HELOTES, BEXAR COUNTY, TEXAS — 10 CENTS PER COPY

AUGUST 16, 1974

Person-to-Person

It's been one of the shortest, busiest summers on record for almost everyone around here, but especially for those who are planning to go back to school. A record number of Marshall graduates are getting ready to go off to college or to attend a local junior college or trade school, thus beginning the first phase of their adult lives. But nothing beats the eagerness of the kindergarten ones—unless it is a freshman highschooler or a freshman teacher. To all, the days ahead should be good ones with the new schools or enlarged ones here.

There is still Labor Day weekend ahead—the old signal for getting down to Autumn, and all kinds of festivities will be marking this 20th century holiday which used to be marked with speeches, bands, politics and parades but never did catch on much in the non-organized Hill Country until lately.

The Birthday Dozen Club on August 13 dined at Kountry Fried Chicken at Boerne and honored birthday gals who have a birthdate from March through August. These included Martha Whitley, Annie Benham, Virgie Parrish, Lucile Owen, Eva Dean, and Grace Edwards. This club enjoys each birthday celebration and seldom lacks an honoree each month of the year.

A Christening was held Tuesday, August 13, for Dwayne Lee Fish, second son of Doris and David Fish. Godparents are Mary and E. J. Dunford, Jr., aunt and uncle of the newly baptized baby who was born in South Carolina. Rev. Louis Trawalter performed the ceremony.

Northside's Richard Rhodes has been elected secretary-treasurer of the newly formed Texas State School Transportation Assn., which met recently in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wanke had as houseguests recently a sister, Mrs. James R. Holden, and two nephews, Richard Michael and Lloyd Lee Hatter of Tucson, Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. Wanke also hosted a fishing party at Fulton Beach below Rockport attended by their sons, Al E. Wanke and family and Carl O. Wanke and friends, Tom Zuber-bueeler and also Charles F. Gilmore and family. They report the fishing was good.

Ray Dunford Services Held

Requiem Mass was said Saturday afternoon, August 3, for Ray Clinton Dunford, 17 years old, of Star Route, Bandera Road, who apparently died instantly early Friday morning, August 2, at about 12:35 a.m., as a result of injuries received when his truck skidded on a misty-slick Bandera Highway about a mile above the Scenic Loop, and struck a large tree.

Ray, who was alone at the time, had attended a dance on the Bandera Road Thursday night, where he was with a group of school friends and Helotes youth. The dance lasted until midnight, and he and another youth returned to Helotes where Ray left his friend, a resident of Sherwood Forest. Ray had driven about a quarter of a mile further when the accident occurred.

No one is known to have witnessed the actual accident, but those coming on the scene almost immediately summoned help, and Ray was pronounced dead at a San Antonio hospital after 1 a.m. A state highway patrolman on duty said that there had been no evidence of excessive speed. Ray had been on his way to his home a few miles beyond at the time.

The information of Ray's death came as a shock to his devoted family and large number of friends, as Ray was popular and beloved by all who knew him, and four generations of his family reside here at present. His sister, Doris, was notified in Beaumont as she was returning to Helotes with her husband and two children from South Carolina for a visit here.

Ray Clinton was born April 17, 1957, in San Antonio to Ella J. and E. J. Dunford, Sr., and he moved to Helotes when he was two years old. His maternal grandparents are natives of this area and members of pioneer families here. His mother was born on the Gallagher Ranch, and he and his family lived on the Sanchez Ranch of his grandparents, where they maintained their home, and where he resided until his death. His father is a native of Virginia, and many of his paternal relatives attended the funeral coming from their distant State to pay their respects and comfort his family here.

Ray, who was six feet, two inches tall, was a student of John Marshall High School where he planned to be graduated. He was a member of Marshall FFA. On the day of his death he worked a full day as a construction worker. He had indicated that he planned to go on to college, and he hoped to work during that time, also. He had attended Helotes Elementary and Pat Neff Junior High School before entering Marshall.

Ray was the youngest of a family which included two brothers and three sisters, also. In addition to his parents, he is

Rock Throwing Startles Drivers

A new segment of Bandera Highway, opened for travel here the first week of July, has become dangerous at night because of vandals.

