Classroom News

I hope you enjoyed your three day weekend. It's nice to get some extra time with friends and family. This will be a shorter week due to the day off yesterday and the early release on Thursday.

The end of the third quarter is quickly approaching. Encourage your child to do their best and stay on top of their work.

Chapel Chatter

In chapel this past week, we learned how to have wisdom in temptation. We learned that we need to think about sins lying promises. Will they fulfill what they say? We also need to trust God's loving plan. He will help us turn away from temptation. Temptation leads us away from God.
