Filing Opens For City Candidates

Frenchie's Here

Labor Day Weekend in Helotes features fiddlin' FRENCHIE Burke on the patio of Floore Country Store Saturday night. His blend of Cadjun and Western gives a special twist to C&W music here. Frenchie is a Floore regular out-drawing many of his Nashville peers, when it comes to loyal fans.

Northside Ups Budget

The Northside District school board has approved a budget for 1981-82 of $79,400,000, nearly eleven million dollars above last year's. Included in the new budget is a pay raise for teachers that averages 13.3%.

The school tax rate for the new fiscal year was set at $1.09 per $100 value, down one-half cent per $100 from last year's rate. The total value of property in the district was certified as nearly $2½ billion.

The board also approved at its most recent meeting plans for a new Northwest Crossing elementary school.

Kendall County Fair set for Labor Day weekend...

The 76th edition of the Kendall County Fair gets underway Friday night with a big "Family Night" at the Kendall County Fairgrounds in Boerne, Texas.

The annual affair will feature something for everyone during the four day run from Friday through Monday.

The action kicks off with a big free dance, under the pavillion, Friday night at 7 p.m. featuring the Bavarian Village Band. Another dance in the new dance hall, featuring Nashville star Darrell McCall will begin at 8:30 p.m. and will be charging a nominal admission. The Saturday and Sunday dances will feature the Rough Riders in the new hall and Darrell Hawkins in the old hall, both from 9 to 1, while Sunday the new dance hall will feature Bubba Littrell and the old dance hall will have Midnight Rose. The dances Monday night will again be free with the Rough Riders under the pavillion and the Boerne Village Band playing old time music in the old dance hall.

A Carnival with rides and amusements will be running the entire four days. The fair gets underway seriously Saturday morning as the huge Fair parade moves Politics is in the air in Helotes as the filing date for candidates to fill the office of mayor, five aldermen and Marshal arrived Thursday, Sept. 3. The final date has been announced as Oct. 3 for citizens to file at the office of County Judge Albert G. Bustamante, County Commissioner's Court, in the Bexar County Courthouse in downtown San Antonio. However, since October 3 is a Saturday and the Bexar County Courthouse is not open on Saturdays, candidates are advised to complete their registration in person or by registered letter well in advance of that date.

Judge Bustamante signed on August 24, 1981 an official order calling for the election to take place the first Tuesday in November - which is November 3. Absentee voting will be from Oct. 14 through Oct. 31 at the PARC building.

The official order prepared by Ed Lytle, Helotes and San Antonio attorney, of the firm of Lytle & Van Gaasbeck, was signed by Judge Bustamante and reads as follows:

In the Matter of The Incorporation, City of Helotes. In Bexar County Commissioner's Court ORDER CALLING FOR THE ELECTION OF A MAYOR, A MARSHAL AND FIVE (5) ALDERMEN FOR THE INCORPORATED CITY OF HELOTES

Whereas, a petition having been filed for the Incorporation of the City of Helotes by the requisite number of qualified voters, and a hearing held where said petition was approved and an election held as required by law on August 8, 1981 for the purpose of submitting the question of Incorporating the City of Helotes to the qualified area voters, and because the results of said election were a majority of votes cast in favor of Incorporating the City of Helotes, and also because this County Judge has certified the results of the aforementioned election, and since a request that an election be called to elect a Mayor, a Marshal and five (5) Aldermen for the Incorporated City of Helotes has been made by the Helotes Committee for Incorporation, this County Judge makes the following order:

It is hereby ordered as required by law on this 24th day of August, 1981 that and election be held for the qualified area voters of the Incorporated City of Helotes for the purpose of electing a Mayor, a Marshal and five (5) Aldermen as required by law on the first Tuesday of November, 1981.

It is further ordered that Barbara G. Galland be appointed as an officer to preside at this election and she shall select two judges and two clerks to assist in holding it.

