HAPPY NEW YEAR

Your Presidents
2023 - 2024
Steve Broadhurst ~ Shirley Roney

Hi, Everyone.

Well, it's the start of a new year and we all have a decision to make. We can go into this year and make it one of the best ever for the Eagles or we can have a club or a cheap bar, it's all up to us.

The Eagles have the potential to be one of the best fraternal organizations there is. But it's up to all of us to make that happen. We need to remember our obligations and how we swore to live when we joined.

We have to support our Aerie and work together with respect. We don't even have to like everyone, but we do have to treat everyone with respect.

If we can do this we can have a true fraternal organization where everyone is comfortable and able to have a good time. If we don't we will have a cheap bar where no one is comfortable.

None of us can live up to all the obligations all the time. But if we all try all the time, we will have a great organization.

Hope all of you have a great New Year and I hope to see all of you soon.

WP Steve Broadhurst

Brothers and Sisters,

The Christmas parties; wow what fun! The kid's enjoyed Mrs. Claus reading to them. Then best of all, sitting on Santa's lap and getting a bag full of goodies.

The kid's party was followed by the adult party. Everyone enjoyed the time with friends and family. The band was great. The Christmas Basket was won by Linda Kay. Congrats Linda!

Here we are starting a new year. Let's hope this is the best year ever for everyone. Now we can settle back into our normal routine, or maybe start a new routine. Whichever it is, good luck.

Check your calendar, we have some great meals planned this month. Make sure to let the bar know you're coming so we have enough food for you.

If you have something new and exciting going on, let us know. Your Sisters and Brothers are always supportive and eager to cheer you on.

Happy New Year! See you at the lodge.

Shirley Roney

ANNETTE LORANGER

The Worthy Contributor

Have you made your New Year's Resolution yet? It looks like we made it through another year, now we can start anew, oh, but let us not forget the good things from years past. The love and friendships we shared at our Lodge, Cornelius Eagles, Aerie 4177.

Hopefully, we'll all take a few minutes to reflect on the year we're leaving. Give thanks for all we have and all we've achieved. Remember those we lost throughout the year, not with sadness but with joy, good times, and the memories we were able to share with them.

As we reflect on the year that is now like the road behind us in the rearview mirror, count our blessings, we live in the good ole' United States of America, still the best Country on the face of the Earth. Oh, we may argue among ourselves, one of the freedoms we enjoy, we're still "the land of the free and the home of the brave."

The New Year lies before us, the future, as we make those resolutions do we look only for self-improvement, or do we also search for ways to make the World a better place for all. The choice is ours, and perhaps it is simpler than we can believe. How about we start each day with positive thoughts, a smile, and encouragement when interacting with others. Well...as much as possible anyway.

Often in my own life I reflect on things people have done for me, especially things that were unexpected and for no reason other than being nice, or because they knew I needed help at the time. I remember how it made me feel, and how overwhelmed I was with the goodness people show to others, some barely knew me, or were even strangers. I found it brought me joy to do the same for others, a "pay it forward" concept of sorts.

I guess the important thing is for all of us to look forward to the New Year. Oh sure, take the time to reflect and learn from the past, but look to the future and work to make it better. Always take time to enjoy your family and friends, share yourself with others so they enjoy you too. Remember, it's okay to laugh at yourself, dance like nobody is watching, and sing like nobody is listening. Happy New Year!
