Blood Bank Honors Helotes

Helotes was honored by the South Texas Regional Blood Bank during January, National Blood Donor Month, for having at least five percent of its population donate blood during 1982.

At a luncheon held in San Antonio to recognize outstanding donor groups, a plaque was presented by the blood bank to Mayor Thomas E. Beatty of Helotes, who represented local blood donors.

Nationally, less than five percent of the population donates blood.

"Helotes can be proud of its efforts to maintain the blood supply to hospitals in South Texas," said Blood Bank officials. "There is no substitute for blood, and there is no substitute for people who care, as those in Helotes have demonstrated."

Feb. 13, at 2 and 7:30 p.m., and Monday, Feb. 14, at 7:30 p.m.

David Frizzell and Shelly West, Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 15 and 16, at 7:30 p.m.

Roger Harkness Fund To Save A Neighbor

A group of concerned citizens is organizing a fund to help a Northwest area resident receive the medical treatment he needs to survive a life-threatening disease. Roger Harkness of Northwest Crossing is a victim of a bone marrow disease known as idiopathic myelofibrosis.

Thanks to a recent development in life-saving techniques, doctors at the University of Washington may be able to provide a brighter future for Roger Harkness. They are optimistic that a bone marrow transplant can reverse the current course of the disease which has turned his normally healthy bone marrow into fibroid tissue.

The disease destroys the host body's capability to reproduce blood cells, and among other side effects, leaves the person defenseless to combat infection. The bone marrow transplant procedure, according to Dr. Roger Lyon, Harkness' physician, involves initial steps to destroy the patient's own bone marrow. Using enormous doses of medication combined with radiation, the process kills the diseased marrow cells. After killing the diseased cells, Lyon said, the healthy bone marrow cells will be injected into Harkness, where doctors hope they will grow and provide normal blood cells.

The donor for his father's transplant will be Harkness' son, Jay. The actual transplant will be implemented at the Seattle Transplant Center and will take three months. "Ideally, a person's identical twin would be sought to avoid the rejection phenomenon," Lyon said, "but in Roger's case, we looked at the second choice, his sister, since he has no twin." The decision was made to use his son Jay's marrow, the doctor said because the match was closer than the sister's. "There is no other way to treat him," Dr. Lyon said. "This is his best chance for survival."

The Harkness family, Roger, Judy, and children, Jay, 11 and Carla, 8, moved to their present home in August, 1981. Roger is an elementary school physical education teacher in the Fort Sam Houston District, and he is very active in the community. The family plans on making a Feb. 21 arrival date in Seattle.

To make the trip possible, their Northwest area neighbors have established a "Roger Harkness Fund" at Kelly Field National Bank. Contributions will assist the Harkness family in meeting the staggering expenses associated with this special medical treatment. San Antonio area citizens who wish to assist in making this transplant a reality and help the family may do so through the special fund set up with Kelly Field National Bank, P. O. Box 28010, San Antonio, TX 78284.

Filing Opens For New City Election

The Helotes City Council, Thursday, Feb. 3, voted to appoint Al Cuellar and Sam Lopalo as Reserve Officers bringing to five the reserve police force aiding Police Chief Benny Benavides in patrolling the City. A part-time paid Police Officer is still being sought.

The Treasurer's report showed that the City had a revenue of $25,915.30 in the period Jan. 21 to Feb. 3 which included tax receipts.

Bills accrued recently and loans and services before taxes were collected have been paid with these expenses amounting to $19,365.73, it was reported. The balance at present is $13,709.27.

Mayor Tom Beatty said that the City is now clear of indebtedness. Monthly running expenses now average $3,200. Excess of the current budget, the council voted, will be put in a Money Market Fund.

Places for the Council were chosen in a special session. Elections will be held for all five Councilpersons and the Mayoralty seats on the State appointed date for municipal elections Saturday, April 2, and several members had already filed for re-election. Those who wish to run may file at the City Hall during regular hours until March 2, a month before the election.

Absentee voting will be held at the City Hall and elections are planned for the PARC building.

