

FAMILY LAW RANCH

TAKE THE REINS BACK FROM THE COURT

EQUINE ASSISTED DISPUTE RESOLUTION (e-ADR)

Take the Reins Back from the Court Because You Know Your Family Best!

Divorce and Custody Disputes inevitably change the family dynamic. Studies agree that litigation does not help families move forward. Courtroom outcomes are unpredictable and can devastate families and their finances. Arizona Family Law Ranch offers multi-disciplinary team, including four legged facilitators, empowers clients to create practical solutions that promote a positive path forward.

CHANGE THE APPROACH AND CHANGE THE RESULTS:

Change the Environment:

Instead of lawyer's offices and court houses, resolve your dispute at the barn.

Change the Team:

Instead of lawyers and judges, engage a positive team of dispute resolution expert and four legged facilitators.

Change the Discussion:

Instead of getting caught in the same behavioral patterns and circular dialogue, learn new skills and tools proven to benefit all the relationships in your life, reduce conflict, and mitigate trauma.

Change the Result:

Instead of never-ending legal bills and lifelong resentment, create positive experiences and meaningful solutions.

WHY HORSES?

While lawyers are not the most popular breed, horses might seem like a stretch for meditating disputes. However, horses are effective facilitators because their mirror neurons reflect a client's inner world back to them accurately. They provide real time, actionable feedback on communication style, boundaries, and emotional regulation. Our programs avoid many of the pitfalls of traditional litigation.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

Developing a relationship with a horse starts on the ground. Radix Ranch's programs focus solely on groundwork, there is no riding involved. When you create a strong connection with the horse, you may gain a deeper connection with yourself.
