HELOTES, BEXAR COUNTY, TEXAS — 10 CENTS PER COPY

JUNE 20, 1975

Person-to-Person

Bill Wheat, a junior at Trinity University, is among 20 advanced drama majors selected by Managing Director Paul Baker of the Ruth Taylor Theater to work in the University's 1975 Summer Repertory Company. Shows will be staged throughout the summer on campus and are open to the public.

Among those making steady progress on the road to recovery is Mrs. Virgie Parrish who is recuperating at her home on Rosewood. She is still in a hospital bed but she is doing well and has been enjoying hearing from her many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Norris Parrish, her son and daughter-in-law, are also there to greet her many callers. We wish her continuing progress.

CHURCH MOVES

Faith Bible Church congregation are meeting now at the Parrigin Pavilion of the Lions Club near the corner of Highway 16 and Scenic Loop Road. The congregation has formerly met at VFW Hall which is a busy place this summer with classes and club activities scheduled. Rev. Richard K. Shader is in charge of the Faith Bible Church and is also active in community projects.

Danny Ducharme, Jay High School Junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Ducharme, 7503 Buckskin, has been selected to participate in the Brown Engineering Development Seminar, Rice University, this summer.

Clubs are installing new officers and making plans to work through the summer to be ready for the 1975-76 celebration of the Bicentennial of the Nation. Most clubs will key their activities to this.

August 1 has been chosen for a Festival Association dance at Floore Country Store to feature Clifton Jansky and also raise funds to make next year's event the greatest.

The Women's Club installed officers at a covered dish supper Tuesday honoring husbands as guests. Mrs. Buddy Hartman installed Mrs. Martin Terry as president; Mrs. Charles O. Brown, as vice president; Mrs. Josephine Wallace as secretary; and Mrs. Mary Maskew, as treasurer. A vote of commendation was given to Mrs. Baxter Melgaard for her successful year as president and to those who served with her.

UTSA To Hold Conferences On Campus

Changes are coming fast in Helotes—but some of the old customs prevail. None is steeper in more tradition than the raising of corn—Helotes, of course, is an Indian word meaning green corn or corn on the cob.

Here Newton A. Evans rides a tractor with his young grandson while two older grandsons accompanied by their pet test the earliest ears. The worried expressions were for fear the corn would not be ready for CORNYVAL festivities last month. By now they are enjoying corn-on-the-cob in abundance, however. Mr. and Mrs. Evans recently celebrated their 50th anniversary and they farmed in Evans Valley here since 1928.

Local Agencies Monitor Aquifer

Recent monitoring of development in the six-county area overlaying the Edwards Aquifer indicates that local agencies intend to enforce all rules set-up to protect the vast underground water supply.

The Edwards Underground Water District, and the Texas Water Quality Board as well as county officials are of the opinion that the Environmental Protection Agency—a federal agency—does not require extra power over the area.

The study results following the recent hearing called by EPA have not been released so far, however.

Local spokesmen state that development expected to take place would not pollute the reservoir if the TWQB Order is rigidly enforced.

Col. McDonald D. Weinert, P.E., general manager of the EUWD, recently advised the Regional Office of EPA in Dallas of the action taken by the Texas Water Quality Board, the Edwards Underground Water District, and the county licensing authorities to protect the reservoir.

In his letter, Weinert noted that the TWQB Order provides stringent construction standards, which authorities believe will permit residential development in the recharge zone without threat to public health.

Weinert stated that the EUWD has been conducting an extensive monitoring program of streams entering the recharge zone, of wells throughout the five counties in the District, and that municipal water supplies throughout the artesian zone are regularly sampled by local and state agencies. He also advised EPA that intensive monitoring would be continued and expanded as College juniors and seniors as well as graduates who will attend classes this Fall in the new Humanities-Business Building on the campus of The University of Texas will get a preview of the temporary "Main" building in July or August if they are eligible to register early.

The occasion will be one of a series of six dates open for new-student registration.

All new prospective students will be given a brief orientation, as well as advice from UTSA faculty members who will confer on a one-to-one basis on academic matters. Those registering on one of the following dates assigned to them by the UTSA Dean of Students Office need not go through the long lines of Registration at the beginning of the semester in September.