PARC is also the setting for the monthly Municipal Court session to be held, said Judy Reichardt, Municipal Clerk, at 6:30 p.m., on the second Tuesday.

The next meeting of the City Council, Mayor Beatty said, will be held on Thursday, Feb. 17.

Galland-Nunneley Rites Said At Zion Lutheran

In a candlelight ceremony at Zion Lutheran Church of Helotes, Miss Jill Annette Galland became the bride of Jerry W. Nunneley, Jr., on Saturday evening, January 22, 1983. Rev. Paul Probst, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Galland of Helotes and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry W. Nunneley, Sr., of San Antonio.

The floral arrangements had shades of salmon flowers and greenery with white ribbons on the aisle candleabra.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore her mother's wedding gown from 1958. It featured a fitted bodice of imported Chantilly lace with long tapered sleeves, and a scoop neckline. The pointed lace bodice melded into a silk taffeta skirt which formed a chapel train. Her cathedral veil of silk illusion continued from her pearl headpiece which was a wreath.

Jennifer Galland was her sister's Maid of Honor, with Janet Ligon and Perian White of Helotes and Jessica Pye of Alice, Texas, attending. They wore ecru lace blouses with green moire file skirts and salmon-colored sashes. Kim Sneed of Houston and Sonja Swiggum of San Antonio were flower girls. Both carried bouquets which were miniature versions of the bridesmaids' flowers, and had floral wreaths in their hair.

Larry Nunneley was his brother's Best Man. Groomsmen were Andy Horn, Goliad; Tim Horny, San Antonio; Marty Morris, San Marcos; and Bruce Jones, Houston. Ushers were Bill Clancy, San Antonio; and brothers of the bride, Jack and Jon Galland. All wore charcoal grey tuxedos.

Patty Moeller was the organist, and Laurie Killian, vocalist. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Don Galland of Phoenix, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Dieder of LeSeuer, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Rod Galland and children of Lemon, South Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. Les Baker, and Mark and Dianne of Corpus Christi; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Baker, Arlington, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Buckley of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Patton and children, Rockwall, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reid, Dallas; Mrs. Juanita Rinnert, Tulsa, Okla.; Mrs. Robert Rinnert, Bogalusa, Louisiana; and Miss Golda Nunneley of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Following the wedding dance and buffet at the Greater San Antonio Homebuilders Headquarters, attended by over 400 guests, the couple spent seven days at Copper Mountain Ski Lodge in Colorado. They will reside in San Antonio.

Camp Bullis Getting New Training Airstrip

Camp Bullis is a relatively quiet place on most days. A large deer herd moves unmolested and cattle graze there.

The stillness has been shattered by heavy engineer equipment as soldiers from Ford Hood's Company C, 62nd Engineers began construction on an air assault landing strip there two weeks ago. The 4,500-foot airstrip will be capable of handling C-130 cargo aircraft when it is completed.

Camp Bullis is often used as a drop zone and training area for practice assaults. Units like the 101st and the 82nd Airborne, along with Special Forces elements, have made parachute jumps into the training area. Until now, their equipment and some of their people have had to land at Kelly Air Force Base and move overland to Bullis. Construction of this airstrip permits direct landing of troops and equipment close to the main drop zone used for parachute landing. An air assault landing strip will simplify operations and training as well as add realism to exercises for soldiers and aircrews as well.

"We are planning on taking 62 days to finish the strip," said 1st Sgt. Edgar Hollandsworth.

Plans call for the construction of a dirt runway 4,500 feet long and 60 feet wide. An extra 120 feet on each side is being leveled for safety purposes, bringing the width of the project to 300 feet in all.

Advance parties from the engineer company confirmed the surveyor's site selection, about a mile from Drop Zone Hall, and work has begun on the runway as well as the fill pit which will provide the material for the actual strip.

Prize winning Broilers at the Gerlach Auction bring a good price and a smile to the girl who displayed them for judging—proceeds will further her education.

God speaks to us through the pages of the Bible.
We speak to Him through prayer.

