Volume 16 No. 10, November 2021 (published Oct. 27th, 2021)

Next Meeting: Wednesday, Nov. 3rd, 2021 @ 10:00 a.m. (via Zoom)

Presidents Message: (Shirley Mathews 905-636-8680 mathews@sympatico.ca)

We have been enjoying a very lovely and unseasonably warm fall, but it looks like November is turning out to be cold and wet. We think about putting on our snow tires, and getting out our winter coats and boots, in preparation for the winter to come.

November is also the month when we observe Remembrance Day. It marks the end of hostilities during World War One and reminds us of all who served in our Nation's Defence. In 1921 the Poppy became Canada's official symbol of Remembrance. According to the Royal Canadian Legion, the Poppy is to be worn on the left lapel close to your heart during the two weeks prior to Remembrance Day, then placed at or near the Cenotaph after the Ceremony. It is a time for every individual to pause, give thanks, and to remember.

On a lighter note, the number of Covid cases are down, and the province and town have lifted restrictions on public gatherings. With the health and wellbeing of the Membership in mind, The Management Committee has put in place very stringent protocols, and starting with small numbers, we are hoping to soon start in person Special Interest groups.

"Our Strength is in Fellowship, Our Success is in Participation"

Special Events: Fall colours tour

On October 13th, Milton Probus held a Fall Colour Tour. Twenty-three members attended, with eleven cars driven. There were forty three clues. The day started under cloudy skies with what looked like a chance of rain. The route had us driving around Lowville, Burlington, and the Escarpment.

Everyone practiced social distancing. We met at the Starbucks parking lot located at Main Street and Tremaine Road. Everyone appeared to have a good time. Those who left first didn't necessarily returned first.

A special thanks to Dave and Angela Hunt who volunteered to test the route and came back with great suggestions and additional clue ideas.

The winners of the Rally were:

1st place winners Ann Marie and Tom Jones

2nd place winners Colleen and Grant Ligerwood and Diane Mitchell.

3rd place winners Mews Shellard, Bonnie Chapman and Pat McIntyre.

A few observations for next time:

Provide an opportunity to use a washroom along the route and to make the clues harder as most participants got between 80-90% correct.

From our Fellowship Director: (Patricia McIntyre 905-876-4040; pat.mcintyre@sympatico.ca)

Greeting Cards

Dear Probus Members:

If you are aware of a member who is ill, hospitalized or lost a loved one, please advise the Fellowship Team or a member of the Management Committee.

Thank you.

Special Interest Groups

2 Bridge (Kathy Sellers 647-227-7036; kathleensellers@hotmail.com)

MEET THE BRIDGE PLAYERS – JEAN LILLIE

How long have you played bridge? I have played since I was a teenager.

How did you learn to play? The parents of children I babysat taught me.

Do you have a funny story about playing bridge? I grew up in a small northern town and heading off to university was a big deal. I babysat for the Dunkley family. Mr. Dunkley thought that all young women should know how to play bridge before they went to University. Mr. and Mrs. Dunkley invited three of us to their house for Friday night Bridge Lessons. I went off to University well prepared and did play a lot of bridge. It was a simpler time. I don't think today's coeds are very concerned about learning to play bridge!

5 Friday Bid Euchre (Joe & Zina Yaworski 905-878-3959; joe_zina@hotmail.com)

A survey was sent out to our Friday Bid Euchre group to see if members were interested in playing cards again in person. The consensus was YES!

The games will begin December 10th, the second Friday of the month. There will be a maximum of 2 tables to begin. Bill and Corinne Turnbull will be the hosts for two tables and Joe and Zina Yaworski will host one table. All members are double vaccinated.

Coffee, tea and dessert will be provided by the host before the games begin. Once the games begin there will be no snacks or finger foods. Drinks will be available.

Provincial Guidelines for indoor events at this time suggests that:

The Host

- provides hand sanitizers
- opens windows if possible
- disinfects high touch surfaces

The Guest

- may remove mask if everyone is comfortable, otherwise wear a mask if you feel it is right for you
- uses hand sanitizer
- does not attend if you have any symptoms even if they are mild.

Let the games begin!

7 The Hiking Club (Leader Terry Cole 905-845-0171; terryjane@sympatico.ca)

Another month has flown by. October was a wonderful month for hiking and enjoying the out of doors. Members of the PWG took advantage of the warm dry weather to add to our amassed total of steps.

We took to the trails of Scottsdale Farm as our regularly scheduled Thanksgiving Monday hike. We were treated to an absolutely beautiful day for this venture. Fourteen members enjoyed the sunshine that helped to enhance the Fall foliage colours.

After the hike was done we all sat down to our typical lunch fare of leftover turkey and fixins. We did of course miss George and Marylin Morita, especially George's distribution of the sweets from Marylin's kitchen. On the positive side Pat McIntyre treated us to freshly baked GG cookies. Much appreciated Pat.

The total steps for October was 274731 to give us a grand total of 88,054,842 steps to date.

All Probus member are welcome to join our merry band of hikers on our weekly outings. Up until now will have been walking in socially distanced mode but it appears we will get to group outings shortly. We will of course follow the Probus Milton Covid protocols to keep us all safe and healthy.

8-1 Jokers (Linda Reid 905-878-7717; dlreid@sympatico.ca)

A survey was sent out to all players in the Joker club. We wanted to know the comfort level of players who wanted to play Indoors/Online/Host and how many tables.