First registration for undergraduates will be July 29. August dates also for juniors and seniors will be the 4th, 9th, 12th, and 25th. A Conference will be set for graduate students on August 6.

Beginning June 20, prospective UTSA students may sign up for one of the Conferences. Although the early registration is voluntary, reservations are required for Conferences on one of the six dates.

Applications for admission to the classes are now being accepted from juniors, seniors and graduate students for the Fall semester. Only those who have been accepted for admission at UTSA may attend the scheduled Conferences.

In general, students who will have completed 60 hours of transferable credit and who have at least a "C" average will be eligible for the 1975-76 undergraduate courses. Applicants will be accepted on a first come—first serve basis, a spokesman said, according to dates of completion of application.

The UTSA Dean of Students Office will answer further questions about the new-student Conferences.

Vacation Church School

Helotes Hills Methodist Church and Forest Hills Presbyterian Church welcome all community children to their joint Bible School. Classes begin Monday, July 7, through Friday, July 18, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at Forest Hills Presbyterian Church.

Coordinators are: Mrs. Donna Noyes, Methodist Church; and Mrs. Joyce Klar, Presbyterian Church.

If transportation is needed, please call Mrs. Klar at 696-1665.

Roadbuilding is nearing completion for a 4-lane divided highway as the second segment which passes Ranch Town gets its share of widening—causing the famed Riebe's corner, a traffic hazard of the past, to disappear.

Rep. Don Rains Releases Survey

A survey of registered voters in Legislative District 45 reveals overwhelming support for a state-controlled utilities commission and a salary increase for public school teachers in Texas.

Rep. Don Rains, who distributed the questionnaire in Bandera, Blanco, Northwest Bexar, Hays, Frio, Kendall, and Medina Counties, commented, "I certainly appreciate the people who took the time and trouble to complete and return the questionnaire. Their opinions and suggestions were very helpful to me when voting on important legislative proposals."

The tabulations show that 85 percent favor some type of utility regulation; 77 percent of those prefer regulations on a State level.

Of the 78 percent who favor a salary increase for teachers 26 percent prefer $7200 as a beginning figure, 30 percent prefer $8200, 34 percent $10,000, and 10 percent favor $12,000.

Tabulations also indicate that 74 percent of the voters support revision in the Texas Constitution.

Regarding the ad valorem tax: situation in Texas, a majority, 92 percent expressed a desire to minimize property taxes by either decreasing or retaining present reliance. Only 8 percent wanted reliance increased. Also, 61 percent prefer to tax agriculture land on its capacity to produce.

Some 76 percent favor increased financial support from the State to improve and equalize the quality of education in school districts. If additional tax revenue is necessary, 59 percent refer the increased use of a sales tax, 27 percent support the adopting of a corporate income tax, while only 7 percent favor adopting a personal income tax.

Only 24 percent oppose restrictions on the importation of foreign beef products into Texas. However, 52 percent oppose enacting a State plan which controls urban growth and places uniform statewide restrictions on both use and development of land.

Medicaid

Single copies of a booklet explaining differences between Medicaid and Medicare are available free at the San Antonio, TX, social security office, 309 Dwyer Avenue.

The 32-page, pocket-sized booklet is called "Medicaid, Medicare, Which is Which?" It was prepared by the Medical Services Administration of the Social and Rehabilitation Service of the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Medicaid is a State-Federal program that helps pay the health care expenses of eligible people with little or no income and limited resources.

Medicare is health insurance funded by social security contributions, individual premiums, and Federal general revenues. It helps pay the hospital and doctor bills of people 65 and over, disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to monthly social security payments for 24 consecutive months or more, and eligible workers and their families who have chronic kidney disease and need a transplant or dialysis.

Texas Patriot's Home Added To Park's System

La Cocina, the restaurant operated in the Jose Antonio Navarro Properties of the San Antonio Conservation Society for the past several years as part of the society's adaptive use program for historic structures permanently closed its operations in May.

The Society has given its Navarro Properties to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission so that the properties can become a part of the state parks system.

Mrs. Robert E. Blount, society president, arranged for the transfer of the Navarro Properties to the State at a meeting with Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission officials in Austin.

