Oh, God requires perfection! He requires your repentance. He requires your loyalty to Him. But He's looking tonight. No matter how much you've sinned, how little or how much, you are still a sinner, and cannot get in no other way but by Jesus Christ, God's all-sufficient Sacrifice. And in Him you are perfected forever. Think of it! It's not nothing you do. It's not new pages you turn. It's not a new life you start. It's a confession of your wrong, and God's grace to you. That brings you to perfection, and then you are perfected in Jesus Christ.

WELCOME TO OUR SEPTEMBER NEWSLETTER

Dear Readers,

Welcome to our September Newsletter! As we reflect on this past month, our hearts are filled with gratitude for all that the Lord has done among His people. Our Annual Meetings were a truly blessed time of worship, fellowship, powerful preaching, and the Holy Spirit moving among us.

Throughout the meetings, we heard so many powerful testimonies of God's faithfulness and His work in the lives of His people. Hearts were encouraged, faith was strengthened, and we experienced a special time of refreshing, renewal, and restoration.

"Restoration Is On!" was more than a theme; it was something we witnessed throughout our time together. God continues to restore, strengthen, and revive His Church, and we are thankful for every testimony of His goodness.

In this issue, you will find testimonies, highlights, photos, and special moments from our Annual Meetings, along with updates from our church family. We pray that these stories will encourage your faith and remind you that the Spirit of God is still moving in our midst.

Thank you for being a valued part of the Open Door Community Tabernacle family. May we continue to hold fast to the Word, walk in faith, and believe for all that God has ahead.
The Spirit of God is moving in our midst!
Restoration is on!

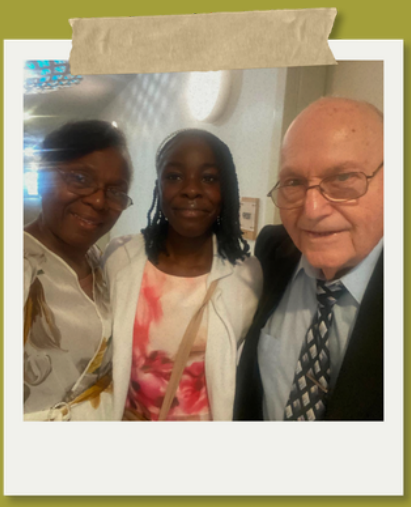

Yours truly,
ODCT News Team

ODCT MEETINGS TESTIMONY
Sis. Mirlanda & Family

Serving God is a personal and spiritual revelation. As young people in this Message, we often hear, "I serve God because my parents raised me in church." And while we are grateful for the foundation our parents have given us, serving God must become something personal to us—something we believe, experience, and desire for ourselves.

Our dear Sister Mirlanda from New Jersey is a beautiful example of this. She has been a consistent viewer and subscriber of our End Time Eagle Podcast every Tuesday, witnessing the power of Restoration and hearing the many testimonies shared by Bro. Earl. As she listened week after week, something began to stir in her soul. A desire grew within her to see these manifestations for herself—not just through a screen, but in person. She wanted to come and see.

Little did she know that the Lord hears the deepest desires of our hearts and knows exactly how to bring them to pass. Last month, in August, Sister Mirlanda didn't hesitate. She told her family, "We're going to Boston for the August Revival because I want to come and see!" And just like that, her family made the arrangements, secured their hotel, and traveled all the way from New Jersey to Boston to witness the power of Restoration for themselves.

She was filled with gratitude and joy to be a part of the meetings—to see and experience the testimonies she had only heard about and to finally meet, in person, the believers she had become familiar with through the screen. But the Lord didn't stop there.

The Holy Spirit spoke to her and revealed the desires that had been in her heart. He even blessed her parents to see what she had come to see and experience in this Message. What a testimony of how God can take a simple desire to "come and see" and turn it into a personal revelation!

Now, when Sister Mirlanda returns to New Jersey, she will not only be able to say what she heard—she will be able to testify of what she has seen and experienced for herself.

We thank God for His grace and mercy, and we pray that we can all have that same hunger in our souls—to be fired up, ready, and willing to come and see what the Lord is doing among His people!

STANDING FOR THIS END-TIME MESSAGE

We are living in a time when the world seems increasingly confused about truth, values, and direction. What was once clearly recognized as right and wrong is often questioned, blurred, or even reversed. Yet while the world continues on its course, the Bride of Christ is making herself ready. This is the hour for believers to examine their hearts and ask themselves important questions: Am I standing? Am I preparing myself? Do I truly understand the importance of this Message for this hour?

Standing for the Message is more than simply agreeing with it. It is having the conviction to hold fast to what God has revealed, even when the people around us may not understand or share that same burden. Brother William Branham often described the condition of the world as a "neurotic age," a time when people would be troubled, restless, and unsure of the right way forward. Yet while the world grows darker, the Bride is making herself ready.

The testimony of Sis. Mirlanda reminds us what it means to have a true hunger for God. Her desire for the Lord reflects the Scripture, “Deep calleth unto deep.” When God calls the heart, there is a response that says, “I want more. I want to know God. I want to stand for what I believe.” As Brother Branham stated in Possessing the Gate of the Enemy After Trial, “I want to stand for Him now, that He will stand for me at that Day, in His Divine Presence.” That should be the desire of every believer in this hour.