To pray properly, we must:

1. Pray to God only. Not to The Holy Spirit, Mary, or even Jesus. Matthew 6:9
2. Pray in Jesus name. John 14:13, 14.
3. Pray for right and proper things. James 4:3
4. Pray with faith. James 5:15
5. Pray that God's will may be done. Matthew 6:10
6. Remember that God knows what is best for us, and sometimes His answer may be no, or later.

However new area residents may apply if verification of Officers' Wives' Club membership at a previous base is provided. Financial need is NOT a selection factor.

Quality, not quantity must be priority for producing engineers

COLLEGE STATION — The dean of the nation's largest engineering school says the United States must concentrate on producing quality engineers, because it will never be able to match the numbers being trained in Japan, Russia and West Germany.

"We've got to concentrate on quality because we aren't going to beat them on quantity," said Dr. Robert H. Page of Texas A&M University.

Even in the current recession, Page said, a tremendous demand for engineers still exists.

Rains Near Normal

Rainfall for January, 1983, totalled 2.8 inches versus 2 inches for 1982.

The groundhog in Pennsylvania has no cousin here. But a ground squirrel frolicked in the sun.

Henry Brauchle, local Weather Observer said, "It could be a sign that we will have six weeks of winter weather, as usual, mostly sunshine and showers."

Northside Schools Get New OK

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, through its Commission of Elementary Schools, has awarded continuing accreditation to the Northside District, according to Supt. Jack C. Jordan.

Through accreditation, school staff and faculty members benefit by knowing that conditions for teaching in the district meet certain standards. Regional standards require adequate facilities and faculties and their effective use.

Citizens are assured of accountability and of value for their tax dollars through the process of standard setting and the regular reevaluation of Association member institutions. Communities with accredited schools can be confident that their institutions compare favorably with others in the region. Accredited Schools are a "plus" for those who are interested in relocating their families and businesses.

Founded in 1865, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools is one of 6 regional accrediting bodies in the United States. More than 11,000 member public and private universities, colleges, junior colleges, occupational institutions, secondary schools and middle and elementary schools enroll approximately five million students.

As adults grow older, less energy is needed to keep the body functioning.

Kazen Opposes Interest Withholding, Pay Cuts

By Abraham (Chick) Kazen, Jr., M.C.

Few issues have outraged so many Americans in such a short period of time as the new law requiring withholding taxes on interest and dividends.

I opposed the tax bill which included this provision and I am pleased to report that among my first actions of the 98th Congress was to introduce my bill, H. R. 621, to repeal it.

Consider this: —Roughly three-quarters of all taxpayers already have too much money withheld by the IRS from their wage income.

—Not only is money being taken out of bank accounts and savings and loan institutions but Americans are losing the interest that would have been paid off on those withheld funds.

—Most interest and dividend earnings are already reported to the Internal Revenue Service by banks and businesses, and a 1981 IRS study shows that with this information alone the IRS can achieve a 97.3 percent voluntary compliance rate.

—At a time when we should be encouraging savings to assist individuals and the entire economy, this provision is clearly a disincentive.

Those who argue that there are regulations and formulas to assist persons in need should realize that the law is confusing even to banking experts. Just imagine the problems it will create for senior citizens trying to live off interest and dividend earnings.

My bill and others similar to it went to the House Ways and Means Committee for examination there. It is my feeling that if we can persuade the Committee to release the legislation for a House vote, the withholding law will in fact be repealed, as it should be. I will be doing my best to see that this comes about.

The State Of The Union

The President addressed a number of important issues in his State of the Union speech last week, and he said he would send details on his proposals to Capitol Hill in the near future. At this writing I have not seen any specific recommendations and I can only speak in broad terms.

I did appreciate what appeared to be his conciliatory tone this year, for I have long argued that the great issues confronting our country should be considered in a bipartisan manner.

If there was any one section of his remarks that I found especially troubling, it is the proposal for a 12-month freeze on military pay. As a member of the House Armed Services Committee, I have been working over the past several years to upgrade the salary, incentives and housing conditions of our military personnel.