Rocks—projected at high force—have struck numerous cars along the newly opened arc of State Highway 16 going through Helotes, and citizens have banded together to assist law officers in apprehending the culprits. The rocks have been thrown after dark and have caused windshields to shatter as well as denting several cars. The citizen group has begun to patrol the area and to gather data. The first incidents were reported in July about a week after one lane of the highway was opened.

Richard Ellis, whose automobile was struck as he and his wife were returning after midnight Saturday, August 10, will be in charge of gathering circumstantial evidence. Any citizen who sees rocks thrown or who has his automobile struck is asked to call Ellis at 695-3260 immediately. An organized patrol will then check the terrain which is being mapped for various vantage points now, based on reports already in.

The first incidents were passed off as perhaps the work of small boys. One leading theory now is that the two-to-three inch rocks are being propelled by some type of sling shot and that the persons doing this are motorized. Several experts point out that a serious accident may result. Efforts are being made to prevent injuries and automobile damage.

A fund has been started to offer a reward to secret witnesses who help in solving the vandalism—without precedent in this usually law-abiding community. Regular law enforcement officers are also investigating the reported incidents and patrolling the area.

Grange Re-Elects Kiles Master

With nominations for all 16 of fices coming from the floor of the convention in Fredericksburg early this month, the State Grange delegates re-elected James H. Kiles master of the Texas Grange for a second term of two years. He resides on Grissom Road and is a member of the Leon Valley Grange.

Larry Mueller of San Antonio was elected overseer, the number two post in the Grange.

Grange delegates voted Mrs. Margie Blair, Poteet, Lecturer; Dan Boenig, Converse, as Steward; Weldon Riggs, Pleasanton, Assistant Steward; Mrs. Sally Riggs, Pleasanton, Lady Assistant Steward; Leslie Bosse, Shive, Chaplain; Ray Bacon, San Antonio, Treasurer; Mrs. Lorene Kraft, New Braunfels, Secretary; James Dollhite, Blanco, Gatekeeper; Mrs. Ruth Lampman, San Antonio, Ceres; Mrs. Rena Dreyer, Cibolo, Pomona and Mrs. Jeanette Voges, Comfort, Flora.

Elmo Rust, Cibolo, and Frank Knight, San Antonio, were re-elected to the State Executive Committee.

Miss Magdalene Bauer, Fredericksburg, was crowned princess; Curtis Linhardt, Converse, prince and Miss Linda Boatright, San Antonio, as junior princess.

Formal installation of the officers closed the three day convention.

Mrs. Paul Weiss of Leon Valley Grange has been appointed to the position of Director of Women's Activities for the Texas State Grange.

Alamo Savings Assn. Opens Branch

Special premiums for savers and complimentary refreshments for all visitors will be featured at Alamo Savings Association's eighth office, which opened Tuesday, August 13, in Colonies North.

Association president Clyde Johnson, Jr., has announced that the branch will be in a temporary building in Colonies North Shopping Center, IH 10 at Wurzbach Road, with construction to begin soon on a permanent structure.

Free gifts will be given during August, at the new branch only, for new savings accounts of $250 or more, Johnson said. Savers may select a digital thermometer, an indoor-outdoor thermometer, or the First Ladies Cookbook, while supplies last. Coffee and cake will be served to everyone who visits the office this month.

Complete services for savers and loan customers will be available 51 hours a week at Alamo Savings' newest branch, which will be open Monday through Saturday from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. daily.

Johnson has also announced the appointment of Debbora Marsh as manager of Alamo Savings' Colonies North office. Assistant manager will be Deborah Smyle. Also at the new branch will be Susan Kimbriel, teller, and Billie Jean Johnson, teller trainee.

Sara's Chat N'Curl Has New Owner

Mrs. Jackie Bryant of Leon Valley is the new owner of Sara's Chat 'N Curl, a beauty shop formerly owned by Mrs. Sarah Thompson, which is located on Bandera Road near the Circle A intersection here.

Mrs. Bryant has had 10 years experience as a beautician. She worked formerly for Merritts, later M&S Beauty Salon, and LaMona Bella. Before moving to Leon Valley, she and her husband, Tommy Bryant and their two children lived in Lytle where she also had experience in hair care.

