A TRIBUTE TO JANE YOLEN

Throughout the anthology, readers will discover Easter Eggs paying tribute to writers, illustrators, cartoonists, actors, and animators who inspired generations of children.

One illustration will pay tribute to Jane Yolen.

A delightful limerick by Lauri Meyers provided the perfect opportunity to celebrate Jane.

In our own small way, we hope this anthology carries forward her tradition of imagination, humor, and heart.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR

- ★ Complete poet list revealed September 1.

You are in AMAZING company!

- ★ Permissions & Author Information available September 15.
The goal is a simple online form
that makes the process easy
for everyone.
It will also include a place to submit a 2-3 sentence author biography for the back of the book. No need to send it just yet. You'll be able to include it when the form becomes available.
Feel free to start thinking about what you'd like to say about yourself.
Humor is always welcome!

THE BOOK IS TAKING SHAPE!

The book is now being laid out while illustrations continue to be added
day by day.

It's exciting to finally see the anthology
beginning to look like a real book.

OVER 200 PAGES OF HUMOROUS POETRY!

ILLUSTRATION SNEAK PEEK! ➡

Here is an illustration from Charlotte Sheer's poem Art Show.

Do the judges seem familiar?

The Easter Egg homages come in a variety of forms; most are subtle hints.

This one...not so much if you know.

The goal is to make the hunt fun for all ages...
but answers will be provided in the back of the book.
