Your Presidents
2023 - 2024
Steve Broadhurst ~ Shirley Roney

Hi, Everyone.

Well, April is here with its showers, which bring May flowers, or as they are known at our house, dandelions. This is actually correct, dandelions are not native and were brought here as flowers. They will not print what I think of whoever did this.

On a more positive note the Spring Bazaar is the 6th and 7th. There are always a lot of great homemade gifts to browse through.

Spring NW district meeting is in Kaiser this month on the 19, 20 and 21st. District meetings are fun and you get to meet old friends and make new ones. The meetings give you a better feel for what the Eagles are all about.

A final note, officer nominations are the last meeting in April. Anyone interested in a position please talk to Steve Thompson or myself. Think about helping to make decisions in our meetings.

Hoping to see all of you soon.

WP Steve Broadhurst

Sisters and Brothers,

Don't forget to check the yard twice before mowing. I've been told that a few eggs are still out there.

Welcome April! Warmer temperatures and sunshine. Planting our yards with all the wonderful colors of summer.

It will soon be voting time. Anyone interested in becoming an officer needs to talk to the nomination committee. Come join us at meetings. They are not that long. You can learn about our lodge, as well as meet some great people. Truth be told, most of our meetings are fun.

It is so good to see the big turnouts we have had lately for dinner. I'm sure the great meals helped. We need to keep this going. The money we make from these meals help keep our doors open. So if you can, try eating at the lodge once a month or more. It would really help with the struggle we are going through.

Have ideas for fun activities we could do at the lodge this summer? It's your lodge and we need to know what you enjoy doing. Come to a planning meeting the first Wednesday at 6:30 pm. Of talk to an officer.

See you at the lodge.

Shirley Roney
Madam President.

The Worthy Contributor

Gosh, it's hard to believe, April is here. One of the beautiful transitional months we enjoy in our beloved state of Oregon. It will be a time to move from indoors to outdoors, shed heavy winter clothing, make the change to light jackets and short sleeves, and don't forget to breakout the sunglasses. It's a time when we see growth, new blossoms, and blooms everywhere, the bees working to pollinate plants and trees so we can have a bountiful harvest in future months. The fields and farms will be full of new crops, calves, foals, and lambs. We'll watch our kids and grand-kids moving forward in life as they grow too, advancing making their way into life to come. Perhaps, it will be a time to pause and enjoy life coming at us, and all the wonder the "cycle of life" that God has given us.

As I sit here writing this, I review the April Calendar for special days and things noteworthy for the month. Several things caught my interest right away. April is National Card and Letter Writing Month. I can think of little that is more pleasurable and surprising than to receive a letter or card from a family member or friend, especially if it's for no reason other than you were on their mind, so they decided to write. Handwritten letters and cards are becoming a lost art, which I find sad. This month is also National Humor Month, and National Poetry Month. Okay, here's your assignment. Pick up a card or breakout that stationery you have in the desk and write to someone for no reason at all. Oh, if you want, put some humor in the letter, or maybe a poem. Hey, think you don't have anything to write about? Well, think of this letter I write to each of you every month, I enjoy doing it and look on it as a labor of love, kind of a friend reaching out to a friend for no reason at all.

Just a quick note of remembrance to list here. I remember how much letters meant to me when I was a homesick kid serving in Vietnam. When I got home, I also remember being told one of the high points of my grandfather's day was to go to the mailbox to see if there was a letter from me, or often mail a letter to me. He died while I was In Country, but that is one memory that we shared that will live forever with me.

Just remember to be the person you want people to believe you are, oh, and don't forget, your smile could make another person's day.
