Me and You; You and Me

And here come a prophet down, a prophet, anointed one, false anointed one, see, come down to an anointed one (look how close), and taught the people, and many of them went after that. Don't you never forget that. See, went after the thing that wasn't the Word, the vindicated proven Word! Don't let someone come in here and tell you something different. Watch what God is vindicating and proving.

If You Stand For God He Will Stand For You

The world we live in today presents a choice: Will you stand boldly for the world, or for God? Some say the truth is that you'll gain fame if your name travels farther than you ever imagined. People notice you, admire you, and want to be connected with your story. Suddenly, you become the person others look to as the face of what's current and admired. Then comes popularity—invitation after invitation pours in, your social calendar fills up, and your network multiplies. At first glance, it seems like the perfect equation: stand for the world, and you'll live the life everyone envies. In a time that prizes success, attention, and pleasure, standing for the world appears to be the ultimate key to happiness.

As message believers, we recognize the pull the world has on all of us, especially young people. We often see young people faced with the influence of classmates and even adults when it comes to how they should live and make decisions. But as believers, we are called to something greater and higher. In the End Time Eagle Hour Podcast (Episode #139), they emphasize how believers today must recognize where they stand in this message. For example, Brother Edmond shared how a preacher once told him, "If Brother Branham had killed the man that killed his dog, I would've never accepted this message." That is why you must know where you stand. Just as Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego stood for God, God stood for them as the fourth man in the fire.

This connects to Bro Branham's message, The Hour Has Come, April 15, 1951. He said,

"I'm going to Babylon this morning. My children has took a stand. I'm taking a stand too." 27 My, my. About that time Shadrach and a Meshach, and Abednego went down into the fiery furnace taking their faith—final stand for the Lord. And about the time they got into the fire, there was a fourth person like the Son of God standing there fanning away the breezes down there."

About that time, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego went down into the fiery furnace, taking their final stand of faith for the Lord. And when they entered the fire, there was a fourth person, like the Son of God, standing there fanning away the flames. In a time when so many people stand with the world, the question remains:

Who are you standing for?

ODCT 2025 Meetings Testimonies

ARKANSAS TESTIMONY

Sis. Lani Hawes

Youth of Wildwood Tabernacle

"As one of the youth of Wildwood Tabernacle, growing up in this church under the ministry of Bro. Earl Martin has been a true blessing. Being part of his ministry and hearing his testimony has shown me that what he shares is not just stories, it is revelation. It is proof that his labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Bro. Earl still carries the fire of God within him. Even when the devil tries to beat me down, I can go to him as a shepherd, and right then and there he knows the words to lift up my spirit.

As a child, I used to pray and imagine that he would one day be the one to marry me and my husband. Today, that prayer has become reality, a living testimony of how great God is to His children.

I am deeply thankful for Bro. Earl Martin. Because of his unwavering faith in this message, and his refusal to give up on his sheep, I am able to say with all my heart: I am grateful to be a part of this message."

COLORADO TESTIMONY

Br. Josiah Trujilo

Youth of True Vine Tabernacle

"I can truly say that my life is a testimony of God's answered prayers. Like many believing parents, mine raised me in this Message and taught me to serve God. But Satan will always try to distract and blind us with the things of the world, and for a time, that was my story. Being away from this Message for so long changed who I was and how I saw life. It left me feeling depressed and lonely.

But I thank God for His mercy and grace! He brought me through difficult times in my marriage and many other trials. I am especially thankful for my father, Tito, who came to the ODCT August Meetings and stood in the gap for me when I didn't even know. The Lord made a way, and now I stand here to testify of His goodness and to stand for Him, just as He stood for me."

BOSTON TESTIMONY

Sis. Ashley Saint Louis

Youth of Open Door Community Tabernacle

"Being in this Message for 12 years has not always been easy. In the beginning, I had no personal interest of my own, I went to church simply because my parents did. But over time, something began to stir in my soul. The testimony of Bro. Earl Martin, "Me to You and You to Me," became a light to me. The way he stands firm and soars higher above the storms has left a lasting impact on my life.

Through these 12 years, my entire family has left the Message, and I am the only one remaining. It has not been easy to stand alone, because Satan will always try to knock me down. But when I look at Bro. Earl, how so many people left his side, yet he is still standing strong, losing friends, even family, but never giving up, it gives me strength to overcome the obstacles in my own way.

I love Bro. Earl and I love this ministry. Because of his example and God's grace, I am able to stand here today, free to worship and free to testify of God's goodness."