Signed - this 24th day of August, 1981
Albert G. Bustamante County Judge
County Commissioner's Court
Bexar County, Texas

To clear up qualifications, the code under which the first candidates are eligible varies somewhat. Any registered voter 18 years old who meets the six months residency clause and who was eligible to vote for incorporation may file for a post. The regular election is scheduled for April 3, 1982 at which time all candidates must run again if they wish to retain their offices and others are eligible to seek office if they have resided here 12 months, according to information from Austin.

Assistant District Attorney Bob Edlington in the civil division of Bexar County said that the possibility exists that Monday, October 5 will be the final date since Saturday is not a working day in the Courthouse. This is not official, at this date and will have to be cleared.

A person who wishes to file must have a letter stating that he intends to be a candidate for Mayor, Alderman, or Marshal in the office of Judge Bustamante before the present October 3 deadline.

State and Bexar county election advisors said that it is not required to carry the letter into the Courthouse in person, but the mailing date on the letter is not sufficient, the letter must have been recorded during the filing period.

Absentee voting will begin on October 14.

Club Plans Tour, Lunch

The Helotes Garden Club will spend its Sept. meeting touring the Botanical Gardens in San Antonio followed with lunch at Los Patios. The date will be Thursday, Sept. 17, and the member and guests will meet behind the Exxon Station in Helotes Park Plaza at 9 a.m.

Guests are more than welcome. Call Flo Greer at 695-9179 for information and reservations.

The club also is selling honey as a fund-raising project. The honey is raw honey from Kuebel Apairies in Boerne. To order, phone 695-9179. The club also is offering a cookbook of honey recipes.

down Main Street, Boerne, and this years Parade is being billed as the biggest and best ever. After the parade the crowds will move out to the Fairgrounds to view many of the exhibits of all kinds being featured in the annual competition of the best bakers, cooks, gardeners, sewers, canners etc. of Kendall County.

The exhibit halls are open from 10:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily and they are well worth the time it takes to view these interesting exhibits.

The afternoons will be filled with the thrill of the horse races as the quarter-horses and thoroughbreds go to the post each day at 2 p.m. Along with the blue bloods, mule racing will also be a feature each day of the races.

Finally, if that is not enough to wet your entertainment appetite, there will be continuous entertainment under the pavillion from noon to eight Saturday through Monday and it will feature a potpourri of singers, dancers and entertainers for your enjoyment.

The 76th Kendall County Fair is about to begin, and the Fair Assn. welcomes everyone in South Central Texas to come up and join in the fun.

Rain For August 2'

The Helotes area received 2 inches of rain in August, reported Henry Brauchle, weather observer here.

Most of it came toward the end of the month after a long dry spell that stretched back into July. The tropical depression which caused floods east of Helotes this week produced only light showers here.

Mr. Brauchle said the 2 inches of rain received in August brought the total for the year here so far to 39.7 inches.

Marketing For Crop Profits

The financial rewards Texas farmers reap this year will depend heavily on their ability as astute farm marketers. Developing pricing strategies and evaluating marketing options are activities that distinguish "farm marketers" from "farm producers", says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Before considering various marketing options, farmers need to estimate current production costs plus projected harvest costs to determine a breakeven price. Combining these variable costs with the per unit fixed cost will enable the producer to make a valid marketing decision.

Card of Thanks

Nothing so important as the Incorporation of Helotes has ever succeeded without the cooperation and help of many, many sincere persons. The names of those who put in time to form the new boundaries of a modern Helotes and to consult the wishes of the residents of Helotes, San Antonio and Bexar County as to the future of historic Helotes will be recited for years to come.

Friends came forward to help from every part of the State. Thank-you notes have been sent to many, but because not everyone is known to those who will benefit most, the citizens of this area, both within and outside the new corporate limits, take this opportunity to say thank you all.

The Helotes Historical Society, formed here in 1967, also wishes to thank all those citizens who have served as official honorary mayors and representatives of this community in the long time since Helotes first appeared on explorers' maps until the time when Helotes elects a mayor and Council on November 3.

