp, but nearly ideal.

Mr. Brauchle said that rainfall for 1979 as recorded at his Poor Boy Ranch tallied 36.2 inches, or two inches more than last year with December marking 3.8 inches. This is about nine inches above the annual average for the area, promising a happy new year to all who farm, ranch, and enjoy an abundance of water in the streams and wells.

Rural Living Group Set

A new organization for those persons interested in country living and moving "back to the land" is forming in the San Antonio area. "Country Bound" is a non-profit educational organization seeking to educate and unite persons reaching for a more fulfilling, self-sufficient, natural lifestyle.

All persons whether definitely committed to the "back to the land" movement or just beginning to explore its ideals are invited to contact Cindy Blackshear at 656-4808 after 4 p.m. for more information. Board of directors is now forming.

Mrs. Allee Dies at Age 56

Mrs. Patricia Claire Allee, (nee Tracy) formerly of Grey Forest, Texas, recently of Route 4, Boerne, passed away in a San Antonio hospital Dec. 29, 1979 at the age of 56 years.

She was born in Storm Lake, Iowa, Sept. 8, 1923. Survivors include her husband, Tracy Thomas Allee of Boerne; her daughters, Patty Allee of Austin; and her son, Tracy T. Allee II of Seattle, Wash. She leaves many other close relatives, including children, grandchildren, and cousins.

Rosary was held at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Boerne, Sunday morning, Dec. 30. Funeral Mass was said Monday, Dec. 31 at St. Peter's. Interment followed that afternoon at Mount Hope Cemetery at Carrizo Springs, Texas.

Sympathy is extended to all who will miss her.

Sally Simpson, wearing a lace two-piece formal, models a fashion that is without seasonal limitation and would be lovely in Spring or Summer as well as during holidays. In the background can be seen Elsie Adler as she describes the lovely garments.

Mrs. Rosalie Boysen, teacher of exotic dancing, performed during the intermission at the fashion show sponsored by Unique Boutique. The event took place in Historic Helotes Inn, operated by John Valentine and family.

Style Show Is Big Hit

The Christmas Style Show sponsored by Unique Boutique and held at Helotes Inn proved a success with about 50 persons attending to see the latest fashions from the Boutique located at Helotes Park Plaza and managed by Linda Johnson.

Emcee for the event, giving graphic descriptions of the formal and informal wear, was Elsie Adler of San Antonio Ranch.

Seven models took part in the event. During the intermission Rosalie Boysen gave an interpretation of exotic dancing. Steak dinners were served.

Marriage Vows Renewed

Roland and Rosalie Boysen of Grey Forest renewed their marriage vows Sunday at the 12:30 mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church in celebration of their 29th Wedding Anniversary. After mass several friends and Father Bernard Rochon enjoyed dinner at the couple's home.

The oldest existing commercial newspaper, first published in 1656, is Haarlem, Netherlands' Haarlems Dagblad/Oprechte Courant. The first issue survives.

Children Enjoy Special Visit

Members of the Alamo Good Sam Travel Club brought food, clothing and toys to their December campout at Cascade Caverns.

As part of the club's annual charity event they held a white elephant auction.

Gifts and food were distributed to a family on Hausman Road by the club president, Roland Boysen assisted by Mrs. Boysen and Mrs. and Mrs. Larry Ferrero.

Pictured with the gifts are the parents and nine of their 13 children. The children are holding gift-filled stockings made by members.

Wool And Lamb Producers
Wool and lamb producers must submit their sales slips from 1979 wool and unshorn lamb marketings and file an application before they can receive their incentive payments. County Executive Director, Ronnie W. Pendley, said producers have until January 31, 1980, to file and avoid late payments.

The support price for 1979 wool marketings is $1.15 per pound. Pulled wool will continue to be supported at a level comparable to the support price for shorn wool through payment on unshorn lambs.

Shorn wool payments are based on a percentage of each producer's returns from sales. The percentage is the amount required to raise the national average price received by all producers for shorn wool in 1979 up to the support price of $1.15 a pound. Shorn wool prices averaged between 80 and 85 cents per pound in 1978.

Approximately 220 local producers have filed for their 1979 incentive payments.

Registration Set Jan. 9-10

Registration for UTSA's spring semester will be held Jan. 9 and 10 on campus in the Convocation Center.