While my colleagues and I on the Committee are not fully satisfied, we have made progress to the point that we are no longer losing our most experienced personnel to the lure of private industry. Morale is higher than it has been in years, and I hope we do not take a step backward in this critical area. In addition, I am opposed to all salary or benefit freezes which would place an unfair burden on any one segment of society.

My own first priority this year is jobs, and I was pleased that the President indicated throughout his remarks that he recognizes the need to get our people back to work.

Wilderness Chief To Talk Here

Gaylord Nelson, chairman of The Wilderness Society and former U.S. Senator from Wisconsin, will speak on "Reaganomics and the Future of the Environment" at 11 a.m., Thursday, Feb. 10, in McAllister Auditorium at San Antonio College.

Nelson's speech, part of the Lewis Environmental Lecture Series sponsored by SAC, is free and open to the community.

Nelson assumed chairmanship of The Wilderness Society in January 1981 after serving 18 years as Wisconsin's Democratic representative in the U.S. Senate. Previously he served in the Wisconsin State Senate and was the state's governor for four years.

In his 18 years in the U.S. Senate, Nelson earned a reputation as a staunch environmentalist, introducing legislation to control strip mining, ban the use of DDT, protect and complete the Appalachian Trail, ban the use of agent orange and ban the use of phosphates in detergents.

ed by both Congress and the White House.

We have the opportunity to wipe the slate clean and to work together, and there is no time to waste. I will report on details of these measures as we get to them in our deliberations.

Medical Center Plans Unique Volksmarch

A scenic walk through the South Texas Medical Center will offer an educational, invigorating and fun event for San Antonians Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 26-27.

Sponsored by the Texas Wanderers of San Antonio, the spring walk is an official "Volksmarch" held under the auspices of the American Volkssport Association.

The weekend event will begin in the student lounge of The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, 7703 Floyd Curl Drive in the South Texas Medical Center. This "people walk" has both urban and natural sections. Part of the walk will explore the extensive medical complex, including an overhead skyway, an underground tunnel, and a stop at the Audie L. Murphy Memorial Room at the V.A. Hospital.

The natural section of the walk will wind its way through the undeveloped area of the Medical Center. It will include panoramic views of the Hill Country.

Participants may register beginning at 8 a.m. on either day and may begin the walk anytime until 1 p.m. each day. The route will be marked and there will be 5 kilometer (3.1 miles), 10 kilometer (6.2 miles), and 20 kilometer (12.4 miles) distances. The 5 kilometer walk is IVV sanctioned for the handicapped. Check-points along the route will offer refreshments and first aid.

Anyone may walk free of charge, although awards will be available for a $4 registration fee. The award for this walk will be the first in a new series of medals honoring heroes of Texas independence. The inaugural medal in the series depicts Stephen F. Austin.

New Music Group To Play UTSA

An adventure in new and unusual music will be presented at UTSA on Thursday, Feb. 17, when the Dallas-based music ensemble Voices of Change takes the Recital Hall stage. The group is the resident ensemble of the Meadows School of the Arts at Southern Methodist University.

Members of Voices include Ross Powell, clarinet; Ronald Neal, violin; Gayane Manasjan, cello; and Jo Boatright, piano. Their aim is to present works which they feel are changing musical history.

The program they will be presenting will include compositions by two faculty members of the UTSA Division of Music.

"The River of Heaven," an award-winning piece for piano and cello, composed by Dr. Larry Barnes, assistant professor of music theory and composition at UTSA, will begin the program. Paul Hindemith's "Quartet" for clarinet, violin, cello and piano, will be presented next.

"Homage a P.D.Q. Bach" for flute, violin, piano and clarinet, a whimsical piece by Dr. Joe Stuessy, director of the Division of Music, will conclude the program. Janet Ferguson, principal flutist for the San Antonio Symphony and a member of the music faculty at UTSA, will joint Voices of Change for this piece.

The concert will begin at 8 p.m. in the Recital Hall in the Arts Building. Tickets are $6 for general admission and $4 for students and senior citizens.

The autograph of Julius Caesar is reputedly worth $2 million.

Essays Can Win Prizes

An essay contest on "Why Public Schools" with scholarship awards for high school seniors is a feature of Public Schools Week annually observed by Freemasons of the Grand lodge of Texas.