UTSA Signs Two High School Stars From San Antonio

John Williamson, San Antonio Churchill High School's 6'6", 210 lb. power forward, has decided to accept a scholarship offer from UTSA's Head Basketball Coach Don Eddy.

Williamson, a four-year starter for Coach Gerald Adams at Churchill, has been somewhat of an iron man as he has started a total of 124 straight games while accumulating a career total of 1,836 points. During Williamson's junior and senior years at Churchill, Coach Adams' team compiled a record of 64-11 with a most wins ever of thirty-four for this past season.

As a senior Williamson averaged 13 points and seven rebounds per game while making the all-city, all-district, and all-state (third team) teams. He was also named to the all-tournament teams of the San Antonio Optimist Classic, which Churchill won, and the Bobcat Classic in San Marcos. He will play in the Faith Seven All-Star Game in Oklahoma (Texas vs Oklahoma) as well as in the San Antonio City All-Star Game.

Williamson was captain of the Churchill teams during both his junior and senior years. As a sophomore he was named sophomore of the year by the San Antonio Light. Williamson also lettered in track for four years as a high jumper. As a sophomore he participated in the Texas State Track Meet, and his highest jump during his career was 6'6".

Williamson has 4.0 high school grade point average and plans to major in business data systems. San Antonio's high school basketball Player of the Year (selected by The San Antonio Light), Kelvin Moore, also decided to attend The University of Texas at San Antonio.

Moore led Coach Jerry Tyson's Roosevelt High School squad to a 35-4 record while winning the championship of District 32-5A. Roosevelt also won the Bill Horlen and North Loop Tournaments.

Kelvin compiled a host of honors including two years all-district, district most valuable player 1980-1981, all-state (second team), and was nominated for the McDonald All-American Team. He will play in the Texas High School Coaches Association All-Star Game in Dallas in July. Moore averaged 19 points and 11 rebounds and shot 52% from the field and 68% from the line during his senior year.

Road-runner Coach Don Eddy said Moore and Churchill's John Williamson give UTSA's first NCAA Division I team outstanding representation from San Antonio's high school basketball.

Moore plans to major in business. He had a 3.0 grade point average at Roosevelt High School.

Time Is Running Out

Time is running out for approximately 900,000 veterans to use educational benefits of the GI Bill, now in its 37th year.

About one-fifth of the 4.3 million eligible veterans will lose their eligibility for benefits this year, according to the Veterans Administration. The law permits a veteran to use the education benefits within 10 years following discharge from service, or by December 31, 1989, whichever is earlier.

From June 30, 1944, when the first measure was signed by President Roosevelt, through June 30, 1981, 18 million veterans have received assistance under the GI Bill, at a cost of $51 billion. About 35 percent of all trainees have been Vietnam Era veterans.

More than 7.8 million World War II veterans were trained under the original measure, about one-half of all those eligible. Another 2.4 million, or 43.4 percent of those eligible, studied under the Korean plan, and nearly 7.8 million Vietnam Era and Post-Korean veterans and service personnel have thus far participated in the current program. Some 65 percent of the Vietnam Era veterans eligible have received training.

A new program, which requires financial participation by service personnel, is available for those who entered the military after December 31, 1976.

Veterans who want more information on GI Bill eligibility should contact the nearest VA regional office.

RODEO CHAMP

Good friends, independence, a new challenge every day and learning how to accept the up—and down—side of life are the ingredients that make being a rodeo cowboy the "best job in the world," says world saddle bronc champion Clint Johnson.

And that's why Johnson is so delighted that he joined the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association in 1975 after completing only three years of college.

"Life is pretty short," he adds, "so you need not waste a moment of it."

Johnson is following this philosophy as he defends his world championship. "I've been luckier than hell," he notes. "I won the title in my third appearance at the NFR (National Finals Rodeo, the world series of the sport) and I'm doing exactly what I want to do."

Even when he experiences a long dry spell on the Winston Rodeo Series, the 25-year-old bachelor doesn't let it depress him. "No matter how bad you have it, someone else has it worse," he points out.

