Star of the Week

This week our Star Student was Melissa. Melissa has been working hard in class and is always cheerful. She is a good helper and encourager to her classmates.

Classroom News

Due to the shortened week, we will not have a spelling test or a verse. The only test we will have is a Bible test over the last few Bible truths. We have been working on things in class, so it will not involve any extra homework to prepare. The only homework we will have is the RED folder. Have them read if possible.

I hope you and your family have a wonderful Thanksgiving Break. I am truly thankful for each student in my class and the families they represent.

There is no hidden message this week.

Become a creative thinking detective!

Reminders

We will have chapel this week.

There will be NO Mileage Club on Tuesday.

Please be alert to announcements coming from the office.

This past week in chapel we learned about another name of God. He is Jehovah Tsurì which means the LORD is our rock. We can depend on God - He will never change.
