Fraternal Order of Eagles - Aerie #4177 - Cornelius, Oregon
December 2023

Your Presidents
2023 - 2024
Steve Broadhurst ~ Shirley Roney

Hi, Everyone.

Well, we are in the middle of the holiday season and Christmas will be here before we know it.

Let's remember the reason we celebrate. With all the hype from stores and the media, it can be easy to forget we are celebrating the birth of our Savior. So try to take some time to dwell on the fact that this is the season of love.

In that spirit, remember those less fortunate than we are. The meals on wheels donation box is still on the bar and we are doing the toy drive.

Don't forget to have some fun along the way. Celebrate with all our fraternal brothers and sisters at the Christmas party on the 16th. Good food (by the past presidents) followed by karaoke.

Here is to wishing each and everyone of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Hoping to see all of you soon.

WP Steve Broadhurst

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Brothers and Sisters,

What a wonderful time of year! Christmas is upon us. The lights, music, crowds, and Santa Claus everywhere you look. So many things going on. The parties, shopping, wrapping the gifts, addressing the cards, and enjoying the family and those close to us. Wow, no wonder I'm so tired when it's over.

The kid's Christmas party is on December 16th. Please remember to sign your kids up so we can make sure Santa has a special gift for them. Mrs. Santa will read everyone a book. And lots more fun. Adult party will be that evening. Stop by for more info.

Christmas is also a time of sharing. Most of you think that means giving money. Although that is a good thing to do. This year think of sharing yourself. Come down to the lodge meet new people that in the years to come will call friends. Come help cook a meal or just come enjoy a meal. Come join in on an activity. All of these think will get you to understand about our lodge.

Right around the corner is the New Year. Oh, no. remembering to write the new date. Start it off the lodge having a very nice dinner. We will also have a band for you to enjoy dancing to.

Please take care and be mindful of those that need a helping hand. Enjoy your holidays and drive carefully.

Merry Christmas!

Madam President
Shirley Roney

The Worthy Contributor

Another year winding down, a year sometimes with struggles, misfortunes, and sadness, and yet, often, filled with blessing, fortunes, and happiness. The most important thing is we are getting through it together. We should be proud of how we have pulled together for those suffering in time of loss, offering heartfelt caring, and love. Take pride in living to our motto, "People helping people."

As we enter and proceed through the Month of December, I hope you reading this will humor me in by traditional Christian beliefs, and I will be happy to do the same if you hold other beliefs, after all, it is a time for celebration, family, and friends. A time to promote love among fellow men and women, a time for sharing the joy that fills one's heart.

Our family had the tradition of opening presents on Christmas Eve. It would help Santa to know what to leave as related to our gifts. You know, other things we also might need, and find useful, like socks, underwear, along with treats in our Christmas Stocking hung so carefully for Santa to notice since we didn't have a fireplace. I can't remember staying awake long enough to see Santa placing the neat-o-stuff, I was young, but I do remember being accused of getting up Christmas Morning at an hour to match my age and to the distress of my parents.

Christmas also meant a fantastic dinner with great desserts. Mom would labor for days getting prepared. Our table would be set for the family, and although we were "working class folks," there was always room for others. I can't remember when we didn't have Christmas guests, usually older couples, guys home on leave from the military, or those that had no place to go. No one should be alone on Christmas Day as far as my family was concerned. I hope that's a tradition I've passed on to the kids and grandkids.

December will be another active month at the Lodge, please remember to check for things in which you might want to participate, The Cookie Bake (9th), Children's Christmas Party (16th), The Adult Christmas Party and Karaoke (16th), and the many other activities, check the monthly schedule and check the posting board at the Lodge.

From me to you, Merry Christmas.
