of the seal shall be recorded in the minute book of the Association. The affixing of the seal shall be witnessed by the chairperson and the secretary

8 Meetings

8.1 Annual general meetings

a) The committee shall call an annual general meeting in accordance with the Act and these rules.

b) The first annual general meeting shall be held within 18 months after the incorporation of the association, and thereafter within five months after the end of its financial year.

c) The order of the business at the meeting shall be:

- ☐ the confirmation of the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since that meeting
- ☐ the election of committee members

☐ the appointment of auditors (if required - see rule 11.5)

☐ the consideration of the accounts and reports of the committee and the auditor's report (if auditor's report is required)

☐ any other business requiring consideration by the association in a general meeting

8.2 Special general meeting

a) The committee may call a special general meeting of the association at any time.

b) Upon a requisition in writing of not less than 5% of the total number of members of the association, the committee shall, within one month of the receipt of the requisition, convene a special general meeting for the purpose specified in the requisition.

In some cases a lesser or greater percent may be appropriate or it may be on requisition of a specific number of members.

c) Every requisition for a special general meeting shall be signed by the relevant members and shall state the purpose of the meeting.

d) If a special general meeting is not convened within one month, as required by 8.2b above, the requisitionists, or at least 50% of their number, may convene a special general meeting. Such a meeting shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as practical as a meeting convened by the committee, and for this purpose the committee shall ensure that the requisitionists are supplied free of charge with particulars of the members entitled to receive a notice of meeting. The reasonable expenses of convening and conducting such a meeting shall be borne by the association.

8.3 Notice of general meetings

a) Subject to 8.3b, at least 14 days notice of any general meeting shall be given to members. The notice shall set out where and when the meeting will be held, and particulars of the nature and order of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

b) Notice of a meeting at which a special resolution is to be proposed shall be given at least 21 days prior to the date of the meeting.

c) A notice may be given by the association to any member by serving the member with the notice personally, or by sending it by email or post to the address appearing in the register of members. (See rule 5.4).

d) Where a notice is sent by post:

☐ the service is effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter or packet containing the notice, and

☐ unless the contrary is proved, service will be taken to have been effected at the time at which the letter or packet would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

8.4 Proceedings at general meetings

a) Ten members present personally or by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any general meeting.

b) If within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting a quorum of members is not present, a meeting convened upon the requisition of members shall lapse. In any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall form a quorum.

c) Subject to 8.4d, the chairperson shall preside as chairperson at a general meeting of the association.

d) If the chairperson is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or he or she is present but declines to take or retires from the chair, the members may choose a committee member or one of their own number to be the chairperson of that meeting.

8.5 Voting at general meetings

a) Subject to these rules, every member of the association has only one vote at a meeting of the association.

b) Subject to these rules, a question for decision at a general meeting, other than a special resolution, must be determined by a majority of members who vote in person or, where proxies are allowed, by proxy, at that meeting.

c) Unless a poll is demanded by at least five members, a question for decision at a general meeting must be determined by a show of hands.

d) A member being a body corporate shall be entitled to appoint one person, who shall not be a member of the association, to represent it at a particular general meeting or at all general meetings of the association. That person shall be appointed by the corporate member by a resolution of its board, which may be authenticated under its seal. Such a person shall be deemed to be a member of the association for all purposes until the authority to represent the corporate member is revoked.

8.6 Poll at general meetings

a) If a poll is demanded by at least five members, it must be conducted in a manner specified by the person presiding and the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting on that question.

b) A poll demanded for the election of a person presiding or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately, but any other poll may be conducted at any time before the close of the meeting.

8.7 Special and ordinary resolutions

a) A special resolution as defined in the Act.

b) An ordinary resolution is a resolution passed by a simple majority at a general meeting.

8.8 Proxies

A member shall be entitled to appoint in writing a natural person who is also a member of the association to be their proxy, and attend and vote at any general meeting of the association.

9 Minutes

a) Proper minutes of all proceedings of general meetings of the association and of meetings of the committee, shall be entered within one month after the relevant meeting in minute books kept for the purpose.

b) The minutes kept pursuant to this rule must be confirmed by the members of the association or the members of the committee (as relevant) at a subsequent meeting.

c) The minutes kept pursuant to this rule shall be signed by the chairperson of the meeting at which the proceedings took place or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting at which the minutes are confirmed.

d) Where minutes are entered and signed they shall, until the contrary is proved, be evidence that the meeting was convened and duly held, that all proceedings held at the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly held, and that all appointments made at a meeting shall be deemed to be valid.

10 Dispute resolution

a) The dispute resolution procedure set out in this rule applies to disputes under these Rules between -

☐ a member and another member

☐ a member and the association

b) The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute and, if possible, resolve the dispute within 14 days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties

c) If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting the parties may choose to meet and discuss the dispute before an independent third person agreed to by the parties.

Section 40 of the Act provides that where the committee exercises any power of adjudication in relation to a dispute between the members, or a dispute between itself and members of the association, the rules of natural justice must be observed.

Section 61 of the Act provides that an application to the Court for an order under this section may be made by a member of an incorporated association or by a former member expelled from the association (provided that the application is made within six months of the expulsion), who believes that the affairs of the association are being conducted in a manner that is oppressive or unreasonable.

11 Financial reporting

11.1 Financial year

The first financial year of the association shall be the period ending on the next 30 June following incorporation, and thereafter a period of 12 months commencing on 1 July and ending on 30 June of each year.

11.2 Accounts to be kept

This rule applies to all associations.

The association shall keep and retain such accounting records as are necessary to correctly record and explain the financial transactions and financial position of the association in accordance with the Act.

Refer to regulation 8 of the Associations Incorporation Regulations 2008.

11.3 Accounts and reports to be laid before members

Finances to be made available upon request

The accounts, together with the auditor's report on the accounts, the committee's statement and the committee's report, shall be laid before members at the annual general meeting.

Refer to section 35(6) of the Act.

11.4 Appointment of auditor

a) At each annual general meeting, the members shall appoint a person to be auditor of the association.

Refer to sections 35(2)(b) and 35(4) of the Act for qualifications of auditor.

b) The auditor shall hold office until the next annual general meeting and is eligible for reappointment.

c) If an appointment is not made at an annual general meeting, the committee shall appoint an auditor for the current financial year.

12 Prohibition against securing profits for members

The income and capital of the association shall be applied exclusively to the promotion of its objects and no portion shall be paid or distributed directly or indirectly to members or their associates except as bona fide remuneration of a member for services rendered or expenses incurred on behalf of the association.

Section 55 of the Act provides a prohibition against securing profits for members.

13 Rules

a) These rules may be altered (including an alteration to the association's name) by special resolution of the members of the association. This includes rescission or replacement by substitute rules.

- b) The alteration shall be registered with Consumer and Business Services which administers the Corporate Affairs Commission, as required by the Act.
- c) The registered rules shall bind the association and every member to the same extent as if they have respectively signed and sealed them, and agreed to be bound by all of the provisions thereof.

14 Winding up

The association may be wound up in the manner provided for in the Act.

Winding up is normally by the passing of a special resolution by the members of the association and in accordance with the Act.

15 Application of surplus assets

Section 43 of the Act prohibits the distribution of surplus assets at the completion of winding up to members or former members of the association, or associates of those persons. The association may determine to distribute surplus assets to nominated charities.

a) If after the winding up of the association there remains 'surplus assets' as defined in the Act, such surplus assets shall be distributed to any organisation which has similar objects and has rules which prohibit the distribution of its assets and income to its members.

b) Such organisation or organisations shall be identified and determined by a resolution of members in general meeting.