"It's true that things can get extremely frustrating at times. But cold streaks are part of rodeoing. It's going to happen to everybody. You have to accept that. Sooner or later, you've got to come out of it."

Johnson has not experienced too many periods in which he has been unable to win or place on the Winston series. He presently stands second in his bid to win the $10,000 bonus that goes to the cowboy who captures the saddle bronc title in the year long series.

The former South Dakota state high school wrestling and saddle bronc champion believes the reason for his success during the last 20 months has been "my experience."

"When you start out, you make a lot of spectacular rides. But you also mess up a lot. As you learn how to ride all types of horses including the ones that don't buck that well, you may not make as many spectacular rides," continues Johnson. "But you are a lot more consistent. I've won more on horses that normally don't buck that well in the last couple of years—especially last year—than I ever had and that's why I had such a good year."

Johnson, who didn't win the 1980 world title until the last go round at the NFR as he beat out Bud Munroe by only $458.20, isn't sure what he will do after his rodeoing career comes to an end.

He knows he can always return to his family's ranch here in the Black Hills. But he's looking on the Winston Rodeo Series as "my school. My time with the PRCA will give me the opportunity to look around, meet a variety of people—out here you make friendships that will last forever—and find out what I really want out of life."

"Rodeoing builds character in a guy," Johnson adds. "You learn about the joys and miseries of life. Plus you are looking at something new every day, a new challenge and it builds real independence in you."

Gill Financial Times

We could have named our new account "the-5¼%-interest-bearing checking-account with-the-6½%-interest-CD that-gives-you-overdraft protection."

But the "Best Check Yet" was a lot easier to say.

And it gets right to the point. Gill's Best Check Yet is better than any other standard NOW account.

The CD is the reason. It earns you additional interest. And you get overdraft protection up to the amount you invest in that CD. Whether it's $500 or up to $10,000.

Of course, there are lots of other nice "freebie" services you'll get (no service charges, for instance) just to sweeten the deal.

But then, what else would you expect from a Gill account called, in all modesty, the Best Check Yet.

Professor praises Japanese managers

COLLEGE STATION — Manufacturing firms in this country may improve productivity by studying the Japanese style of management rather than their technology, says a management expert. Since the end of World War II, the Japanese have been able to build almost anything faster, cheaper and, lately it seems, better than Americans. One reason, suggests Dr. Don Hellriegel of Texas A&M University's management department, is the Japanese attention to the human aspects of life in the workplace. Hellriegel said while U.S. managers tend to highly rate aggressiveness, individuality and conflict as measures of achievement, the opposite is found for Japanese managers.

Easy Spicy Corn Relish

Here's a simple recipe for a deliciously spicy corn relish you can make in a few minutes today and eat tomorrow. Take the relish on a picnic to spread on ham sandwiches, serve it with fried chicken, or bring it to a barbecue with hot dogs or hamburgers. Made with fresh corn which is plentiful now, the spiciness comes from instant minced onion, mustard seed, turmeric, celery seed and ground black pepper—all available on your supermarket spice shelf.

EASY CORN RELISH

- |                                    |                           |
|------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1 cup cider vinegar                | 1 teaspoon salt           |
| ½ cup water                        | ½ teaspoon celery seed    |
| ½ cup sugar                        | Pinch ground black pepper |
| 2 tablespoons instant minced onion | 4 cups fresh corn kernels |
| 1½ teaspoons whole mustard seed    | ½ cup diced green pepper  |
| 1 teaspoon turmeric                | ½ cup diced red pepper    |

In medium saucepan combine vinegar, water, sugar, onion, mustard seed, turmeric, salt, celery seed and black pepper. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, for 15 minutes. Add corn and peppers. Simmer, covered, until vegetables are just tender, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat and spoon into a container. Cover and refrigerate until ready to serve. YIELD: 5 cups.

Small City Program

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is gearing up to launch a new program designed to help towns and cities become more attractive physically, economically and socially.

