

4TH GRADE ROUND-UP JANUARY 17, 2022

Reading:

We will read a folktale entitled “Older Brother, Younger Brother” and learn how to infer character traits by identifying specific details from the text. Reading Journals are due on Tuesday.

English:

The students will focus on objective pronouns this week and also work on making the pronouns agree with the verb in each sentence.

Spelling:

Our next test over List 18 is next Wednesday, January 26.

Bible:

This week we will continue to learn about Jacob and God’s patience to mold him into the type of man who could be used for God’s glory.

The verse quiz over John 1:13 is on Friday.

History: Our final test on the continents, oceans and key countries will be this Friday. We are adding the timeline event of the Battle of the Alamo and will have a quiz over the first 28 events on Friday, also. From our study of ancient China, we will review Confucius and study Taoism briefly.

Science and Math: We will need to review a lot to get everyone caught up from last week. We will continue with polygons in math and the moon in science. There will be a science quiz on Friday.
