IndyPL eResources Available without a Library Card During Extended School Closure

IndyPL subscribes to several resources that do not require library cards. Because of those subscriptions, publishers have made additional resources available during the extended closure of schools. There are not apps for any of these databases at this time. All of these databases are available to Marion County residents with unlimited access from home. These databases are accessible on the IndyPL website.

From TumbleBooks:

TumbleBook Library – K- 6
https://www.tumblebooklibrary.com/autologin.aspx?userid=z6a8J47w%2bZvyJaappaC%2faw%3d%3d. Our agreement allows for anyone in Marion County to access TumbleBooks without a library card. TumbleBook Library contains more than 1,000 simultaneous use titles, and more than 200 National Geographic streaming videos. There are read-alongs and games, too. To find out more about what TumbleBook Library offers, go to their website: https://tumblebooklibrary.com/about_tumblebooks.aspx.

In response to schools and libraries closing due to Covid-19, Tumblebooks is providing free access to their other databases until August 31, 2020. Here are the four additional databases that we have access to:

TumbleMath - K-6 math ebook database
https://www.tumblemath.com/autologin.aspx?U=tumble2020&P=A3b5c6
TumbleMath is a collection of math picture books with animation and narration. The books are accompanied by supplementary materials such as lesson plans and quizzes. The Quiz Portal containing thousands of quizzes created by math teachers. To find out more about what TumbleMath offers, go to their website: www.TumbleMath.com

TeenBookCloud - gr 7-12 ebook database
https://www.teenbookcloud.com/autologin.aspx?U=tumble2020&P=A3b5c6
TeenBookCloud is a collection of eBooks and educator resources designed for middle school, high school, and public library. It contains about 1,000 titles which include graphic novels, eBooks, classic literature, National Geographic videos, educator resources, and audiobooks. To find out more about what TeenBookCloud offers, go to their website: https://www.teenbookcloud.com/.

AudioBookCloud - all ages audio book database
https://www.audiobookcloud.com/autologin.aspx?U=tumble2020&P=A3b5c6
AudioBookCloud is a small collection of eAudiobooks. It contains classics, fiction, non-fiction, children's, young adult, romance, literature, mystery and suspense, westerns, science fiction, historical fiction, and Spanish audiobooks. To find out more about what AudioBookCloud offers, go to their website: https://www.audiobookcloud.com/.

From Gale:

As of March 26, 2020

The Gale databases offered free during the extended closure are listed below.   Students will have to enter the name of the library (Indianapolis Public Library), their zip code, and the state to verify their residence, but they will not need a library card.

Miss Humblebee's Academy (Kindergarten Readiness) (https://www.gale.com/covid19support/form/miss-humblebees-academy)
Interactive kindergarten-readiness database for children ages 3 to 6 with lessons in Math, Science and Social Studies, Language and Literacy, Art, and Music. The lessons increase in difficulty as the child progresses through the program and cognitive skills are assessed at regular intervals for measurable improvement toward kindergarten readiness. Parents can track their child's learning outcomes through weekly progress reports that are emailed and available online 24/7. Approximately twenty percent of the curriculum is available offline in the form of printables and practice worksheets.

Kids InfoBits (https://www.gale.com/covid19support/form/kids-infobits)
Articles, images, charts and graphs, and educational videos from books, magazines, and newspapers on topics and important facts about history and current events. It's reliable and geared to fit the needs of today's young learners.

Gale In Context: Middle School (https://www.gale.com/covid19support/form/gale-in-context-middle-school)
Articles, videos, newspapers, magazines, and primary sources created specifically for middle school students. Categories cover a range of topics including cultures, government, people, U.S. and world history, literature, and many more.

IndyPL and the Marion County Internet Library also subscribe to the following Gale databases which are geoauthenticated. As long as the student is in Marion County, they should be able to get to the database without a library card.

Gale in Context: Biography: (https://go.gale.com/ps/start.do?p=BIC&u=indymar)
Biographical information on contemporary and historical people from around the world.

Gale Books and Authors: (https://go.gale.com/ps/start.do?p=BNA&u=indymar)
Explore reading possibilities by searching for books by title, series, "if you like…," author, genre, librarian recommendations, coming soon selections, and awards.

Gale Ebooks: (https://galesupport.com/mcilgeo?db=GVRL&loc=imcpl_indy) Reference resources including the categories: Arts, Business, History, Law, Literature, and Medicine.

Gale Literature: (https://go.gale.com/ps/start.do?p=GLS&u=indymar)
Provides literature-related information on writers from around the world and throughout time. Includes criticism, literary and cultural analysis, biographies, summaries of literary works, primary sources, and photographs; as well as full-text poems, short stories, novels, plays, and speeches.

Gale in Context: Global Issues (http://galesupport.com/mcilgeo?db=GIC&loc=indymar)
International viewpoints on a broad spectrum of global issues, topics, and current events.
Sponsor: Marion County Internet Library

Gale Health and Wellness (http://galesupport.com/mcilgeo?db=HWRC&loc=indymar)
Comprehensive source for medical and health information containing reference materials, magazine and journals, and pamphlets to provide information on diseases, symptoms, alternative health, and other topics.

As of March 26, 2020

Gale OneFile: Health and Medicine (http://galesupport.com/mcilgeo?db=HRCA&loc=indymar)
Access to over 12 million full-text articles published in nursing and allied health journals.

Gale in Context: High School (http://galesupport.com/mcilgeo?db=SUIC&loc=indymar)
Designed to be a single starting point for students at all levels, with a wide range of materials supporting classroom work: full-text articles from 1200 magazines; 18,000 photos and graphics; AV resources; primary documents; links to selected websites. Formerly known at Student Resources in Context.

Gale One File: Informe Academico (https://galesupport.com/mcilgeo?db=IFME&loc=imcpl_indy)
Both the search interface and results are in Spanish. Articles come from popular Spanish-language magazines.

Gale in Context: Opposing Viewpoints (http://galesupport.com/mcilgeo?db=OVIC&loc=indymar)
Information on social issues drawn from news articles, books, websites, and primary documents, highlighting the differences between contrasting viewpoints.
Sponsor: Marion County Internet Library

Gale in Context: Science (https://go.gale.com/ps/start.do?p=SCIC&u=indymar)
Science encyclopedias, reference books, periodicals, and images from sources such as UPI, Getty, NASA, National Geographic, and the Nature Picture Library.

Gale in Context: U.S. History (http://galesupport.com/mcilgeo?db=UHIC&loc=indymar)
Learn about the most significant people, events, and topics through an overview of U.S. history.
Sponsor: Marion County Internet Library

Gale in Context: World History (http://galesupport.com/mcilgeo?db=WHIC&loc=indymar)
Learn about the most significant people, events, and topics in world history.
Sponsor: Marion County Internet Library