The value of the gift by the society of the land and the buildings to the state is approximately $100.00.

Restoration of the Navarro House and Store by the society from a previously run-down condition has long been considered to be one of the most beautiful historic preservation accomplishments by a volunteer organization in Texas.

Jose Antonio Navarro, famed Texas patriot and signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence, left a revered heritage in Texas. The society assured the preservation of this public legacy by purchasing the historic Navarro property in February 1960.

Restoration of three limestone buildings on the site, circa 1850, was started in 1962 under the direction of Brooks Martin, FAIA.

A one-story with attic structure, the patriot's house is a classic, graceful example of Texas Colonial Renaissance. The two-story, almost square, store and office building is notable for bold quoins made with crude instruments. The small kitchen house is typical Republic of Texas domestic architecture with front and rear porches.

The Jose Antonio Navarro Houses were documented in 1936 under a Historic American Buildings Survey. Measured drawings and photographs are preserved in the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C., and on March 24, 1972, the property was entered on the National Register of Historic Places. It has, also, been maintained by the Society as an historic house museum, open to the public.

LAST TIME WE SAID TWO REQUIREMENTS HAD TO BE MET SO ONE COULD COME FREELY INTO THE VERY PRESENCE OF GOD . . .

One: The penalty for his sin must be paid in full so that one would not have to pay anything more.
Two: That the sinner be made as righteous as God Himself.

No. 1 was accomplished by the death of Christ (See Last Article or write us for a copy) . . . Now for Point Two . . .

It is true, according to the Scriptures, that Jesus' death paid the total debt that was against us . . . but that does not change the fact we are still sinners . . . Our Being, the Record in Heaven of our lives and God's Memory are all stained black with our sin . . . How can they be changed . . . cleansed? How can the guilty be made innocent—the sinner be made holy?

DO GOOD

God did it by changing the emphasis . . . For 1500 years, God dealt with Man on the basis of the Law given through Moses . . . During that time, God placed the emphasis on what a man did. The Lord promised to bless, save, and reckon good those who did "Good." He cursed those who did not do "Good." "Good" was defined as keeping every detail of the Law given to Moses. Those who kept the whole Law were called "Good."

At the Cross of Christ, God changed the emphasis from "Works" (doing good or right) to "Faith" (believing good or right) and announced the Good News that from then on He would call "Good" those who believed right and call those who believed wrong—evil, sinners, unrighteous, and lost.

God knows that those who believe right will do right! The Apostle Paul's Letters to the Romans, and Galatians were written to explain this solid Biblical Truth.

IS GOD SELF-DECEIVED?

I can hear someone say, "How can this be? . . . How can a Holy God look at a sin-drenched man and declare that man to be Holy and Righteous? . . . Is this not self-deception?"

The answer to this problem lies in the phrase, "Believe Right." Just any belief in just anything is not acceptable to God . . . YOU MUST BELIEVE RIGHT . . .

What is it you must believe? Must you believe all the Bible? . . . All Church Doctrine? . . . The Correct Doctrine? . . . Someone's Creed? . . . A certain Catechism? . . . No! A thousand times, No! The Word of God states, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved (Acts 16:31; John 3:14-18; Romans: 1-2, 10:8-13). Christ and Christ alone saves.

THE WORK OF GRACE

THE VERY MOMENT YOU BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, SEVERAL THINGS HAPPEN INSTANTLY . . . ONE: God sees your Faith and counts it as Righteousness and reckons you as "Good" (Romans: 3:21-28).

TWO: He accepts the Death of Christ as a substitute, offered in your place for the penalty of your sins so you will not have to pay any penalty at all, but go completely free since payment was fully paid and the debt fully satisfied (Romans 5:6-8; Hebrews 10:10-18).

THREE: Your sins are all forgiven and forgotten by God (1 John 1:9).

FOUR: The Blood of Christ is applied to your innermost Being and your record in the Heavens . . . It cleanses you of all traces of your sins . . . (1 John 1:7; Hebrews 8:12).

FIVE: The Lord Jesus enters your very Being bringing the Divine Grace of God that regenerates your Spirit and changes you into a Son of God, giving you the power to live a true Christian Life (John 1:12; 3:4-7).

