Math

We will finish our probability chapter this week. Then we will spend a day or two reviewing for the test which will be on Monday, May 11th.

Science

It’s hard to believe we are already halfway through this chapter. This week, we will continue with our chapter over animal classification. This past week we learned about invertebrates, so this coming week we will move on to learn about vertebrates.

ELA

Reading: We are very close to finishing Pilgrim’s Progress! This week, the students will journey with Christian on his final battle against Giant Dispair!

Memory Packet Test: May 5th (The students should have this in their binders to study)

Jar of Books for May: Optional- Students may read any genre of books and earn 50 WB each!

English: The students will finish their chapter this week and take their final English test for the year next week.

Word Study: Test over #31-35 on Tuesday

History

Students will be working on independent assignments this week.

Bible

We will have a special Missionary Monday Thursday this week. Mrs. Delaney will be sharing about her experiences as a missionary in Asia and the Pacific Islands!

Memory Verse: Test on Thursday instead of Friday due to the field trip. 1 Cor. 13:13 So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.