On Jan. 9, graduate students may register from 10 a.m. to noon, seniors from noon to 2 p.m., juniors from 2 to 4 p.m. and sophomores from 4 to 6 p.m.

Continuing Jan. 10, registration will be held for freshmen from 10 a.m. to noon, special students from noon to 2 p.m. and transient students from 2 to 4 p.m.

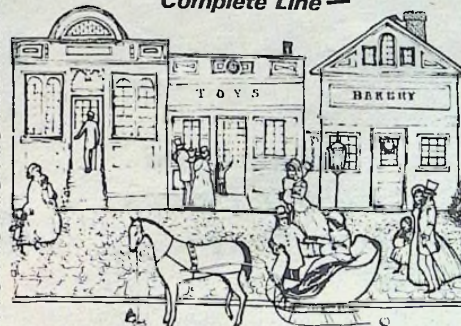

Classes will begin Monday, Jan. 14.

Included in the spring course schedule is a list of times for obtaining registration packets according to student identification number. Course schedules are available in the registrar's office.

Twin Boys Arrive

Gary Dwayne and Michael Wayne, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Harrison of Pasadena, Texas, arrived Dec. 5, 1979 in a Houston hospital.

Here, Michael is being held by their father, Karl; and Gary is held by their Mother, Cathy.

The little boys are the first grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Harrison; and their paternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kempf longtime residents of Helotes and Grey Forest, and Mrs. Maudie Harrison of San Antonio.

The babies, who weighed five pounds, 12 ounces, and five pounds, 8 ounces respectively at birth, are also welcomed by their aunts, uncles and cousins. They were too tiny to recognize Santa Claus, but appeared to be enjoying their relatives who made holiday visits to greet them.

GRAPE SERENDIPITY SAUCE

Makes 2-1/2 cups sauce

- 2 cups orange juice
- 1 can (6-ounces) Welch's frozen concentrated Grape Juice, thawed and undiluted
- 3 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1 medium orange, cut-up
- 1 teaspoon silvered orange peel

In medium saucepan, combine orange juice, grape juice concentrate and cornstarch; blend to dissolve cornstarch. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly, until sauce is thickened and clear. Reduce heat and simmer several minutes. Add orange pieces and peel. Serve warm with French toast, meat, cake or ice cream.

USDA Proposes Measure To Help

Elderly and disabled people would be able to apply for food stamps at the same time they apply for Supplemental Security benefits (SSI) under rules proposed recently by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The new rule would make it possible for the Social Security Administration, which administers SSI benefits, to also accept food stamp applications. People applying for SSI would be able to apply for food stamps simultaneously if everyone in the house is applying for or receiving SSI benefits, and no one is already receiving food stamps.

The proposed rule, which implements a provision of the 1977 Food Stamp Act, could take effect as soon as next summer.

Currently, SSI recipients who want to apply for food stamps must go through a separate procedure. "This has placed a real burden on people who are elderly or disabled," said Assistant Secretary Carol Tucker Foreman. "It may also be a reason why many elderly and disabled poor do not currently participate in the food stamp program. Processing food stamps and SSI applications jointly should be of real assistance to these people."

The proposed regulations were published in the Federal Register on Friday, Dec. 7. Comments on the proposal must be received by January 22, 1980, and should be sent to Claire Lipsman, director, program development division, family nutrition programs, Food and Nutrition Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

Card Of Thanks

At this time of loss of our beloved Mother, Elena Hernandez Sanchez, we wish to express our appreciation to all who came forward to offer sympathy and to assist us in accepting God's will.

The many acts of kindness will be remembered and cherished more than we can tell you. We wish to express our thanks to Father Edward Jach and Father Bernard Rochon for their words of comfort and for the Rosary and Mass which they offered on our Mother's behalf. We appreciate the assistance of the Altar Society as well as of many individuals who sent flowers, cards, food, and especially for their prayers at this time.

A long life was granted our Mother, and we recognize that we must also grant her the rest she desired until we meet again.

Please accept the thankfulness of our entire family on this occasion.

Study Covers Aquifer Use

The Texas Department of Water Resources has published a new report containing estimates of available ground water that is recoverable in Texas aquifers, including the Edwards Aquifer, on an average annual basis from 1980 through the year 2030.