So you see, God is not deceived . . . Because when you believe right, it triggers the Plan of God, putting into force the Divine Acts that render you exactly what God says you are—as righteous and as holy as God Himself . . . And you will remain in this condition as long as you continue to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ.

YES, PRAISE GOD, JESUS GAVE HIMSELF FOR OUR SINS THAT HE MIGHT DELIVER US!

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN—Home swimming pools used to be within reach of only the wealthy. Now, however, many persons are considering adding a pool as part of a home improvement plan.

Our Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division lawyers caution such persons to consider carefully whether they are willing not only to install a pool, but to maintain it safely. Every family or individual contemplating a home pool should be aware that a certain amount will be needed each year for pool maintenance, whether do-it-yourself or professional.

A swimming pool also demands diligence on the part of the owner to assure that unauthorized and unsupervised use of the pool does not take place.

Once the decision to take on both the fun and the responsibility of owning a home pool is made, there are decisions to be made about pool features. Our Consumer Protection attorneys remind persons installing a pool to check first on any local ordinances and codes for safety requirements.

The U.S. Product Safety Commission recommends that safely constructed home pools have the following: Non-slip materials on pool deck, diving board, and ladders. Pool steps should be three inches wide, ladder rails should be small enough for a child to grasp, and there should be a ladder at each end of the pool.

A licensed electrician should install any electrical equipment, and ground-fault circuit interrupters are strongly recommended.

If diving board or slide are desired, the pool should be deep enough for them, and the slide should always be in the deep part. Water depths should be clearly marked and a safety float line used to show where the bottom slope deepens.

All sides of the pool should be enclosed by a six-foot hard-to-climb fence with a locked gate. A side of the house should not be used as part of the fence, since a small child could wander out a door or window.

If an above-ground pool is installed, it should have no sharp edges or protruding bolts. The access ladder should either swing up or be removable, so unauthorized persons cannot enter the pool.

Once pool features have been chosen, it's time to select a contractor. The summer season has already brought consumer complaints about a few unscrupulous pool contractors to our attention, so it is very important to be cautious when selecting one to build your pool. Our attorneys recommend that you get three bids from different contractors and check with persons who have employed them to see if work was satisfactory.

Then get a written estimate of the cost, and think over the deal a day or so before deciding.

Avoid by all means any contractor who resorts to such deceptive trade practices as "bait and switch" selling, misleading "special demonstrator" prices, or "referral" selling, all of which are against the law.

When you've selected a contractor, get a contract that spells out what is to be done, what kind of materials will be used, when work will start and end, and the total price. You may want to have an attorney look over the contract before you sign, but be sure to get a copy for your files.

Offered New Insurance

Leon Valley Grange, in conjunction with the Texas State Grange, is offering Cancer Care and Intensive Care Insurance coverage to members. These policies, written by the Family Cancer Plan Insurance Company, pay in addition to regular coverage by the Grange Blue Cross, Blue Shield Plan.

Mrs. Fran Dunkum, sponsored by Leon Valley Grange, recently placed second in class C in the State Grange sewing contest.

Leon Valley Grange members will participate in the State Grange bi-centennial "all-day" celebration on June 29 at Tejas Trails in Blanco. Guests are welcome. Bar-B-Que will be served at noon, and tickets must be purchased in advance.

Grange youth are promoting a colt, named Diamond Grange, born on Tuesday, May 20, 1975, at 6 a.m. to Dam Sady Lady, a Quarter Horse, and Sire Hico's Dan, an Appaloosa, at the Engel ranch, Blanco, Texas. Proceeds will be used to send the 1975 prince and princess and young couple to the National Grange session in Ohio in November.

Frenchie Burke Due at Braun Hall

Fiddlin' Frenchie Burke, whose record "Colinda" is No. 1 in the KKRY Country Survey, will be at Braun Hall, Saturday, June 21, playing with Bobby Boyte & Country Jam.

He learned to play the fiddle Cajun style before he was 13, and was a big favorite in Louisiana country after his step-grandfather polished off an old violin and gifted him with it. The fiddle had been lying in the attic—and turned out to be a great present for Burke's future as well.