It's called the Texas Certified City Program and is patterned after the Texas Community Improvement Program that has been under way for the past 32 years to help rural communities of under 1,000 population.

"We are currently field-testing the new program, and it should be available to all Texas cities by next summer," points out Tim Shaunty, community development specialist with the Extension Service.

According to Shaunty, the intent of the Texas Certified City Program is to assist city leaders in identifying shortcomings and then finding resources necessary to correct them.

"The gist of the program is to provide information assistance which will allow city leaders to do a self-analysis and then to follow up with training and workshops as needed," explains Shaunty. Those electing to participate will maintain written documentation regarding results of their analysis and actions taken to correct shortcomings. This documentation will be included in the form of verification for pre-selected criteria, enabling the city to become 'certified' that are critical for significant improvement and to develop training materials to support those needs," adds the specialist.

Major segments of the certification program include self-evaluation, planning and initiating, human relations and cultural enrichment, economic development, community facilities and services, and conservation programs.

best," said Roberts. In high school Dietrich carried a 98 grade average and was a member of the National Honor Society and the Spanish Honor Society. Dietrich is the daughter of Burnell and Janice Dietrich of 607 Serenade in San Antonio.

Oxygen—less ponds affect fish

Fish often are found gasping for oxygen this time of the year. Late August and September is a critical time for oxygen shortage in Texas ponds.

Environmental factors as well as oxygen consumption by plants and animals affect a pond's oxygen level. Low levels can cause fish to die or stop growing and also contribute to fish diseases.

"During late summer, the accumulation of nutrients from the growing season coincides with the hottest water temperatures," points out Dr. Ken Johnson, fish disease specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "Both conditions reduce the oxygen level in the water."

Microscopic blue-green algae also flourish, and ponds become colored on sunny days as these tiny plants rise to the surface, notes Johnson.

Good pond management can minimize the hazards of oxygen depletion, says the specialist.

Many pond owners now have oxygen meters to keep tabs on oxygen levels. Such a surveillance device is helpful when raising fish at full capacity limits of ponds.

"Wise owners will check their ponds at dawn to see if fish are gasping at the surface. If this is the case, emergency corrective action is necessary. Aeration by splashing and establishing a current is the best bet," says Johnson.

Oxygen needs of fish vary according to species, age and culture conditions. Most warmwater fish need oxygen dissolved in water at a rate of at least 1 ppm (parts per million) for survival and more than 3 ppm for comfort. Oxygen at 5 or more ppm provides the best growing conditions, explains the specialist.

Oxygen in water comes from air and plants. Twenty-one percent of the atmosphere consists of oxygen, which dissolves into water when it hits the water's surface. The rest of the oxygen in water comes from underwater plants that release it as they undergo photosynthesis (the food-making process of plants). Since photosynthesis depends on light, plants produce oxygen only during daylight hours. This cycle plus the total supply of oxygen to water is affected by a variety of factors.

Pond owners wanting more information about oxygen depletion may get a copy of the leaflet, "Oxygen in Fish Culture Ponds," at the county Extension office.

the usual monetary compensation that most jobs offer, the rewards of doing important volunteer work may be that "little something extra" needed to spice up your life.
Worthwhile opportunities to aid the mission of patient care exist throughout the medical center in areas including clerical, laboratories, education illustrations, patient assistance in wards and clinics, library, print shop and craft carts.

A training and orientation will be conducted for new volunteers Sept. 14-16 in the Medical Center auditorium.
It is necessary for all prospective volunteers to fill out an application and be interviewed.

Volunteer Office at Wilford
Hall, 670-6057 or 670-7431.

REWARD OFFERED For Pet Dog Killer Information

Last Christmas a small gentle light brown curly-haired orphan "Cocker-poo" puppy limped up to our door with a bullet wound in his hind leg. We took him in, patched him up, and he became a permanent member of our family. He wore a collar and rabies shot tag, and always stayed close to home. His name was "Dusty."
Last Saturday afternoon (Aug. 29) we returned home from shopping and found him standing in the drive unable to move. We rushed him to the vet and found a bullet wound in his side made by a strong pellet gun or 22. caliber rifle or pistol.