The survey results of 60 joker players are: 38 will play Indoors/13 will play Online/and 9 said No not now. Most would host 2 tables. Small groups will start playing in November and others will play online. The conveyors of each joker group will be contacting players to set up games.

All Joker players must follow the Milton Probus Covid Protocols.

We are also organizing ONLINE Joker games starting in November. These are fun games, we are not keeping score.

We will be using Bob Streeter's Joker Video game: joker4pvideo.herokuapp.com

Joker coordinators will contact you by email to set up 2 or 3 games every month with 4 players per game.

Jokers (first Friday of the month)) Linda Reid & Joe Yaworski

Jesters (second Tuesday of the month) Peter Sneyd & Tom Jones

Wee (third Friday of the month) Marlene Murphy & Brian Murphy

8-2 Jester Joker (Peter Sneyd 905-693-1708; psneyd@sympatico.ca)

The Jester Jokers are planning to play in person games with reduced numbers commencing Tuesday, November 9th. Play will be in line with the protocols outlined by the Management Committee (fully vaccinated, social distancing, etc.)

9 Spinecrackers (Nancy Lynn 905-319-0191; lynn67.personal@gmail.com)

Once more, we ‘Zoomed’ to our October meeting and once more we shared our worries, interests, and plans for the future. We talked of the election, loved ones in real life. Nancy kept us up to date on virtual author talks, Thanksgiving, landscaping woes, travel and car tours, and being able to hug with the Milton Library, the Grimsby Library and the Toronto Authors Festival. Books are not the only ‘glue’ for this group.

And then we got into the novel, Damnation Spring by Ash Davidson. It is basically the story of the conflicts between the logging community in the redwood forests of California versus the environmentalists with a little bit of economics thrown in. However, when a book doesn’t go over very well, the group still has lots to say! Many found the book very sad and that it was almost a ‘prescription’ novel with the basics found in lots of other novels. The final rating was not grand!

Someone asked what my friends and I do, now we're retired. I told them that we're fortunate to have a chemical background, and one of the things we enjoy the most is converting beer, wine, and vodka into urine. We get together and do that every day, and we really enjoy it.

Just ordered my new mask!

11 Suds Sippers Beer Tasting Club (Walter Eadie 905-691-5100; walter.eadie@cogeco.ca)

Suds Sippers is on hiatus until December. A hangover from too much Zoom rather than too much Beer has us looking forward to December and the hopes of having an in-person meeting. Look for more information in the December Probus Pulse.

13 Shutterbugs (905-878-5862; david.g.wentzell@gmail.com)

The Shutterbugs were busy through October capturing life through the lens. So busy in fact that we were unable to meet. This deficit will be corrected in November when we meet over Zoom at 2 pm on Tuesday, November 16. If you have a camera of any sort that you use to record the life and beauty around you, please consider joining us.

JOKES AND WISE WORDS OF THE MONTH

(Send your submission for possible inclusion in a future newsletter)

Thanks for this month's humour Hans

This has been around before but w/Halloween just around the corner, it's fun to hear it again.

On the outskirts of town, there was a big old pecan tree by the cemetery fence. One day two boys filled up a bucket with pecans and sat down by the tree, out of sight, and began dividing the nuts. "One for you, and one for me. One for you, one for me," said one boy. Several were dropped and rolled down toward the fence.

Another boy came riding along the road on his bicycle. As he passed, he thought he heard voices from inside the cemetery. He slowed down to investigate. Sure enough, he heard, "One for you, one for me. One for you, one for me."

He just knew what it was. "Oh my," he shuddered, "It's Satan and the Lord dividing the souls at the cemetery." He jumped back on his bike and rode off. Just around the bend he met an old man with a cane, hobbling along. "Come here quick," said the boy, "You won't believe what I just heard. Satan and the Lord are down at the cemetery dividing up souls."

The man said. "Beat it, kid, can't you see it's hard for me to walk?"

When the boy insisted, the man hobbled to the cemetery. Standing by the fence they heard, "One for you, one for me. One for you, one for me."

The old man whispered, "Boy, you, you've been tellin' the truth! Let's see the devil himself." Shaking with fear, they peered through the fence, yet were still unable to see anything. The old man and the boy gripped the wrought iron bars of the fence tighter and tighter as they tried to get a glimpse of Satan. At last, they heard, "One for you, one for me. And one last one for you. That's all. Now let's go get those nuts by the fence, and we'll be done."

They say the old guy made it back to town 5 minutes before the boy.

Thanks Denise

Joshua Dyer, student from Herefordshire, England, was given a class assignment to write a poem that could accompany the hymn “On The Road to Passchendaele” at a Veteran’s Day concert. He did this poem in 40 minutes. It was posted on-line by an ex-military family and has become an internet success. Joshua wrote about camaraderie and sacrifice and called it his most humbling experience. A++!

ONE THOUSAND MEN ARE WALKING

One thousand men are walking
Walking side by side
Singing songs from home
The spirit as their guide
They walk toward the light milord
They walk towards the sun
They smoke and laugh and smile together
No foes to outrun
These men live on forever In the hearts of those they saved
A nation truly grateful
For the path of peace they paved
They march as friends and comrades
But they do not march for war
Step closer to salvation
A tranquil steady corps
The meadows lit with golden beams
A beacon for the brave
The emerald grass untrampled
A reward for what they gave
They dream of those they left behind
And know they dream of them
Forever in those poppy fields
There walks one thousand men