Another favorite was Big Mamou picked up by Twentieth Century for national release.

Summer's Here Officially

Summer begins June 21—this weekend all over the Country—although it seems to have been here all week.

The weather this month has been slightly cooler than usual and the first half of the month had no torrential rains as in other recent years.

June arrived in Helotes with sunny but cool weather and with the ranges in good condition. Total rainfall for May was 4.7 inches, according to Henry Brauchle, who keeps accurate records on his Poor Boy Ranch here. Total for the first five months of 1975 was 14.2 inches. The heaviest rainfall last month was 1.3 inches during a single period—although customarily May is one of the months most likely to have cloudbursts here and surrounding areas did report as much as 10 inches in a single fall.

Average for the six months over a period of years amounts to 13.92, giving 1975 a substantial lead so far, Mr. Brauchle said.

Juniors of the Rocky Road Troop Day Camp—Girl Scouts—and their sponsors, enjoy a hike from their headquarters at Camp Cookie in Helotes through scenic Helotes Ranch Acres. Here they stop under the shade of an old oak tree, before returning, near Bandera Road and Antonio Drive. Camp Cookie has been available to troops throughout Bexar County for many years.

Blount Plans To Teach Again

He plans to continue teaching—at church schools.

To India

Two John Marshall social studies teachers have been granted a scholarship by the Department of Asian Studies of the University of Texas (Austin) for a 6-week study-trip to India.

Rene Gonzalez and Alfred Vitacco left San Antonio June 14 for New Delhi. While in India, the two will study in Madras and Mysore also.

Krueger Opposes Gasoline Tax

The House of Representatives, June 11, rejected by a vote of 209 to 187 an additional tax on gasoline. Congressman Bob Krueger, who voted against the tax, explained: "We obviously are facing a future energy crisis, and something needs to be done right now!"

But, if we have additional taxes, those taxes, should be fairly imposed. Instead of imposing taxes on all imported petroleum, including heating oil, this tax was directed at gasoline. The people of Texas, the people of the 21st District, and especially people who live in the rural areas, would be bearing a much heavier share of the tax burden than people who live in the metropolitan areas with mass transit facilities.

"In many parts of Texas, there is no alternative to using a car for transportation. Since the people in our district and our State earn slightly less than the average income for the country, but travel far more by car, they would be paying a very excessive share of the tax burden and subsidizing the Eastern and heavily urban areas."

"The proposed legislation would have levied a three per-cent gallon tax on all gasoline, with rebates for the tax being automatically credited on withholding tax statements. The maximum credit under the tax proposal was limited to 40 gallons a month, the estimated average amount U. S. drivers consume. Texans, especially those living in rural areas would lose out on the tax rebate because of the maximum limit of 40 gallons," he said.

Governor Briscoe's office in Austin estimated that the potential loss of revenue alone for Texas would be $68 million a year.

The District is trying to convince the EPA that the Texas Water Quality Board, the District, and the county licensing authorities have taken adequate action to protect the aquifer.

The District maintains that protection of the aquifer is a local responsibility which is being discharged by local agencies.

Igo Honored

John N. Igo, Jr. was recently honored at Hannah Landa Memorial Library when the Friends of the San Antonio Public Library presented the Fourth Arts and Letters Awards to him in a ceremony at which several well-known artists and writers paid tribute to Igo and his works.

Dick Kistner is Scholarship Chairman, S. A. Hometown Club. Wayne Freiling is President.

UTSA Campus Begins To Emerge

The campus—Phase I—here continues to take shape.

At present, all summer school classes of The University of Texas at San Antonio—on the graduate level—are being held in the Koger Center. When the Fall semester begins September 2, all classes will be held on the new campus at Babcock Road and Loop 1604 here in the completed 181,000 square foot Humanities-Business Building—the only one sure to be ready by the opening dates.

The Gymnasium, which will house UTSA administrators and staff during the 1975-76 school year, is projected to be completed sometime next month, however. The other two classroom buildings—to be for science education and arts, will be nearing completion also in the Fall.

According to schedules released by UTSA the Convocation Center, under construction, is expected to be completed late in 1975. The John Peace Library has a schedule of completion early in 1976.
