ACTIVITY-AT-HOME:

I hope you are all benefiting from the new checklist we are using in our planners. The newsletter will update you on what we are currently learning and the checklist will help us track our assignments better. I had a few students who had to miss out on Fun Friday due to still being behind on assignments but overall, it went much better.

Please check the planners daily and if there are any incomplete assignments, they will be checked as homework and need to be done that evening. Thanks for helping your kiddo!