The boy and the girl winner each will receive a $3,000 scholarship; second place winners, $2,000 scholarship each; third place winners, $1,000 scholarship each, and the essay should be written between Feb. 7 and March 11.

The sponsoring teacher of the winners also will receive awards: $200 for each first prize winner; $100 for second; and $50 for third.

Essays should be not less than 300 nor more than 500 words and may be typed or handwritten and submitted to school principals before 4 p.m. March 11, who will in turn give them to the Masonic district Public Schools Week chairmen.

Public Schools Week will be observed by Lodges March 7-11.

Chairmen in the San Antonio area are Donald P. McKee, district deputy of 39-A; Theo R. Jett, 39-B; and Ronald L. Clare, 39-C.

Special information brochures will be furnished to each Senior class interested in entering the contest so that contestants may attach a cover sheet to each entry giving name, address, and name of sponsoring teacher. The Public Education committee of the Grand Lodge of Texas, A.F. & A.M. will direct the final judging.

The awards for the contest are being made by the Scottish Rite Educational and Fellowship of Texas, a non-profit foundation administered by Texas Scottish Rite Masons.

River Bend To Be Site Of '83 Homes Parade

River Bend, site of the 1983 Parade of Homes, on Bitters Road just off Blanco Road, has generated more excitement and interest than any other Greater San Antonio Builders Association event in recent history. Following on the heels of last year's Parade in De Zavala Trails, which attracted more than 18,000 visitors, the 1983 Parade is expected to exceed all records previously set. The Parade is scheduled to take place from May 21 through May 30 ending on Memorial Day, said Ted Watson, Association treasurer and chairman of the steering committee.

Nineteen builders have drawn lots to participate in the annual stellar showcase, making it the largest single site Parade in the Association's history. Six more lots are available to builders who would like to be involved in this year's all Garden Home Parade.

Architects Exhibit To Be Free

An exhibition presenting the variety of architectural design in San Antonio, past and present, will be on display in the Art Gallery of The University of Texas at San Antonio from Feb. 7 through Feb. 25.

"The Creative Works of San Antonio Architects" is a collection of works which span a century of buildings by San Antonio architects, as well as displays of the crafts and fine arts produced by those same professionals. The show is being organized by members of the faculty in the UTSA Architecture Program. UTSA is the only university in South Texas to offer a four-year program in architectural design.

At the center of the show will be samples drawn from original working drawings of some of San Antonio's most outstanding civic monuments. These will include the downtown Federal Post Office by Ralph Cameron, the Municipal Auditorium by Atlee Ayers, now under restoration to repair extensive fire damage, as well as Ayers' Smith-Young (Transit) Tower.

Contemporary San Antonio firms and individual practitioners have contributed rough sketches, renderings, models and working drawings for works in progress, illustrating current trends, both local and international. The scale of the work ranges from residential designs to a prize-winning design of an extensive Moslem development.

The exhibit is Room 2.03.04 of the Arts Building is open to the public free of charge Monday through Friday from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Roadrunner Track Team To Open At Laredo

Armed with a fleet of talented distance and middle distance runners, UT/San Antonio Track Coach Jim Skaines has begun workouts with his men's and women's track teams in preparation for the 1983 outdoor season. The Roadrunners open the season at the Border Olympics in Laredo on March 4-5.

The UTSA track program, in only its second year, has scheduled some of the toughest meets in Texas for its young teams. Included on the 1983 slate are: Border Olympics (Mar. 4-5); Rice Invitational (April 1-2); Texas Relays (April 7-9); Baylor Invitational (April 22-23); Texas A&M Relays (April 29-30) and the Houston Invitational (May 6-7).

Skaines has given the Roadrunner track program instant respectability with distance runners like Roger Soler, one of the top cross countrymen in Texas this past fall. Soler is the Peruvian national record holder in the 800, 1,500 and 5,000 meter runs. Also, cross country aces Danny Hernandez and David Windsor join with Soler to bolster the Roadrunners in the middle distances.