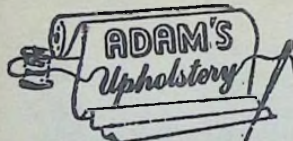

The shop will be closed on Monday and will be open Tuesday through Saturday. Assisting the new owner, will be Sally Mayfield Simpson who has been with the shop for sometime, and is a full-time beauty operator there.

Mrs. Thompson, the former owner, is taking a vacation and is visiting her sons and daughters in other States.

The community welcomes the new owner and wishes Mrs. Thompson a complete recovery from her recent surgery.

Another on the road to recovery is Mrs. Annie Benham.

Word of the death August 15 of Mrs. Florence Talk, a subscriber from Runge, Texas, who enjoyed keeping up with Helotes—has been received. Sympathy is extended to her husband, Warren, and her children and grandchildren.

He was a member of the Zion Lutheran Church in Helotes, and Rev. Paul Probst, pastor, officiated at his services there.

also by his sons, Richard, Oscar, Gilbert, and David Gass. He leaves also three daughters, Mrs. Linda Becker, Mrs. Lillie Mae Wells, and Mrs. Stella Elsworth.

Mr. Gass will be missed by many, and sympathy at this time is extended to his family.

Doris and Van Pickard who resided in Grey Forest this past year or so, have moved to Louisiana where Van is working. They will be missed and they are wished the best in their new hometown. They have one teen-aged boy at home as their other children are married. Doris was especially esteemed for her kindly ways with those who were ill or needed a neighborly visit, and the Pickards are bound to make friends wherever they go.

Recent visitors here were Bill and Tom Condon, who visited relatives here and in San Antonio from their home in Richardson.

Echoes From the Past

This photo of the old Main Building on the campus of The University of Texas was taken in 1934 in June, just before the building was torn down. In the foreground is the famous fountain which still marks the entrance to the campus at Austin and now reflects the tower of the Main Building most Texans can recognize.

Old Main at The University of Texas was started in 1882 and classes were held in one wing by 1883 on the Hill in Austin to inaugurate higher education for the State of Texas. By the school term 1933-34, the last full classes—mostly English and languages—were held in its cavernous halls and classrooms.

A rock gothic-style of architecture still dominated the campus and was reflected in the Coppini-designed fountain, but Spanish Renaissance buildings were beginning to crowd around, and the first half of the New Main was tucked behind it. After Thanksgiving 1933 the new section housed part of the University's library. Those old grads who had helped celebrate the 50th anniversary of Old Main had fought a losing battle to save the structure. Since "B" Hall—the original boy's dorm, named for Brackenridge, was given a little more time, the old grads and what few conservationists there were around to speak for the old building gave up.

In the summer of 1934, the building came down, and rocks—square cut of heavy limestone—were carted away as souvenirs as fast as they touched the ground and reappeared in walls and patios all over Austin and more distant parts of the state. For a year, no tower rose over the campus—but then came the new Main with its tallest in Texas tower, and there were students in 1934-35 who did not look back for Old Main. That was 40 years ago, and now this area is watching a new Main go up at The University of Texas at San Antonio as eagerly as did those in the 30's.

Card Of Thanks

At a time of sorrow at parting with a beloved member of the family, only the kind and heartfelt help of friends has sustained the family of Ray Clinton Dunford who was called to his heavenly home and departed this life August 2, 1974, at the age of 17 years, 3 months, and 16 days. Coming as it does just seven months after the loss of another member of the family, his loss is doubly felt and the continuous kindnesses are especially appreciated.

To those who have sent cards of sympathy, flowers, and offered prayers, a special thank you. All the messages have helped bring a little understanding and much comfort. Those who accompanied our loved one to his final resting place will be remembered, in a special way, too.

An especial thanks also goes to Rev. Louis A. Trawalter, to the Alter Society of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, and to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Linder of Cactus Jack's Steak Loft. The family will always cherish a remembrance of their thoughtfulness at this time.

