Said all that comes are robbers, all that ever comes to Him trying to get you, try to take you out of His fold, is robbers, evil ones, trying to take you from His fold. But they cannot get you. I just love to bleat that out. Nothing can bother you if you are in God's sheepfold. For He is the Door Himself, and there's no other way. Everything has to be permitted by Him. Sometimes you say, "Why do I get sick?" It may be for His glory.

BR. EARL MARTIN'S BIRTHDAY TESTIMONIALS

Open Door Community Tabernacle had the wonderful opportunity to celebrate Our Dear Elder Earl Martin's 92nd Birthday in Arkansas. It is always a blessing to be in the presence of a man of God. Bro. Earl's Testimonies have brought us countless blessings, instilling faith and strength in us all, from the youngest member of ODCT to the oldest. We are sincerely grateful for him, and we pray that the lord continues to bless him abundantly.

Here is a Poem Written by our Youth Minister, Bro. Naully Jean-Francois

"A Life Of Service"

Earl Benjamin Martin

A son of Arkansas

A family man

A man from humble beginning

Yet the heavenly record will also show

That he was from before the beginning

----

As Declared by God's Prophet

He was born to preach God's message

To this God forsaken age

So he was not disobedient to the heavenly vision

To go to the highways, by-ways and hedges

To restore God's vision

----

But the journey was not easy to go on

As friends became foes

Open doors became closed doors

Yet God's word must go on

So God gave another Open Door

Once more his servant went on

By the highways of Boston

To the hedges of Jamaica

And the by-ways of the Dominican Republic

The report went on

---

(So let us hear the conclusion of the Whole Matter)

Let them say what they may

But the record will show

That it was not a Show

Earl Martin simply got out of the way

And he did it God's way

Kenol, and may God's blessings continue to overflow in your life.*

JESUS WAS NOT BORN ON CHRISTMAS FT. CHRIST - MASS

Everyone knows that Santa Claus is a mythical story, yet people still celebrate and tell their children about him. This raises an important question: Why perpetuate a story that ultimately requires parents to deceive their children? While the idea of Santa Claus fosters a sense of wonder and bonding, the eventual revelation of his non-existence can be disillusioning. For some, it may even shake their ability to trust or believe in greater truths, including faith in God.

As message believers, we recognize that Christmas was established by the Catholic Church. Brother Branham, in his sermon, Divine Healing, stated: "Now, the Christmas is not a Protestant holiday. It's a Catholic day. The 25th of December was months and months before our...after...or before our Lord was born. Our Lord was born in April. But He wasn't born in December. If you've been in Judaea, in December, it's colder than this, so—so you know He wasn't born in December. And it's spelled, it's C-h-r-i-s-t-m-a-s, a mass for Christ. It's the Christ-mass." This understanding challenges us to reflect on the traditions we follow. Instead of blending into worldly customs and embracing the "Christmas spirit," we should focus on living in the Spirit of Christ. Rather than perpetuating the myth of Santa Claus, we can teach our children the truth about Jesus and His role as our Savior.
