Fraternal Order of Eagles - Aerie #4177 - Cornelius, Oregon
November 2023

Your Presidents
2023 - 2024
Steve Broadhurst ~ Shirley Roney

Hi, Everyone

Well, November is here and the holiday season is coming.

This is a good time to remember that not everyone is lucky enough to be looking forward to family and friends get together for a Thanksgiving dinner. Meals On Wheels provides dinners and human contact to people who are unable to provide for themselves. There is a donation box on the bar. Let's help the program that helps those less fortunate than we are. That is what Eagles do.

We are also close to the "not civil war" party, November 24th, Oregon State and Oregon will meet again. Both teams are doing well this year. So it should be a good game and the party is always fun. So come down and root for your favorite team (especially if it's the Beavers).

Don't forget to welcome our new members and help them feel at home. (Especially if they are for the Beavers)

Hoping to see all of you soon (yes, even Ducks)

WP Steve Broadhurst

Hello, Brothers and Sisters,

It's November already, and the kids are still stuffing themselves with Halloween candy. Now it's time for us to start thinking about stuffing the turkey, but to get away from it all, you can stop by the lodge and have a cold (or warm) drink of your choice while enjoying some different company.

A while back, the men made us a cute donation box. This is for donations to Meals On Wheels. This year let's donate to see that our seniors and disabled have a Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner to lift their spirits. You will find the box at the end of the bar by the window.

Here's something to look forward to; December 9th is our annual cookie bake. Anyone who would like to help, please come to the lodge. It will be from 10 am til 2 pm. Oh, and something you should know; these cookies are for our local first responders. If we have extra they will be sold to members.

In closing this month, a small reminder; with the weather changing, be careful on your travels. Happy Thanksgiving! Enjoy your time with family and friends.

See you soon,

Madam President
Shirley Roney

The Worthy Contributor

We are entering the big Holiday Months where things have moved inside and it's a time of sharing. It's a time to share our favorite recipes, generosity, along with stories of the past and present. It's also time to share our respect for those that have answered the Call to Duty to defend our way of life, and a time to share our beliefs and faith in the spirit of love and happiness we have come to enjoy in our communities across this country we call the United States of America.

Normally, especially this time of year, you'll find me joyous, almost to the point that if it wasn't for gravity I would float above the Earth. The idea of sharing with family, friends, and those in need fills my heart. There's a couple of my favorite things happening with College Football, NA-SCAR, and the Bazaars and Bake Sales that take place at the Lodge and about the community, but don't tell anyone about the Bazaars and Bake Sales, people will think I've gone soft, remember I have an image to uphold as a "crusty old guy."

Unfortunately, this year the World is in such a turmoil my heart is filled with sadness. I have a hard time understanding the hate and pure Evil we are being exposed to in recent weeks. As many of you know, I'm a Vietnam Veteran as are many members at our Lodge, and some of our younger members are Veteran Heroes of the Kuwait, Afghanistan, and Iraq wars and many military operations too numerous to take up space here, places and operations many of you have never heard of or are even aware happened. My sadness only finds relief by talking with other Veterans and through my prayer and conversations with God.

Please be aware that many War Vets may be trying to process what is taking place in Israel. Many of the images and discussions may bring back old memories of battlefield situations and the horrors of war experienced firsthand. They may need a little space, or even some aid in coping. If they have a network of other Vets, encourage them to talk with them. I'm also available to be contacted by them, or you, (503) 680-8182. Consider familiarizing yourself with the Veterans Crisis Line and Contact, <https://www.veteranscrisisline.net/>.

I apologize for the tone of this month's letter. I do hope everyone will enjoy the Season of Thanks but remember to hug your loved ones a little longer, and never be afraid to say, "I love you," a little more often.