On behalf of the Dunford Family
Ella Dunford Berry

Card Of Thanks

Vera Daily (Mrs. Bernard F.) wishes to thank the Helotes Women's Club, Our Lady of Guadalupe Altar Society, the Leon Valley Grange, and all the many friends who sent cards, and get-well wishes, and for their prayers during her recent hospitalization for surgery. Vera is at home now and feeling much better.

Along Our Route

The photofinish industry offers dramatic proof that ability, not disability, counts on the job. According to one firm with 19 blind darkroom technicians, the average blind employee handled about 170 rolls of film an hour, as against 125 for a sighted worker...30 percent more. The reason—many blind people have a highly developed sense of touch that makes them more skillful at splicing and other darkroom operations. And they don't have to adjust to the darkroom after entering. Blind workers know they are hired for what they can do, not what they can't. As one film splicer puts it: "If they had hired me just because I was blind, they might not have hired me at all. I was brought in because I had a genuine skill." So remember—handicapped people have special skills...whether they're blind, amputees, deaf, or whatever. Only you, Mr. Employer, can bring them into productive life. It's for your benefit as well as theirs. Hire them!

August 4, and interment was at Fort San Houston National Cemetery. Active pallbearers were Alfred Haby, Bill Tate, Reggie Holley, Clyde Bader, Buddy Jordan and Roy Holley. Attending the final service were many longtime friends from this area.

E. T. Harker Dies At 80

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carmen M. Harker, and two brothers, George H. Harker of Tucson, Arizona, and Eric A. Harker of San Antonio. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. John Boyer of San Antonio; and two stepsons, James D. Evans of Houston and John L. Evans of San Antonio; as

Staff Photo

First there was a small dot, and then as everyone watched, a parachute opened, carrying Sgt. Ries.

Staff Photo

Sgt. Rodriguez wasn't exactly on target, but it was close, as he landed on his feet on Toepperwein Field.

Sgt. Ries is assisted by his admirers as he begins to repack his parachute.

Sgt. Rodriguez takes a moment to greet bystanders before gathering up his parachute.

A group of spectators included Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bingham and their daughters, Tressie, center, and Patricia.

It wasn't entirely impromptu—as there were too many spectators on hand for that. But two veteran skydivers decided with rather short notice to give the folks in Helotes a thrill as they jumped from a small plane on a gusty Saturday the first weekend in August. They chose the Toepperwein Field, and with the usual white marker to guide them, they made it safely down.

These intrepid flyers are Air Force Tech Sgt. (Ret) Rusty Ries, and Tech Sgt. Frank Rodriguez who is active in the Air Force at present. They were logging jumps for their own records and on their own time.

Spectators used whatever vantage points they could find, mostly their autos as grandstand seats.

Medical System To Be Improved

An enlarged and improved emergency medical system, designated as a model for the State of Texas, will be developed with a $332,896 grant to the Alamo Area Council of Governments from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The grant funds will be used by the 11 rural counties in the AACOG Region to purchase ambulances and specialized emergency medical equipment. Bexar County's existing EMS program will also share in a portion of the grant.

Valerie Wooley, 15 years old, from Escondido, California, is visiting her Aunt Valda and Uncle Martin Terry and she is seeing much of the Helotes relatives as well as enjoying browsing in Valda's Thrift Shoppe—one of the tourist attractions here.

Edward Logan is shown here with this year's trophies won in Pack 401 and Cub Country competition. The cars were used in competition and helped win the trophies.

Edward Logan, left, and Louis Walz display the Pack trophy which they along with Kenny Motz of Pack 401 brought home in July.

Cub Pack 401 Gets Cub Country Trophy

Local Cub Scout Pack 401 had three representatives at Cub Country in McGimsey Park in San Antonio on July 27 and they came home with gold and silver medals and the Pack Trophy to make Helotes the winning contender for honors.

Edward Logan who was nine years old at the time won the gold medal for the Space Derby. He had previously won the Pack 401 and den trophy in April for the Space Race.

Louis Walz won first place for the Cub Country Pinewood Derby, which he also won last year. Edward came in second place and won a silver medal in this competition.

Kenny Motz of Pack 401, who is eight years old, took first place in the Sailboat Race.

Together they scored high enough to carry home the Pack trophy which will be proudly displayed at Pack 401 meetings this fall.