UTSA's top point scorer in 1982, Danny Spivey, returns for his second season. Other top track men are Bill Bochat (400 m.); Mike LaBay (100, 400 m.); Mike Villarreal (400 m.); Henry Johnson (400 m.) and Lionel Ramos (hurdler).

One big addition to the UTSA program is Tomm Wisloff, an intermediate hurdler and long jumper from Oslo, Norway.

Coach Skaines also has built the UTSA women's track team into a top contender with excellent middle and long distance runners. Sophomores Ann Fitzsimmons and Melanie Hennis, both cross country stars, combined with Freshmen Windy Norman, Lisa Sheets, Sarah Triem and Shelley Wicall, give the Lady Roadrunners a heavy scoring punch in the 800-5000 meter races.

Junior college transfer Robin White will add needed depth in the 400, 800 and 1,500 meter races. She is backed by sprinters Julie Fields, Sallie White, Sakinah Sultan and Becky Tamez. UTSA's tops in the 400 meters is Liz Stopper.

Old Army Uniforms Needed

The Fort Sam Houston Military Museum is looking for recent Army uniform items to bring its collection up to date.

Museum Curator John Manguso said the museum needs battle dress uniforms, green shirts, modern insignia and other items of recent issue.

Contributions to the museum are tax deductible. Persons wishing to donate to the museum should call 221-6117.

Jim Brown scored an unmatched 126 touchdowns in his football career.

UTSA Basketball Play To Resume Feb. 5

The UT San Antonio Roadrunners are playing some of their best basketball in the middle of their 1982-83 schedule, but looking at the record book, one wouldn't know it.

The Roadrunners, coming off a frustrating 60-58 loss to Lamar and a 84-71 defeat to the University of New Orleans, have amassed a 6-11 record and are still unable to shake the defeat bug. The birds have now dropped six straight.

The Birds will attempt to return to winning form in the next few weeks when they begin a four game homestand against the Southeastern Louisiana Lions on Saturday, Feb. 5. Then come Oklahoma City on Feb. 7, Nicholls State on Feb. 12, and UT/Arlington on Feb. 14.

UTSA Coach Don Eddy has to wonder when the basketball will fall the right direction for his second-year team. "We still lack a little bit of skill to beat teams like Lamar. We played very well against them, but it didn't show up on the scoreboard," Eddy said. UTSA led by seven points with four minutes to go, but the turnover bug bit the Birds, and Lamar fought back for a 60-53 decision.

UTSA played New Orleans even for most of the game.

Little League Sign-Up

The Greater Helotes Little League will hold its 1983 registration at Kempf Field on the next two Saturdays.

Registration times will be 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on both Feb. 5 and Feb. 12.

Eligible to sign up are boys 8 to 15 years of age and girls 9 to 15.

Norwegian Hurdler Joins UTSA Team

Tomm Wisloff, a talented hurdler and long jumper from Oslo, Norway, has enrolled at UT San Antonio for the spring semester and has begun workouts for the 1983 collegiate season with the Roadrunner track team.

Wisloff, a veteran of numerous international competitions, has a 7.4 meter (24'10 1/2") best in the long jump and owns a 53.6 time in the 400 meter hurdles. He is a freshman who attended Kristelig Gymnasium (similar to a high school) in Oslo. He has run in meets in Sweden, Finland, Norway, Portugal and Greece with the Norwegian Junior National Team. He also ran in a senior meet in Scotland for Norway against Poland, England and Scotland.

Tomm learned of UTSA when his father, Jann

Wisloff, worked in San Antonio with the Datapoint Corporation. Tomm's father, now back in Oslo, learned of the Roadrunner program and contacted Coach Jim Skaines to see if he was interested in having Tomm join the Roadrunners.

Wisloff, 20, said he is looking forward to the U.S. Intercollegiate season. "I am very excited about competing against the top runners in the United States and in Texas," he said. "The training I receive at UTSA will help me get ahead of my countrymen, because the season in Norway will begin about the time I finish here. Plus, it is very hard to train in Norway at this time of the year," Wisloff said.

Wisloff plans to major in business administration at UTSA.