To The Person Who Shot 'Dusty,' We Send The Following Message:

- We wish you could have been there with us to share "Dusty's" pain as the vet tried to examine him;
- We wish you had been there when we had to make the decision to have him put to sleep permanently because he had no chance for recovery;
- We wish you had been there to share our tears and sorrow as we buried him Sunday.

The Bible says we are to "Love Thy Neighbor" but that's hard to do at a time like this. "Dusty" meant nothing to anyone else but he meant the world to us and we want the person who shot him to know that.

We are offering a Fifty (50) Dollar Reward to anyone who saw "Dusty" get shot and will volunteer to supply the killer's name or tell us where it happened and where the killer can be located. We already know it was in the BANDERA ROAD-ANTONIO DRIVE area because "Dusty" very seldom strayed off our property. Also, he was in no condition to make it home from any distance. Thank God he did make it back home.

Any and all information you can supply will be kept in strict confidence.

First Season Tickets Sell At UTSA

When season tickets for UTSA's first basketball season went on sale recently Don and Mike Henning of San Antonio were ready.

The father and son had been waiting for the availability of tickets since February. That's when they'd first inquired about Roadrunner ducats. So now, the Hennings have etched their names into UTSA history as the first people to order season tickets for men's basketball.

The elder Henning, Don, is a retired lieutenant colonel in the United States Air Force. His son, Mike, who also served in the Air Force, now works in aviation. They are avid sports fans and have stayed busy keeping up with the local high school and professional scene. Now they're preparing for big-time collegiate action at UTSA. "We've really been looking forward to basketball here," says Don, who received a degree in accounting from The University of Texas at San Antonio in 1980.

"I'm hoping that maybe the season ticket holders for these first years might get some type of seating priority down the line five years from now, too," says Mike, adding that he's already thinking about the bright future of the UTSA program.

The Lady Roadrunners, UTSA's women's basketball team, can also count on the Hennings' support. Don can certainly appreciate the growing interest in women's athletics. His daughter, Caroline, was honored as the top female athlete at John Marshall High School last school year. "If people will just watch women in sports they'll see how well they can play," Don says. "They'll surprise you, and I think that's going to be the case with UTSA. They're going to have a good team."

Fans interested in UTSA tickets can call the Roadrunner Ticket Office at 691-4646. A season ticket application will be mailed to them or they can come by the office on the fourth floor of the John Peace Library Building. The Roadrunners will play 15 home games with tickets costing $5 and $4 on an individual game basis and $67.50 and $54.00 for season tickets.

The Lady Roadrunners have nine home dates, and tickets are priced at $2 for adults and $1 for students other than UTSA.

Mike Henning of San Antonio accepts the ceremonial first season ticket for UTSA basketball games from Tricia Watkins of the Roadrunner Ticket Office. Henning and his father, Don, were the first fans to order tickets for UTSA's inaugural season. The Roadrunners will open Nov. 30 at home against Arkansas.

Road-Runners Sign 14th

Tres Sowder, the most valuable player in Kentucky junior college basketball the past two years, has signed a scholarship agreement with The University of Texas at San Antonio and is enrolled in school. Sowder becomes the 14th player on Coach Don Eddy's UTSA roster. The Roadrunners will open their first season ever this fall against Arkansas as a Division I entry of the NCAA.

Sowder, a 6'2" guard, has a playing background in the heartland of American basketball. He starred for a top-ranked high school team in Jeffersonville, Ind., then racked up more awards at Sullivan Junior College of Business in Louisville, Ky. Averaging 22 points and six assists per game, Sowder was honored as the finest junior college player in Kentucky each of the last two seasons. He shot 53% from the field and a remarkable 88% at the free throw line.

Tres is the son of Earl G. and Rosalie Sowder of Jeffersonville, Ind. He will major in business at UTSA.

The painter Whistler sometimes signed his work with a small butterfly.
