Show Sponsorships

TAWASI is a non-profit, non-partisan club in Thibodaux, Louisiana whose purpose is to bring together women of the community for united action that promotes social welfare for citizens in this area through social, civic, patriotic and educational endeavors.

Our primary fund-raising event is hosting an Antiques and Art Show on the weekend after Labor Day beginning on Friday and ending on Sunday afternoon in September each year. The event draws hundreds of shoppers every year.

The funds raised are disbursed to various organizations, agencies, churches and schools that make grant applications specifying their particular project needs. Some examples of funding requests include those for band instruments and music, library books, animal rescue programs, counseling resources, Juvenile Justice Center programs, Bayou Country Children's Museum support, local Food Bank support, and scholarships for Nicholls State University students, but is not limited to those.

Show sponsors help TAWASI to defray the costs of facility rental, insurance, security, printing and advertising which enables us to pass on more grant money to organizations requesting assistance.
