Math
(Nash)

We will begin a new chapter over Data Analysis. In two weeks we will be taking ILEARN checkpoint #2.

IXL: The VIP Breakfast document will be shared with students are Monday. The “IXL” test grade will be entered at the end of the semester. Students need to have 50+ IXL skills for an A+.

Kick-It: This semester we will move from mastering multiplication facts and begin mastering division facts. There will be a “kick-it” test every Friday. The final “Kick-it Division” test grade will be given at the end of the year.

Science
(Nash)

We will continue in space with our next chapter and move from stars to the solar system.

Reading: The students will work on identifying the parts of a story (the plot) this week as we read a short-story fantasy A Ride to Honor.

Jar of Books: For this month, the students will focus on Scripture reading. They will choose a book of the Bible to read and create a Google slideshow for their Reading Buddy, using a lesson the students learned from the verses they read.

English: Coming off of our two-week break, we will take this week to review English concepts we've learned so far this year.

Word Study: Study suffixes #16-20 for the test on Tuesday, January 13th.

History
(Newton)

The students will study the first battles of the Revolutionary War at Lexington and Concord and come to appreciate the role that Paul Revere played in his infamous “midnight ride..” We also plan to see this period in American history through the eyes of some patriots like Patrick Henry and Samuel Adams.

Bible
(Baker)

We continue our study of the foundations of our faith. This week, we will focus on the Image Bearing Wall and the 4 pillars that support this wall.

Memory Verses: We will return to memorizing verses from Proverbs 3. This week, before moving on, we will review Prov. 3:1-8 and take a test over these verses on Friday.
