

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, When I in awesome wonder,
Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

When through the woods, and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees.
When I look down, from lofty mountain grandeur
And see the brook, and feel the gentle breeze.

And when I think, that God, His Son not sparing;
Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the Cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin.

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation,
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart.
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration,
And then proclaim: "My God, how great Thou art!"

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

Mon âme te chante alors, Dieu, mon Sauveur,
Que Tu es grand, que Tu es grand.
Mon âme te chante alors, Dieu, mon Sauveur,
Que Tu es grand, que Tu es grand!

Lesly Elysee Obituary

Lesly Elysee, age 69, of Randolph, Massachusetts, passed away peacefully on April 21, 2025, at Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston. His departure was as gentle and dignified as the life he lived, surrounded by the unwavering love and presence of his firstborn son, Patrick Elysee. It was a moment filled with both sorrow and grace—a man who had given so much to the world quietly taking his leave, with those who loved him holding his hand and carrying his spirit. Lesly's passing marked the end of a remarkable journey and the beginning of a new chapter in the hearts of those he left behind.

To know Lesly was to know light, strength, and joy. He had a laugh that wasn't just heard—it was felt. It would start deep in his chest and rumble up like a drumbeat, drawing everyone in like gravity. That laugh had seen sorrow and still insisted on joy. He was the man who would notice when someone was sitting alone and go sit with them. He was the father who never missed a game, a concert, or a quiet moment that mattered. He was the community member whose hands were always raised in praise—and ready to help build or fix anything.

Lesly lived with purpose and passed with peace. The days and weeks leading to his passing were spent reflecting, laughing, and offering gratitude. Even as his body weakened, his spirit remained unshakable. He was not afraid of death, he fought a good fight, unafraid of the cancer taking over his body. He was reminiscent of his time with family and friends and looking for things above. As Patrick sat by his side, holding his hand, Lesly's legacy was already alive woven into the strength of his children.

He is lovingly remembered by his children, Patrick, Jonathan, and Ketsia Elysee, and mourned by a large and loving extended family, countless friends, colleagues, and his church community. His presence was a gift, and his absence is deeply felt. Though he may no longer walk among us, Lesly Elysee's legacy lives on—in every story told, every room he helped brighten, and every life he touched with his booming laugh and his boundless heart. He will be dearly missed and forever remembered.

John 11:25-26

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: 26 and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?
