William purchased 1000- acre tract of land in Mansfield Township, Tolland County, Connecticut on 24 June 1695. He was appointed ensign of the company or trainband of Mansfield in 1704, lieutenant in 1714, captain in 1720. He served as a selectman for Mansfield in 1709/10 and in 1717 was a representative or deputy for the town of Mansfield.

From "HALL of Tolland Co., CT" by Rick DUFFY (see HALL Possibilities folder)

William and Hester probably lived in Yarmouth, MA for several years before moving to Norwich and then Mansfield, CT. "Mansfield was settled from Windham in the 1690s and was known as Pond Place, after the small body of water just to the east of the old cemetery. As early as 1693 a committee was chosen to select a burying ground, with Captain William Hall agreeing to trade the cemetery plot for two acres elsewhere in town. Mansfield became a separate town in 1703."

NOTE: Mary Linnell was born December 15, 1660 in Malden MA and died 1775 in Mansfield CT. Could she be the aunt of Mary Linnell husband of James Hall? Dates would be appropriate. Can't be mother because she would have a different married name. Did any of the Linnell boys below die in Mansfield?

Ambrose Ames Hall (farmer)

B. October 13, 1812 (Mansfield, Chaplin or Ashford CT?)

D. January 10, 1898 (Bedlam Cemetery Chaplin CT)

Married Esther ???.

Born: ??

Died July 14, 1861. Buried in Bedlam Cemetery.

Children : Esther Ortentia (1837), Hannah Orsina (1838), Mary Octavo (1839), Ambrose Lorenzo (1840), Seth Munroe (1842), William H (1845), David L, Betsey, Albert O. (1849), Henry M, Edwin A, Frank R, Ellen R)

NOTE: Was Frank R. Hall really a child of Ambrose and Esther ... evidence for and against ... go to Chaplin or Mansfield Town Hall ... Frank's obituary states parents were Ambrose and Esther, but also lists his name as Frank A. Hall. Not listed in Mansfield CT records among children of Ambrose and Esther Hall but list stops with William H (1845) and there is a "?" mark after that name. Mansfield records list 6 children but there were probably 13. Family may have moved to Chaplin or (less likely) Ashford after 1845. Also, there is no record of a Frank Hall among children of Seth's siblings.

Bedlam Cemetery in Chaplin: Ambrose Hall, Frank M. Hall (b. 1870), Esther Hall (wife of Ambrose), Albert (brother of Frank)
