Household Size Assurance Form

If the household size doesn't match what is on the 2021 Federal Tax Return or no tax return has been filed, use this form to help in determining the total household size.

Foster Children and Foreign Exchange Students _____
Foster children and foreign exchange students are considered to be members of the household in which they reside.

Divorce or Separation _____
Children of divorced or separated parents are generally part of the household that has custody. When joint custody has been awarded and the child physically changes residence, the child is considered part of the household where he/she resides for the majority of the year.

Emancipated Child _____
An emancipated child living alone is considered to be household size of one.

Child Attending an Institution _____
A child who attends, but does not reside, in an institution is considered a member of the household in which the child resides.

Child Away at School _____
A child who is temporarily away at school (college or boarding school) is included as a member of the household.

Child Living with One Parent, Relative, or Friends _____
If no specific welfare agency or court is legally responsible for the child or where the child is living with one parent, other relatives, or friends of the family, the child is considered to be a member of the household with whom the child resides.

Deployed Service Personnel _____
Any member of the armed services who is activated or deployed in support of any military combat operation is counted as a household member.

New-Born Child _____
A new-born child (born after the household taxes have been filed) is included in the household size.

Persons Residing in Household _____
Related and/non-related persons living in same household.

Household Size Total _____

I attest that:

- Additional documentation has been provided for all household members who contribute to the household income.
- By signing below, I certify that the above information is accurate to the best of my knowledge and I understand that providing inaccurate information may result is a denial or forfeiture of the Choice Scholarship.