Average annual ground-water availability from major and minor aquifers is estimated to range from approximately 10.2 million acre-feet in 1980 to 8.4 million acre-feet in the year 2030.

An acre-foot of water is the amount of water that would cover an acre to a depth of one foot, or 325,851 gallons.

Titled "Ground-Water Availability in Texas—Estimates and Projections Through 2030," the report is available without charge from the Texas Department of Water Resources, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Texas 78711. The report number is 238.

Major aquifers included in the study are the Ogallala, Carrizo-Wilcox, Edwards (Balcones Fault Zone), Trinity Group, Alluvium and Bolson Deposits, Gulf Coast, and the Edwards-Trinity (Plateau).

Minor aquifers in the report are Woodbine, Sparta, Queen City, Edwards-Trinity (High Plains), Santa Rosa, Hickory Sandstone, Ellenburger-San Saba, Marble Falls Limestone, Blaine Gypsum, Igneous Rocks, Marathon Limestone, Bone Spring and Victorio Peak Limestones, Captain Limestone, Rustler, Nacatoch Sand, Blossom Sand, Purgatoire-Dakota, and other undifferentiated smaller aquifers.

Retirees Need More Income

People planning ahead for their retirement should be aware that social security was never intended to offer a complete retirement income, Gilbert G. Gonzlaez, social security district manager in San Antonio, said recently.

Social security benefits provide a partial replacement of earned income lost or reduced because of the retirement, disability, or death of a worker.

Some pension experts estimate that retirement income should be 60 to 70 percent of pre-retirement earnings in order for a retiree to maintain a standard of living similar to that before retirement.

Social security benefits generally provide 25 to 60 percent of pre-retirement earnings, depending on the individual's earnings over the years. With an eligible husband or wife, benefits would be 37½ to 90 percent of the worker's previous earnings.

Number Takes Eight Weeks

Anyone who expects to need a security number should apply eight weeks before the number will be used, Gilbert G. Gonzalez, social security district manager in San Antonio, said recently.

Evidence of a person's age, identity, and citizenship status is required at the time of application. In addition, anyone 18 or over must apply in person at a social security office.

The best evidence of a person's age and citizenship status is a public or church record of birth recorded before the fifth birthday, or a baptismal record recorded before age 5, Gonzalez said.

Many different documents can be used to provide identity, such as a driver's license, voter's card, some sort of ID card, club membership card, or similar items showing signature and personal information.

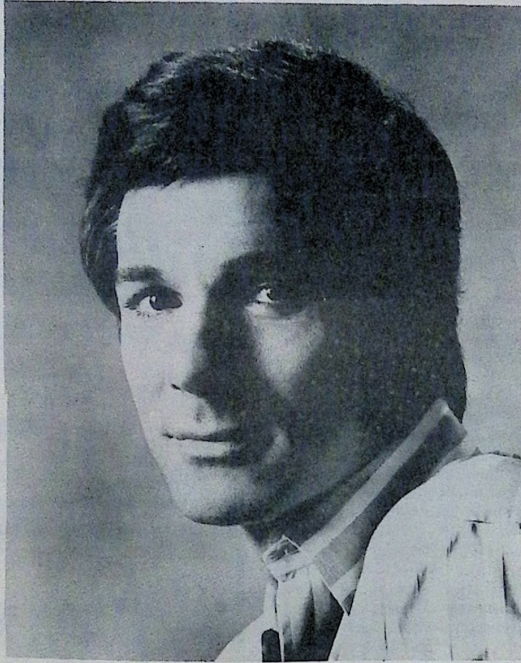

People born outside the United States should show their citizenship papers or immigration documents.

Photocopies cannot be used. The original of all documents should be submitted and all documents will be returned.

The jewels in a jewel watch are usually rubies or sapphires.

Maharis Follows Van Johnson

On Jan. 22, George Maharis will open in "Catch Me If You Can." Known for his roles on television and in movies, he began his career on the New York stage.

River City theatre-goers can enjoy the varied talents of George Maharis in this cleverly designed fun comedy, at the Fiesta Dinner Playhouse. For reservations to see Van Johnson starring in "Send Me No Flowers" through Jan. 20, or George Maharis starring in "Catch Me If You Can," call the Fiesta Dinner Playhouse at 494-7793.
